SECTION II – RISK FACTORS

An investment in equity shares involves a high degree of risk. You should consider all the information in this Red Herring Prospectus, including the risks and uncertainties described below, before making an investment in our Equity Shares. If any of the following risks or any of the other risks and uncertainties discussed in this Red Herring Prospectus actually occur, our business, financial condition and results of operations could suffer, the trading price of our Equity Shares could decline, and you may lose all or part of your investment. These risks and uncertainties are not the only risks that we face. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to us or that we currently believe to be immaterial may also have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

The financial and other related implications of risks concerned, wherever quantifiable, have been disclosed in the risk factors below. However, there are risk factors the potential effect of which are not quantifiable and therefore no quantification has been provided with respect to such risk factors. In making an investment decision, prospective investors must rely on their own examination of our Company and the terms of this Issue, including the merits and risks involved.

Unless otherwise stated, the financial information of our Company used in this section is derived from our restated unconsolidated financial statements.

INTERNAL RISKS

1. We are significantly dependent on PTC, our Promoter, for the growth of our business.

We are a subsidiary of PTC, and depend significantly on PTC for growing and supporting our business. PTC is the market leader for power trading solutions in India (Source: Central Electricity Regulatory Commission ("CERC") monthly report on short term transactions of electricity (December, 2010) ("CERC Report")). We believe we benefit from the power sector expertise, network and relationships of PTC and its affiliates, which provide us with early access to business opportunities. We have in the past received many of our principal investment and debt financing opportunities from references made by PTC. For example, most of the ten principal investments that our Board has approved, particularly in the initial stages of our operations, developed out of initial references made by PTC. In addition, five of our 32 debt finance projects for which debt commitments have been approved by our Board as of December 31, 2010 also involve power purchase agreements executed with PTC and developed out of initial references made by PTC. In the event that PTC ceases to be a significant shareholder in our Company and refrains from participating in the growth of our business, our business prospects, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected.

2. Volatility in interest rates affects our lending and treasury operations, which could cause our net interest income to decline and adversely affect our return on assets and profitability. In fiscal 2010 and in the nine months ended December 31, 2010, interest income represented 51.44% and 70.19%, respectively, of our total income in such periods.

Our business is significantly dependent on interest income from our lending and treasury operations. In fiscal 2010 and in the nine months ended December 31, 2010, interest income represented 51.44% and 70.19%, respectively, of our total income in such periods. Interest income from our lending operations contributed 25.38% and 65.58 % of our total income in fiscal 2010 and in the nine months ended December 31, 2010, respectively, while interest income from treasury operations contributed approximately 26.06% and 4.61 % of our total income in fiscal 2010 and in the nine months ended December 31, 2010, respectively. Accordingly, we are affected by volatility in interest rates in our lending and treasury operations. Our policy is to attempt to balance the proportion and maturity of our interest-earning assets with our interest-bearing liabilities. Almost all of our loan assets are at floating interest rates with approximately 84.88% of our loan financing as of December 31, 2010 related to loans made at floating interest rates. A majority of our liabilities, such as our secured non-convertible debentures, and short term borrowings carry fixed rates of interest and the remaining are linked to the respective banks' benchmark prime lending rate/base rate. Approximately 41.90% of our total loan funds as of December 31, 2010 related to borrowings availed was at fixed rates while the remaining was at floating rates. There can be no assurance that we will be able to adequately manage our interest rate risk in the future and be able to effectively balance the proportion and maturity of our interest earning assets and interest bearing liabilities in the future. Further, despite this balancing, changes in interest rates could affect the interest rates charged on interest-earning assets and the interest rates paid on interest-bearing liabilities in different ways.

Thus, our results of operations could be affected by changes in interest rates and the timing of any re-pricing of our liabilities compared with the re-pricing of our assets.

Being a non-deposit taking NBFC, we are exposed to greater interest rate risk compared to banks or deposit taking NBFCs, as a result of our relatively higher cost of funds. Interest rates are highly sensitive to many factors beyond our control, including the monetary policies of the RBI, deregulation of the financial sector in India, domestic and international economic and political conditions and other factors. When interest rates decline, we are subject to greater re-pricing and prepayment risks as borrowers may take advantage of the attractive interest rate environment. If interest rates rise we may have greater difficulty in maintaining a low effective cost of funds compared to our competitors which may have access to low-cost deposit funds. Fluctuations in interest rates may also adversely affect our treasury operations. In addition, the value of any interest rate hedging instruments we may enter into in the future may be affected by changes in interest rates. Our inability to effectively and efficiently manage interest rate variations may adversely affect our result of operations and profitability.

3. Our Promoter PTC, Directors and related entities may have business interests similar to ours, which may result in conflicts of interest that may adversely affect future financing opportunity referrals.

Our Promoter, Directors and related entities have interests in other companies, which are in businesses similar to ours, which may result in potential conflicts of interest. Although PTC Energy Limited, an affiliate company, undertakes co-development of energy projects with private project developers and is not directly in competition with us, it also has access to PTC for equity financing opportunities that contemplate a co-developer role. As specified in Article 114.5 of our Articles of Association and pursuant to the terms of the shareholders agreement dated December 28, 2007 ("SHA") among our Company, GS Strategic Investments Limited ("GS"), Macquarie India Holdings Limited ("MQ") and PTC, we have established procedures for the identification and resolution of potential conflicts of interest situations between us and PTC. For further information on such conflict resolution procedures, see section titled "Material Agreements" on page 140. However, pursuant to the SHA Amendment Agreement, the SHA shall terminate with effect from the date of filing of the Prospectus with the RoC. Accordingly, the aforesaid article 114.5 shall also cease to have effect from such date.

In addition, PTC has entered into an agreement with the Ashmore group to establish an energy sector fund and an asset management company (the "PTC Ashmore Fund") to manage the fund. Pursuant to such agreement, PTC is restricted from referring any equity financing opportunities above ₹ 1,000 million to us. Under such agreement, PTC has agreed with Ashmore certain principles of cooperation ("Principles of Cooperation") with respect to our Company. The Company is not a party to such agreement, and such agreement is not binding on the Company. However, pursuant to a Board resolution dated June 21, 2010, the Board of Directors of the Company has noted certain terms of such agreement, and have in-principle agreed to enter into a definitive cooperation agreement with the PTC Ashmore Fund in accordance with the terms of the Principles of Cooperation. Although the terms of such definitive cooperation agreement are under discussion, no such definitive agreement has been entered into as of the date of this Red Herring Prospectus. The Principles of Cooperation contemplate that we shall refer all energy sector equity financing opportunities in India in excess of ₹ 1,000 million to the PTC Ashmore Fund, while the PTC Ashmore Fund shall refer to us all energy sector equity financing opportunities of a value of ₹ 1,000 million or lower, as well as all debt financing and convertible debt financing opportunities (as defined in the terms of such Principles of Cooperation). For further information relating to the Principles of Cooperation, see the section titled "History and Certain Corporate Matters- Cooperation Agreement" on page 138.

We have developed significant business independent of PTC, and there can be no assurance that PTC will not enter into similar arrangements in the future with other third parties or that PTC will continue to refer business or investment opportunities to the Company.

Further, our Chairman and Managing Director, Mr. Tantra Narayan Thakur is also a director of our group company, Ashmore PTC India Energy Infrastructure Advisors Private Limited, whose memoranda of association permits it to engage in the business of providing financial or other assistance, which is similar to the business of our Company. For further information with respect to directorships of certain of our directors, see section titled "Our Management" on page 153. Also, the memorandum of association of two of our other group companies i.e. Ashmore PTC India Energy Infrastructure Trustee Private Limited and Barak Power Private Limited permits such companies to engage in the business similar to the business of our Company. For further information with respect to such conflict of interest, see section titled "Our Promoter and Group Companies- Common Pursuits" on page 173.

Accordingly, potential conflicts of interest may arise out of common business objectives shared by us, our Promoter, our Directors and our group companies. There can be no assurance that these or other conflicts of interest will be resolved in an impartial manner.

4. We may not achieve our investment objectives and targeted returns from our principal investments, which may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

There can be no assurance that our principal investments will achieve their investment objectives or targeted returns, or that we will be able to fully invest our capital commitments. We may not be able to fully ascertain the risks involved in the projects we invest in due to limited information. The value of these principal investments depends on the success and continued viability of these businesses. We may not be able to realize gains from our principal investments, and any gains that we do realize on the disposition of any of our principal investments may not be sufficient to offset any other losses we experience. Write-offs or write-downs in respect of our equity investments may adversely affect our financial performance and the price of our Equity Shares. We also may be unable to realize any value in a principal investment company if we are unable to sell our equity interest in such investee company due to various internal or external factors. In addition, the ability of these investee companies to make dividend payments is subject to applicable laws and regulations in India relating to payment of dividends.

In the event of a bankruptcy, liquidation or reorganisation of an investee company, our claim in the assets of such investee company as a shareholder remains subordinated to the claims of lenders and other creditors. Lenders to the investee companies also typically have a floating charge over all assets of the investee company, including dividend payments by, and all cash of, these investee companies, effectively providing the lenders to such investee companies a first priority lien over any distribution upon the occurrence of an event of default under the financing arrangements.

5. If we are unable to timely exit our principal investments due to illiquidity of investments, our business prospects, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected.

Infrastructure investments, particularly investments in power generation projects, are generally less liquid and involve a longer holding period than traditional private equity investments, which are themselves often considered illiquid and long-term. Even if an investment is successful, we may not be able to realize financial returns as anticipated. Furthermore, investments in power generation companies may not have any readily ascertainable market value and the value of investments reflected in our financial statements may be higher than the values obtained by us upon the sale of such investments. An infrastructure investment may be illiquid on account of, among other reasons, lack of an established market for such asset or company, scarcity of disposal options and/or potential acquirers, or legal, tax, regulatory or contractual restrictions associated with the disposal of such investment. Our investments may also be subject to contractual, legal and other restrictions, such as pre-emption rights and the requirement to obtain consents and approvals on resale. The illiquidity of these investments may make it difficult to sell investments even if we determine that the sale is in our interest. Although we may enter into contractual terms with the promoter and other shareholders of our investee companies that enable us to require such promoter and other shareholders to purchase our shareholding in the investee company, such agreement may be subject to certain conditions, and there can be no assurance that we will be able to secure such contractual arrangements with respect to any of our future investments or that we will be able to enforce such contractual terms with respect to any of our current or future investments.

Although there is no restriction on our making principal investments in public sector or private sector listed companies, historically we have made principal investments in only unlisted private sector companies. Substantially all of these securities are subject to legal and other restrictions on resale or are otherwise less liquid than publicly traded securities. The illiquidity of our investments may make it difficult for us to sell such investments if required. In addition, if we are required to liquidate all or a portion of our portfolio quickly, we may realize significantly less than the value at which we had previously recorded our investments. As on December 31, 2010, our Principal Investments accounted for 63.00% of our networth and all our Principal Investments have been made in eight unlisted private sector companies. We may also face other restrictions on our ability to liquidate an investment in an investee company to the extent that we have material non-public information regarding such company.

6. We have recorded negative cash flows from operations in recent periods. There is no assurance that such negative cash flows from operations shall not recur in future fiscal periods.

Our outward cash flows relating to loans and advances we disburse (net of any repayments we receive) and our principal investments are reflected in our cash flow from operating activities whereas the inward cash flows from external funding we procure (net of any repayments of such funding) to disburse these loans and advances are reflected in our cash flows from financing activities. We had negative net cash flow from operating activities of ₹ 317.82 million, ₹ 1,115.25 million, ₹ 4,414.70 million and ₹ 3,006.72 million in fiscal 2008, 2009 and 2010 and in the nine months ended December 31, 2010, respectively, as a result of increases in our lending operations and our principal investments. For further information on our cash flows, see the section titled “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Result of Operations-Cash Flows” on page 231.

7. Our Promoter is involved in a number of legal and arbitration proceedings.

Our Promoter PTC India Limited is a party to various legal proceedings. 8. Our funding requirements and the proposed deployment of a portion of the Net Proceeds are based on management estimates and have not been independently appraised by any bank or financial institution and may be revised from time to time. Further, we have not entered into any definitive arrangements to utilise the Net Proceeds of this Issue.

Our funding requirements and the deployment of the Net Proceeds are based on management estimates and have not been appraised by any bank, financial institution or other independent institution. Our management will have discretion in the application of the Net Proceeds and investors will not have the opportunity, as part of their investment decision, to assess whether we are using the proceeds in a manner that they believe enhances our market value. We intend to utilize the Net Proceeds to augment our capital base to meet the future capital requirements arising out of growth in our assets, primarily our loan and investment portfolio and for other general corporate purposes. However, we have not entered into any definitive agreements for utilization of the Net Proceeds of this Issue. In view of the highly competitive nature of the industry in which we operate, we may have to revise our management estimates from time to time and, consequently, our funding requirements may also change. For further details in this regard, see the section titled “Objects of the Issue” on page 76.

9. Our Promoter will continue to retain majority control in our Company following the completion of the Issue, which will enable them to influence the outcome of matters submitted to shareholders for approval.

Upon completion of the Issue, our Promoter will control, directly or indirectly, approximately 60.00% of our outstanding Equity Shares. As a result, our Promoter will continue to exercise significant control over us, including matters relating to any sale or all or substantially all of our assets, timing and distribution of dividends and controlling the composition of our Board and determining matters requiring shareholder approval or approval of our Board. Our Promoter may take or block actions with respect to our business, which may conflict with our interests or the interests of our minority shareholders. By exercising its control, our Promoter could delay, defer or cause a change of our control or a change in our capital structure, or a merger, consolidation, takeover or other business combination involving us, discourage or encourage a potential acquirer from making a tender offer or otherwise attempting to obtain control of us. In addition, for as long as the Promoter continues to exercise control over the Company, it may influence the material policies of our Company in a manner that could conflict with the interest of our other shareholders. The Promoter may have interests that are adverse to the interests of our other shareholders and may take positions with which we or our other shareholders may not agree.

10. Certain other shareholders have the right to approve certain significant corporate actions. Certain affiliates of these shareholders may invest in our competitors.

A share subscription agreement dated December 28, 2007 (“SSA”) was entered into between our Company, GS, MQ and PTC. Under the related SHA dated December 28, 2007, there are certain restrictive covenants relating to the rights of the parties to such SHA, including that (i) the parties to the SHA are entitled to a right of first offer with respect to all equity shares that any party may wish to transfer to a person or entity other than its associate(s), in the manner provided in the SHA; and (ii) without obtaining the prior consent each of GS and MQ, PTC shall not, directly or indirectly, establish any other company, fund, partnership or enter into any joint venture (whether incorporated or not) for engaging in any activity which would compete with the business of the Company. Certain of our existing shareholders have the power to control matters requiring the approval of majority of our shareholders pursuant to the terms of SSA. Pursuant to the SSA, the shareholders have the right to appoint one director for every block of 20.00% of the total paid up equity share capital of the Company held by it. Further, these shareholders have the right to approve significant actions at the Board and the shareholder meetings, including the issue of equity shares and dividend payments, the approval of business plans, merger, amalgamation, de-merger, re-organisation or voluntary winding up of the Company, consolidation or sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets or any amendment to the MoA or AoA of the Company. However, pursuant to the SHA Amendment Agreement, the SHA shall terminate with effect from the date of filing of the Prospectus with the RoC.

There can be no assurance that any of these shareholders will not have any conflicts of interests with the other shareholders or with us. Any such circumstances may adversely affect our ability to execute our business strategy or to operate our business. This may also result in a delay or prevention of significant corporate actions, which could be beneficial for our other shareholders or us.

For further information, see the section titled “Material Agreements” beginning on page 140 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

11. The companies in which we make principal investments may not perform and we may not be able to control the non-performance of such companies.

As of December 31, 2010, we had principal investments aggregating to ₹ 4,186.23 million. We generally do not take majority equity positions in the investee companies in which we make principal investments and do not manage, operate or control such companies. Although we may seek to obtain board representation or other similar rights in connection with our investments in such companies, there can be no assurance that these rights, if sought, will be obtained. Furthermore, even in the cases where we have certain rights to be represented on the board of directors of the investee companies in which we invest or to participate in certain significant business decisions or have other similar rights, we do not expect to have an active role in the operations of those investee companies. As of December 31, 2010, of the seven principal investments that involve power generation projects, aggregating 3,221.45 MW capacity, one project has commenced operations at full capacity while two projects have commenced operations for part of their respective capacities, representing, in the aggregate, approximately 175.6 MW capacity currently under operation. These investments will be subject to the risk that such companies may, when they commence commercial operations, make business, financial or management decisions with which we do not agree, or that the majority shareholders or the management of such companies may take business decisions that may be adverse to, or otherwise act in a manner that does not serve, our interest. For further information on our principal investments and the status of the relevant projects, see "Our Business - Principal Investments" commencing on page 106. The success or failure of our investments will depend to a significant extent on the specific management team of the relevant investee company. The actions taken by the management of such investee companies may adversely affect our financial performance.

12. We may not be able to identify attractive investments that meet our investment criteria or make investments in such identified opportunities and this may adversely affect our results of operations.

There can be no assurance that we will be able to identify suitable energy project investments that meet our investment criteria, or make investments in such identified opportunities. The activity of identifying attractive investment opportunities is highly competitive and making such investments may be subject to various factors beyond our control. We compete for investments with many other sources of capital, including financial institutions focused on power sector investments, infrastructure funds, private equity funds, public and private companies and hedge funds. Similarly, these entities may seek to sell infrastructure assets at the same time as us, thereby resulting in a decline in the value of such assets. The power sector investment landscape in India is rapidly evolving and other financial services companies and investment funds with similar objectives have been or may be formed. The large number of competitors compared to the limited number of attractive investment opportunities in the Indian power sector may increase the price at which investments may be made and reduce potential profits. We may also incur significant expenses identifying, investigating and seeking to acquire potential investments which are ultimately not consummated, including expenses relating to due diligence, transportation, extended competitive bidding processes, legal expenses and the fees of other third-party advisors.

We compete for investments with other NBFCs and investment funds as well as traditional financial services companies such as commercial banks. Many of our competitors are substantially larger and have considerably greater financial, technical, and marketing resources than we do. Some competitors may have a lower cost of funds and access to funding sources that are not available to us. In addition, some of our competitors may have higher risk tolerances or different risk assessment criteria. These characteristics could allow our competitors to consider a wider variety of investments, establish more relationships, and offer better pricing and more flexible financing structures than us. We may lose investment opportunities if we do not match our competitors' pricing, terms, and financing structure. If we are forced to match our competitors' pricing, terms, and financing structure, we may not be able to achieve acceptable returns on our investments or may bear substantial risk of capital loss. We cannot assure you that the competitive pressures we face will not have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, and results of operations. Also, as a result of this competition, we may not be able to take advantage of attractive investment opportunities.

13. Energy projects, particularly power generation projects, carry certain risks that, to the extent they materialize, could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and the price of our Equity Shares.

Our business mainly consists of making principal investments in, and lending to, companies engaged in energy sector projects in India, particularly to power generation projects. Power sector projects have long gestation periods before they become operational and carry project-specific as well as general risks. These risks are generally beyond our control and include:

- political, regulatory, fiscal, monetary and legal actions and policies that may adversely affect the viability of projects we finance;
- changes in government and regulatory policies relating to the power sector;
- delays in the construction and operation of projects we finance;
- adverse changes in demand for, or the price of, power generated or distributed by the projects we finance;
- the willingness and ability of consumers to pay for the power produced by projects we finance;
- shortages of, or adverse price developments for, raw materials and key inputs for power production such as coal and natural gas;
- increased project costs due to environmental challenges and changes in environmental regulations;
- potential defaults under financing arrangements of project companies and their equity investors;
- failure of co-lenders with us under consortium lending arrangements to perform on their contractual obligations;

- failure of third parties such as contractors, fuel suppliers, sub-contractors and others to perform on their contractual obligations in respect of projects we finance;
- adverse developments in the overall economic environment in India;
- adverse fluctuations in interest rates or currency exchange rates;
- economic, political and social instability or occurrences such as natural disasters, armed conflict and terrorist attacks, particularly where projects are located or in the markets they are intended to serve;
- delay in obtaining/renewing regulatory or environmental clearances; and
- delay in acquisition of land for projects we finance.

The development of energy projects in India requires various environmental clearances that may be difficult to obtain in a timely manner or at all. Even if such environmental clearances are obtained, projects may be suspended if they do not comply with the conditions stipulated in such environmental clearances. Although an environmental clearance was received from the MoEF on April 9, 2009 subject to certain conditions prescribed therein, for a project developed by East Coast (one of the companies in which we have invested), on March 1, 2011, the GoI, through the MoEF, ordered the suspension of on-going construction work related to the project on the basis of several representations received by the MoEF that East Coast had not complied with the order, dated August 30, 2010, of the National Environment Appellate Authority, and that the project was being developed on wetlands which is not permitted. East Coast is required to submit a report by March 6, 2011 to demonstrate that the project complies with the conditions stipulated in the environmental clearance, and to respond to allegations of violations of environmental laws, including that the project is located in the wetlands. In the event that East Coast is prevented from operating this project, is delayed in implementation of the project or is required to pay heavy penalties, our returns from this project may be adversely affected, thereby materially adversely affecting our results of operations and financial position.

The long-term profitability of power project investments, once they are constructed, is partly dependent on the efficiency of their operation and maintenance of their assets. Delayed implementation, teething troubles, inefficient operations and maintenance and similar factors may reduce the profitability of the investment, adversely affecting our returns or, in the case of projects we have lent to, the ability of these projects to repay our loans. In addition, power projects may be exposed to unplanned interruptions caused by catastrophic events such as floods, earthquakes, fires, major plant breakdowns, pipeline or electricity line ruptures or other disasters. Operational disruption, as well as supply disruption, could adversely affect the cash flows available from these projects. In addition, the cost of repairing or replacing damaged assets could be considerable. Repeated or prolonged interruption may result in a permanent loss of customers, substantial litigation or penalties and/or regulatory or contractual non-compliance. Moreover, certain loss from such events may not be recoverable under the relevant insurance policies. Business interruption insurance is not always available or economically feasible to protect the project company from these risks. Further, on August 23, 2010, the RBI classified our Company as an Infrastructure Finance Company, or IFC. In order to maintain such status, we are required to keep a minimum percentage of total assets continuously deployed in infrastructure loans.

To the extent the risks mentioned above or other risks relating to the power projects we finance materialize, the quality of our asset portfolio and our results of operations may be adversely affected. Furthermore, as we continue to expand our operations, our investment in, or loans to individual projects may increase, thereby increasing our exposure with respect to individual projects and the potential for adverse effects on our business, financial condition and results of operations and on the price of our Equity Shares.

14. We may avail foreign currency borrowings in the future, which will expose us to fluctuations in currency exchange rates, which could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

While we currently do not have any foreign currency borrowings, we may avail foreign currency borrowings in the future. As an IFC, we are eligible to raise external commercial borrowings without prior RBI approval up to 50.00% of our Owned Funds and are likely to avail significant external commercial borrowings in the future. In October 2010, we have also entered into a loan agreement with Deutsche Investitions - und Entwicklungsgesellschaft mbH ("DEG") for an aggregate amount of US$ 26.00 million (₹ 1165.06 million) for on-lending to renewable energy projects. We also have entered into a letter agreement with International Finance Corporation on January 20, 2011 for a proposed loan of US$ 50.00 million (₹ 2240.5 million) to support and expand our lending program to renewable energy projects. We therefore may be exposed to fluctuations in currency exchange rates in the future. Although we may enter into hedging transactions with respect to our foreign currency borrowings, there can be no assurance that any such measure will be effective or that we will enter into effective hedging with respect to any new foreign currency borrowings. Volatility in currency exchange rates could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations and the price of our Equity Shares.

15. Some of our associate companies have availed unsecured loans which can be recalled anytime by the lenders

Two of our associate companies viz. Meenakshi Energy Private Limited and Ind-Barath Powergencom Limited have availed unsecured loans of ₹ 1,200.00 million and ₹ 736.67 million respectively, as of December 31, 2010, which can be recalled anytime by the lenders. In the event such loans are recalled, our associate companies may not be able to pay the same which may adversely impact their financial position.

16. Lack of effective risk management systems and procedures may leave us exposed to unidentified risks or unanticipated levels of risk.

We have established risk management policies and procedures. However, such policies and procedures we employ to identify, monitor and manage risks may not be fully effective. Our risk management systems are based among other considerations on the use of observed historical market behaviour, information regarding clients, and market knowledge. Consequently, these methods may not predict future risk exposures, which could be significantly greater than what the historical measures indicate. Further, the information available to us may not be accurate, complete, up-to-date or properly evaluated. The effectiveness, therefore, of our ability to manage risk exposure cannot be completely or accurately predicted or fully assured. For example, unexpectedly large or rapid movements or disruptions in one or more markets or other unforeseen developments could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition.

Management of operational, legal and regulatory risk requires, among other things, policies and procedures to properly record and verify transactions and events. There can be no assurance that our policies and procedures will effectively and accurately record and verify this information. Failure of our risk management systems or exposure to unanticipated risks could lead to losses.

17. Our debt finance business is concentrated on a few borrowers in the power sector and if any of the loans to these borrowers become non-performing, the quality of our loan portfolio may be adversely affected. As of December 31, 2010, our Board had approved total debt commitments aggregating ₹ 22,567.30 million, of which documented, unfunded outstanding loan sanctions were ₹ 5,247.57 million, and our ten largest debt commitments approved by the Board represented 54.70% of our total debt commitments

Our business and operations are focused on the power sector. There are a limited number of power projects and borrowers in this sector and our past exposure has been, and future exposure is anticipated to be, large with respect to these borrowers. As on December 31, 2010, our Board had approved total debt commitments aggregating ₹ 22,567.30 million. The single largest debt commitment as of December 31, 2010 was ₹ 1,394.00 million for Rukminirama Steel Rollings Private Limited, which also represented the single largest debt commitment approved by the Board for any single borrower group. This represented 6.18% of the total debt commitments approved by the Board as of December 31, 2010, and was also the largest unfunded debt commitment approved by the Board as of December 31, 2010. The ten largest debt commitments as of December 31, 2010 represented 54.70% of the total debt commitments approved by the Board as of December 31, 2010. As of December 31, 2010, our single largest borrowers in terms of loan financing outstanding were Thermal Powertech Corp. India Limited and Konaseema Gas Power Limited, each of which had loans financing outstanding of ₹ 1,000.00 million. Each of them accounted for 16.80% of our total outstanding loan financing as of December 31, 2010, and also represented the single largest loan financing outstanding as of December 31, 2010 for any borrower group. As on December 31, 2010, the ten largest borrowers in terms of loan financing outstanding accounted for 94.18% of our total outstanding loan financing as of such date. For further information, see the section titled “Selected Statistical Information – Concentration of Outstanding Loans” on page 240. In addition to our exposure to borrowers resulting from our outstanding debt finance, we may also have exposures to borrowers, including the ten individual borrowers and borrower groups referred to above, in the form of unfunded loan sanctions. As of December 31, 2010, we had documented, unfunded outstanding loan sanctions of ₹ 5,247.57 million.

Any negative trends or financial difficulties, particularly among the borrowers and borrower groups to whom we have the greatest exposure, could result in non-performing assets ("NPAs") in our portfolio and negatively impact our ability to service our outstanding indebtedness. Furthermore, as we continue to increase our exposure to power generation projects, our individual loan size is likely to increase in size. Credit losses on the individual borrowers and borrower groups to whom, as well as the projects in respect of which, we have the greatest exposure could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations as well as the price of our Equity Shares.

18. If we are unable to effectively manage our rapid growth or pursue our growth strategy, our business prospects, results of operations and financial condition may be adversely affected.

Our business has grown rapidly in the last three years as we commenced operations in 2007. Our net worth has increased steadily and as of March 31, 2008, 2009, 2010 and December 31, 2010 was ₹ 1,105.82 million, ₹ 6,093.45 million, ₹ 6,359.37 million and ₹ 6,644.74 million, respectively. Total income in fiscal 2008, 2009 and 2010 and in the nine months ended December 31, 2010 was ₹ 31.38 million, ₹ 116.00 million and ₹ 534.90 million, and ₹ 825.44 million, respectively. From fiscal 2008 to fiscal 2010, our net worth and total income increased at a compounded annual growth rate of 139.81% and 312.86%, respectively. While we intend to continue to grow our business rapidly, we may be required to enhance our human resources, source debt at competitive cost, process applications efficiently while maintaining stringent internal control measures, which may result in our inability to sustain historic growth levels. Our historic annual growth rates therefore are not representative or reliable indicators of our future performance.

As we continue to scale up our business, we believe that our growth could place significant demands on our operational, credit, financial and other internal risk controls. Our growth may also exert pressure on the adequacy of our capitalization, making management of asset quality increasingly important. Our asset growth will be primarily funded by the issuance of additional borrowings and occasionally, additional equity. We may have difficulty obtaining funding on suitable terms or at all. As we are a non-deposit taking NBFC and do not have access to public deposits, our liquidity and profitability are dependent on timely and adequate access to capital, including borrowings from banks. Increase in borrowings would lead to leveraging the balance sheet, exerting pressure on the financial covenants that we may be required to maintain under our various loan agreements. We cannot assure you that we will continue to be in compliance with conditions under our loan agreements. Any default under a loan agreement may lead to an adverse impact on our financial condition and results of operations. Further, our growth also increases the challenges involved in developing and improving our internal administrative infrastructure. Addressing the challenges arising from our growth entails substantial senior level management time and resources and would put significant demands on our management team and other resources. As we grow and diversify, we may not be able to implement, manage or execute our strategy efficiently in a timely manner or at all, which could adversely affect our business, prospects, results of operations, financial condition and reputation.

As we seek to expand our business operations, we will face the risk that some of our competitors may be more experienced in or have a deeper understanding of these businesses or have better relationships with potential clients; and diversified business operations may make forecasting revenue and operating results difficult, which impairs our ability to manage businesses and shareholders' ability to assess our prospects. If we are unable to overcome these obstacles and are unsuccessful in executing our growth strategy, our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition could be adversely affected.

19. Financing for the energy sector, particularly financing for power projects in India, is becoming increasingly competitive and our growth will depend on our ability to compete effectively.

Competition in our industry depends on, among other factors, the ongoing evolution of Government policies relating to the industry, the entry of new participants into the industry and the extent to which there is consolidation among banks, financial institutions and NBFCs in India. Our primary competitors are public sector infrastructure finance companies, public sector banks, private banks (including foreign banks), financial institutions and other NBFCs. Many of our competitors may have larger resources or balance sheet sizes than us and may have considerably greater financing resources than those available to us. Additionally, since we are a non-deposit accepting NBFC, we may have restricted access to capital in comparison to banks and deposit taking NBFCs. Our ability to compete effectively is dependent on our ability to maintain a low effective cost of funds. With the growth of our business, we are increasingly reliant on funding from the equity and debt markets and commercial borrowings. The market for such funds is competitive and our ability to obtain funds on acceptable terms or at all will depend on various factors including our ability to maintain and improve our credit ratings. If we are unable to access funds at an effective cost that is comparable to or lower than our competitors, we may not be able to offer competitive interest rates for our loans to power projects. This is a significant challenge for us, as there are limits to the extent to which higher costs of funds can be passed on to borrowers, thus potentially affecting our net interest income. Also, some of our competitors may have greater technical and other resources and greater experience in these businesses. Such competitors also compete with us for management and other human resources and operational resources and capital.

20. Failure to recover the expected value of collateral when borrowers default on their obligations to us may adversely affect our financial performance.

As of December 31, 2010, all our loans were secured by project assets. As of December 31, 2010, approximately 76% of our total loan financing outstanding related to syndicated loans. For debt provided on a senior basis, which accounted for 96.54% of our total loan financing outstanding as of December 31, 2010, we generally seek a first ranking pari passu charge on the project assets. For loans provided on a subordinated basis, which accounted for 4.46% of our total loan financing outstanding as of December 31, 2010, we generally seek to have a pari passu charge on the project assets. Although we seek to maintain a collateral value to loan ratio of at least 1.25:1 for our secured loans, an economic downturn or other project risks could result in a fall in collateral values. Moreover, foreclosure of such collateral may require court or tribunal intervention that may involve protracted proceedings and the process of enforcing security interests against collateral can be difficult. Additionally, the realizable value of our collateral in liquidation may be lower than its book value.

We cannot guarantee that we will be able to realize the full value of our collateral, due to, among other things, defects in the perfection of collateral, delays on our part in taking immediate action in bankruptcy foreclosure proceedings, stock market downturns, claims of other lenders, legal or judicial restraint and fraudulent transfers by borrowers. In the event a specialized regulatory agency gains jurisdiction over the borrower, creditor actions can be further delayed. In addition, to put in place an institutional mechanism for the timely and transparent restructuring of corporate debt, the RBI has devised a corporate debt restructuring system. Any failure to recover the expected value of collateral security could expose us to a potential loss. Apart from the RBI guidelines, we may be a part of a syndicate of lenders the majority of whom elect to pursue a different course of action than we would have chosen. Any such unexpected loss could adversely affect our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition.

21. Our business requires substantial capital and depends on our ability to access diversified funding sources, and any disruption in funding sources would have a material adverse effect on our liquidity and financial condition. As of December 31, 2010, our total borrowings was ₹ 4,773.69 million while our total networth was ₹ 6,644.74 million.

Our liquidity and results of operations are in large part dependent upon our timely access to, and the costs associated with, raising capital. As of December 31, 2010, our total borrowings was ₹ 4,773.69 million, all of which was secured debt, while our total networth was ₹ 6,644.74 million, with share capital accounting for ₹ 4,345.83. Our funding requirements historically have been met from a combination of borrowings such as term loans, issuance of secured redeemable non-convertible debentures (“NCDs”) and equity. Our business therefore depends and will continue to depend on our ability to access diversified funding sources. In addition to the three tranches of NCDs issued by us, we have established lines of credit from various banks and a sanction of US$ 26.00 million (₹ 1165.06 million) external commercial borrowing from DEG to augment our long term debt capital. In addition, we also propose to raise long term capital through the issuance of infrastructure bonds that has been launched in February 2011. For further information on our debt maturity profile, see “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosure about Market Risk – Liquidity Risk” on page 234.

During periods of adverse economic and financial conditions, such as that we experienced in fiscal 2008 and fiscal 2009, it may become more difficult to renew loans and facilities as the potential lenders and counterparties may also face liquidity and capital concerns as a result of the stress in financial markets. Moreover, we are a non-deposit taking NBFC, and do not have access to public deposits. In case we are unable to raise funds at an effective cost or at all, our operations could be affected.

22. We have made and expect to make principal investments in few companies engaged in a few energy projects and write-offs or write-downs or losses in any of these investments could adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition. Moreover, because our principal investments as of December 31, 2010 were in only eight companies in India, losses in any one of these investments could significantly adversely impact our financial condition and results of operations.

As of December 31, 2010, the book value of our principal investments outstanding accounted for 35.83% of our total assets. The value of these investments depends on the success of the operations and management and continued viability of the investee entities. We may have limited control over the operations or management of these entities and some of these investments are unlisted, offering limited exit options. Therefore, our ability to realize expected gains as a result of our principal investments is highly dependent on factors outside of our control. Write-offs or write-downs in respect of our equity portfolio could adversely affect our business, prospects, results of operations, financial condition and the trading price of the Equity Shares. Although there is no restriction on our making principal investments in public sector or private sector listed companies, historically we have made principal investments in only unlisted private sector companies. Moreover, because our equity investments as of December 31, 2010 are in only eight companies in India, losses in any one of these investments could significantly adversely impact our financial condition and results of operations.

23. We are susceptible to risks relating to asset liability management, which could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. Our asset liability mismatch as of December 31, 2010 was positive ₹ 1,595.86 million.

Although we have implemented stringent asset liability management processes and policies, we currently fund a part of our project finance business through use of borrowings that may have shorter maturities than some of our long term loan assets. As of December 31, 2010, we had long-term loans (which are typically of maturity period between five and 15 years) outstanding of ₹ 2,623.69 million, which constituted 54.96% of our outstanding loan assets. As of December 31, 2010, the average maturity period for our loans and liabilities as of December 31, 2010 was 4.54 years, and the average maturity period for our outstanding loan financing portfolio 5.20 years. Additionally, our other financial products may have maturities that exceed the maturities of our borrowings.

In the event we fund our business through the use of borrowings that on the whole have shorter maturities than the loan assets we disburse, our loan assets may not timely generate sufficient liquidity to enable us to repay our borrowings as they become due, and we may be required to obtain new borrowings to repay our existing indebtedness. There can be no assurances that new borrowings will be available on favourable terms or at all. Any inability to obtain new borrowings, on favourable terms or otherwise, may negatively impact the profitability and growth of our business, which could have an adverse affect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and the trading price of our Equity Shares.

Our asset-liability management policy categorizes all interest rate sensitive assets and liabilities into various time period categories according to contracted residual maturities or anticipated repricing dates, as may be relevant in each case. The difference between the value of assets and liabilities maturing, or being repriced, in any time period category provides the measure to which we are exposed to the risk of potential changes in the margins on new or repriced assets and liabilities. Despite the existence of such measures, our liquidity position could be adversely affected by the development of an asset-liability mismatch, which could have an adverse effect on our business, prospects, results of operations, financial condition and the trading price of the Equity Shares. Our asset liability mismatch as of December 31, 2010 was positive ₹ 1,595.86 million. For further information see “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Liquidity Risk” on page 234.

24. Certain of our loan agreements and related security documents executed with respect to our issue of NCDs contain restrictive covenants that could adversely affect our business, the results of our operations and our financial condition.

Our loan agreements contain restrictive covenants relating to, among other matters, availing loans from other banks, declaring dividends, expanding our business, extending financial guarantees, etc. There can be no assurance that we will be able to comply with or obtain waivers with respect to such covenants from our lenders.

Moreover under some of our loan agreements, the lender has the right to review and modify the rate of interest and other terms of the agreement. As of December 31, 2010, lenders representing an aggregate of ₹ 2,623.69 million in loans outstanding have the right to review and modify the rate of interest and other terms of the agreement. These loans represented 54.96% of our total loan funds as of December 31, 2010. In the event the lender exercises such rights, the modified terms of such agreements may not be favourable to us. Under some of our loan agreements, the lender also has the right to cancel the credit facility at anytime without assigning any reason therefore. In case of such an eventuality, our financial condition may be adversely affected.

Under the mortgage deeds executed in relation to our NCD issues, the Company is required to maintain a security cover of 1.25 times and 1.00 time of the outstanding issue size for the Series I and Series II NCD issues, respectively. In the event the Company fails to maintain such security cover, it shall amount to a breach of the terms of the mortgage deed and may lead to compensation claims being made on the Company, which will adversely affect the financial condition of the Company. Further in the event of us committing a default under the mortgage deeds, the debenture holders shall be entitled to appoint their nominee director on our Board who shall not be liable to retire by rotation.

25. If our investments in subordinate debt securities result in losses, our financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected. As of December 31, 2010, 4.46% of our loan financing related to subordinated debt.

We have in the past and expect to make in the future investments in subordinated or convertible debt instruments of power project companies which have previously incurred debt or assumed equity (or may be permitted to incur debt or issue equity) that have priority over our investments or debt instruments, as the case may be. As of December 31, 2010, 4.46% of our loan financing related to subordinated debt. Such instruments may allow such debt or equity holders to receive payments of dividends, interest or principal before any payments are made to us. Moreover, such debt investments may not be protected by financial covenants or limitations upon additional indebtedness. Other factors may affect the market price and yield of debt securities including investor demand, changes in the financial condition of issuers or securities, government fiscal policy and domestic or worldwide economic conditions. Also, in the event of insolvency, liquidation, dissolution, reorganization or bankruptcy of the entity in which an investment is made, holders of securities ranking senior to our investments would typically be entitled to receive payment in full before any distributions could be made to us, and the project company may not have sufficient assets left to make any distributions to us. The covenants provided by a project company in connection with its senior debt are normally extensive and detailed. If certain covenants are breached a project company its revenues from operations may be suspended and the senior lender may be entitled to appoint a third party to take responsibility for project company's rights and obligations under any relevant project agreement, resulting in losses for the project's investors.

26. As a consequence of our being regulated as an NBFC and an IFC, we are required to adhere to certain individual and borrower group exposure limits under RBI regulations.

We are a systemically important non-deposit taking NBFC and are subject to various regulations by the RBI as an NBFC. On August 23, 2010 our Company has been classified as an IFC by the RBI, which classification is subject to certain conditions including (i) a minimum of 75.00% of the total assets of such NBFC should be deployed in infrastructure loans (as defined under the Non Banking Financial (Non Deposit Accepting or Holding) Companies Prudential Norms (Reserve Bank) Directions, 2007); (ii) net owned funds of ₹ 3,000.00 million or more; (iii) a minimum credit rating of "A" or an equivalent credit rating of CRISIL, FITCH, CARE, ICRA or equivalent rating by any other accrediting rating agencies; and (iv) a capital to risk-weighted asset ratio ("CRAR") of 15.00% (with a minimum Tier I capital of 10.00%). Tier I capital for such purposes mean Owned Funds as reduced by investment in shares of other NBFCs and in shares, debentures, bonds, outstanding loans and advances including hire purchase and lease finance made to and deposits with subsidiaries and companies in the same group exceeding, in aggregate, 10% of the Owned Fund and perpetual debt instruments issued by an SI-NBFC-ND in each year to the extent it does not exceed 15% of the aggregate Tier I capital of such company as on March 31 of the previous accounting year.

The exposure limits as prescribed in the Non-Banking Financial (Non-Deposit Accepting or Holding) Companies Prudential Norms (Reserve Bank) Directions, 2007 are set below:

CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT / INVESTMENT	SI-NBFC-ND (% of its Owned Funds)	SI-NBFC-ND (Limits for infrastructure loan / investment) (% of its Owned Funds)	IFC (% of its Owned Funds)
LENDING LIMIT
Lending to any single borrower	Up to 15.00%	Up to 20.00%	Up to 25.00%
Lending to any single group of borrowers	Up to 25.00%	Up to 35.00%	Up to 40.00%
INVESTING LIMIT
Investing in shares of a company	Up to 15.00%	Up to 20.00%	-*
Investing in shares of a single group of companies	Up to 25.00%	Up to 35.00%	-*

LENDING AND INVESTING LIMIT
Lending and investing to single borrower	Up to 25.00%	Up to 30.00%	Up to 30.00%
Lending and investing to single group of borrowers	Up to 40.00%	Up to 50.00%	Up to 50.00%

* In case of NBFC (% of its Owned Funds)- up to 15.00% -25.00% and in case of the NBFC (limits for infrastructure loans)- up to 20.00% - 35.00%

Any inability to continue being classified as an IFC may impact our growth and expansion plans by affecting our competitiveness in relation to our competitors. In the event that we are unable to comply with the exposure norms within the specified time limit, or at all, we may be subject to regulatory actions by the RBI including the levy of fines or penalties and/or the cancellation of our registration as an NBFC or IFC. There can be no assurance that we will not breach the exposure norms in the future. Any levy of fines or penalties or the cancellation of our registration as an NBFC or IFC by the RBI due to the breach of exposure norms may adversely affect our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition. At present, certain of our business and expansion plans are contingent upon our IFC status, and could be affected in the event we are unable to maintain IFC status. Further, as an IFC, we will have to constantly monitor our compliance with the necessary conditions, which may hinder our future plans to diversify into new business lines. Pursuant to current regulations on prudential norms issued by the RBI, we are required to comply with other norms such as capital adequacy, credit concentration and disclosure norms along with reporting requirements. We cannot assure you that we will be able to continue to comply with such norms, and such non-compliance, if any, may subject us to regulatory action. Further, our ability to borrow from various banks may be restricted on account of guidelines issued by the RBI imposing restrictions on banks in relation to their exposure to NBFCs. Under RBI Master Circular No. RBI/2010-11/68 DBOD No.Dir.BC.14/13.03.00/2010-11 issued on July 1, 2010, the exposure (both lending and investment, including off balance sheet exposures) of a bank to a single NBFC should not exceed 10.0% of the bank's capital funds as per its last audited balance sheet. Banks may, however, assume exposures on a single NBFC up to 15.00% of their capital funds provided the exposure in excess of 10.00% is on account of funds on-lent by the NBFC to the infrastructure sector. Further, banks exposure of a bank to IFCs should not exceed 15.00% of its capital funds as per its last audited balance sheet, with a provision to increase it to 20.00% if the same is on account of funds on-lent by the IFCs to the infrastructure sector. Banks may also consider fixing internal limits for their aggregate exposure to all NBFCs put together. This limits the exposure that banks may have on NBFCs such as us, which may restrict our ability to borrow from such banks and may increase our cost of borrowing, which could adversely impact our growth, margins and business operations.

27. We may fail to comply with the terms and conditions of our existing regulatory approvals and licenses which may have a material adverse effect on the continuity of our business and may impede our operations in the future.

NBFCs in India are subject to strict regulations and supervision by the RBI. These laws and regulations impose numerous requirements on us, including asset classifications and prescribed levels of capital adequacy, cash reserves and liquid assets. In addition to the numerous conditions required for the registration as a NBFC with the RBI, we are required to maintain certain statutory and regulatory permits and approvals for our business. In the future, we will be required to renew such permits and approvals and obtain new permits and approvals for any proposed operations. There can be no assurance that the relevant authorities will issue any of such permits or approvals in the time-frame anticipated by us or at all. Failure by us to renew, maintain or obtain the required permits or approvals may result in the interruption of our operations and may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Further, the RBI has not provided for any ceiling on interest rates that can be charged by non-deposit taking NBFCs. There may be future changes in the regulatory system or in the enforcement of the laws and regulations including policies or regulations or legal interpretations of existing regulations, relating to or affecting interest rates, taxation, inflation or exchange controls, or otherwise take action, that could have an adverse effect on non-deposit taking NBFCs. Additionally, we are required to make various filings with the RBI, the RoC and other relevant authorities pursuant to the provisions of RBI regulations, Companies Act and other regulations. If we fail to comply with these requirements, or a regulator claims we have not complied, in meeting these requirements, we may be subject to penalties. Moreover, these laws and regulations can be amended, supplemented or changed at any time such that we may be required to restructure our activities and incur additional expenses in complying with such laws and regulations, which could materially and adversely affect our business.

28. Our success is dependent upon our management team and our ability to attract and retain skilled personnel.

Our future performance will be affected by the continued service of our management team and our ability to attract and retain skilled personnel. We also face a continuing challenge of recruiting and retaining suitably skilled personnel, particularly as we depend on the experience of our management and their ability to identify risks and opportunities in our business, and grow our business activities. Our diversification strategy with an emphasis on principal investments, debt finance and financial advisory services, requires highly qualified and skilled personnel. There is significant competition in India for such personnel, and it may be difficult to attract, adequately compensate and retain the personnel we need in the future. We currently rely on our Promoter, PTC, to manage our administrative, human resources and technology support functions on the basis of a service agreement. Considering the small size of our management team, and the fact that we intend to develop such support functions internally, our ability to identify, recruit and retain our employees is critical. We do not maintain any key man insurance policy. Inability to attract and retain appropriate managerial personnel, or the loss of key personnel could adversely affect our business, prospects, results of operations, financial condition and the trading price of the Equity Shares.

29. We are subject to credit, market and liquidity risks, and if any such risks were to materialize, our credit ratings and our cost of funds could be adversely affected.

We may not be able to effectively mitigate our risk exposures in particular market environments or against particular types of risks. Our revenues and interest rate risk are dependent upon our ability to properly identify, and mark to market, changes in the value of financial instruments caused by changes in market prices or rates. Our earnings are dependent upon the effectiveness of our management of migrations in credit quality and risk concentrations, the accuracy of our valuation models and our critical accounting estimates and the adequacy of our allowances for loan losses. To the extent our assessments, assumptions or estimates prove inaccurate or are not predictive of actual results, we could incur higher than anticipated losses. The successful management of credit, market and operational risk is an important consideration in managing our liquidity risk because it affects the evaluation of our credit ratings by rating agencies. Rating agencies may reduce or indicate their intention to reduce the ratings at any time and there can be no assurance that we may not experience such downgrade in the future. The rating agencies can also decide to withdraw their ratings altogether, which may have the same effect as a reduction in our ratings. Any reduction in our ratings (or withdrawal of ratings) may increase our borrowing costs, limit our access to capital markets and adversely affect our ability to sell or market our products, engage in business transactions, particularly longer-term and derivatives transactions, or retain our customers. This, in turn, could reduce our liquidity and negatively impact our operating results and financial condition. In addition, as an IFC, banks' exposures to us are risk-weighted in accordance with the ratings assigned to the Company by the rating agencies registered with the SEBI and accredited by the RBI. Our classification as an IFC is dependent upon the credit rating we obtain and maintain. Although we believe that we have adequate risk management policies and procedures in place, we may be exposed to unidentified or unanticipated risks, which could lead to material losses.

30. We may enter strategic partnerships, which may result in additional risks and uncertainties in our business.

Part of our growth strategy includes pursuing strategic partnerships. However, there can be no assurance that we will be able to consummate alliances on terms acceptable to us, or at all. Such partnerships may be subject to regulatory approvals which may not be received in a timely manner, or at all. In addition, we cannot assure you that the expected strategic benefits or synergies of any future partnerships will be realized. Further, such investments in strategic partnerships may be long-term in nature and may not yield returns in the short to medium term.

31. The security of our IT systems may fail and adversely affect our financial condition and reputation.

We are dependent on the effectiveness of our information security policies, procedures and capabilities to protect our computer and telecommunications systems and the data such systems contain or transmit. An external information security breach, such as a hacker attack, a virus or worm, or an internal problem with information protection, such as failure to control access to sensitive systems, could materially interrupt our business operations or cause disclosure or modification of sensitive or confidential information. Our operations also rely on the secure processing, storage and transmission of confidential and other information in our computer systems and networks. Our computer systems, software and networks may be vulnerable to unauthorized access, computer viruses or other malicious code and other events that could compromise data integrity and security. Although we have data back-up systems in place, such a failure could result in material financial loss, regulatory actions, legal liability and harm to our reputation.

32. A decline in our capital adequacy ratio could restrict our future business growth.

We are required under applicable laws and regulations to maintain a capital adequacy ratio of at least 15.00% of our risk-weighted assets, with the minimum requirement of Tier I capital being 10.00%. Our capital adequacy ratio was 60.57% as of December 31, 2010, with Tier I capital comprising 60.42%. If we continue to grow our loan portfolio and asset base, we will be required to raise additional Tier I and Tier II capital in order to continue to meet applicable capital adequacy ratios. There can be no assurance that we will be able to raise adequate additional capital in the future on terms favorable to us, and this may adversely affect the growth of our business.

33. If any of our portfolio assets become non-performing assets, our business will be adversely affected.

As of December 31, 2010, we did not have any non-performing loans. We have also not made any provisions for decline in value of our equity investments. If risks affecting a significant portion of our exposure were to materialize or general economic conditions deteriorate, we may have non-performing assets and may need to provide for such contingencies. We expect the size of our asset portfolio to continue to increase in the future, and we may have non-performing assets in the future, which could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

34. Our borrowers' insurance of assets may not be adequate to protect them against all potential losses to which they may be subject, which could affect our ability to recover the loan amounts due to us.

The terms and conditions of our loan agreements require our borrowers to maintain insurance on their charged assets as collateral for the loan granted by us. Our borrowers may not have the required insurance coverage or the amount of insurance coverage may be insufficient to cover all financial losses that our borrowers may suffer as a result of any uninsured event. In the event the assets charged in our favor are damaged or our borrowers otherwise suffer a loss and there is insufficient insurance to offset the borrower's losses, it may affect our ability to recover the loan amounts due to us.

35. Our ability to access capital also depends on our credit ratings and any downgrade of our credit ratings would increase borrowing costs and constrain our access to capital.

The cost and availability of capital is also dependent on our short-term and long-term credit ratings. Our long-term bank borrowings have been rated "LA+" (positive outlook)" by ICRA, while our NCDs have been rated "LA+ (positive outlook)" by ICRA and "BWR AA" (stable outlook) by Brickwork. Our short-term borrowings have been rated "A1+" by ICRA, which is the highest credit quality rating provided by ICRA. Ratings reflect a rating agency's opinion of our financial strength, operating performance, strategic position, and ability to meet our obligations. While recent credit rating actions have been positive, any downgrade of our credit ratings would increase borrowing costs and constrain our access to capital and lending markets and, as a result, would negatively affect our business. In addition, downgrades of our credit ratings could increase the possibility of additional terms and conditions being added to any new or replacement financing arrangements.

36. The failure on the part of the seller to deliver CERs to us under the agreement entered into with us, may lead to a default by us under the agreement entered into by us with third parties for onward sale of such CERs.

In March 2010, we commenced financing against CER entitlements, which involves purchase of future carbon credits from power project developers for sale to third parties. We have entered into separate parallel agreements, for purchase of CERs from one party and its onward sale to another party. We have made the entire payment for such purchase. Since the CERs are to be delivered to us in future, our funds will remain blocked and unavailable for any other purpose. We also face the risk of losing such funds in the event that the project from which the CERs are to be generated fails to perform as planned.

Moreover, in the event the seller fails to deliver the CERs, we would be in default under the agreement for onward sale of such CERs. Consequently, we will have to purchase the CERs from a third party, which may be at higher prices and may adversely affect our financial condition. Further, though the agreements to purchase

CERs are secured, we may not be able to realize an adequate amount from the sale of such securities for compensating the third party with whom we have entered into agreements for onward sale of such CERs.

37. We may be subject to regulations in respect of provisioning for non-performing loans that are less stringent than in some other countries.

RBI guidelines prescribe the provisioning required in respect of our outstanding loan portfolio. These provisioning requirements may require us in the future, in the event we have any non-performing loans, to reserve certain amounts which may be lower than the provisioning requirements applicable to financial institutions and banks in other countries. The provisioning requirements may also require the exercise of subjective judgements of management. If we have non-performing loans in the future, the level of our provisions may not be adequate to cover an increase in the amount of our non-performing loans or a decrease in the value of the underlying collateral. If such provisions are not sufficient to provide adequate cover for loan losses that may occur, or if we are required to increase our provisions, this could have an adverse effect on our financial condition, liquidity and results of operations and may require us to raise additional capital.

38. Our ability to assess, monitor and manage risks inherent in our business may not be effective in mitigating our risks.

We are exposed to a variety of risks, including liquidity risk, interest rate risk, credit risk, operational risk and legal risk. The effectiveness of our risk management is limited by the quality and timeliness of available data. Our hedging strategies and other risk management techniques may not be effective in mitigating our risks in all market environments or against all types of risk, including risks that are unidentified or unanticipated. Some methods of managing risks are based upon observed historical market behaviour. As a result, these methods may not predict future risk exposures, which could be greater than the historical measures indicated. Other risk management methods depend upon an evaluation of information regarding markets, customers or other matters. This information may not in all cases be accurate, complete, up-to-date or properly evaluated. Management of operational, legal or regulatory risk requires, among other things, policies and procedures to properly record and verify a number of transactions and events. Although we have established these policies and procedures, they may not be fully effective. Our future success will depend, in part, on our ability to respond to new technological advances and emerging financing institution standards and practices on a cost-effective and timely basis. The development and implementation of such technology entails significant technical and business risks. There can be no assurance that we will successfully implement new technologies or adapt our transaction-processing systems to customer requirements or emerging market standards.

39. We do not hold a trademark for our logo “PFS - PTC India Financial Services Limited”.

We do not hold a trademark for the logo “PFS - PTC India Financial Services Limited” used by us. We have recently applied for the registration of this logo as a trademark in India. In the event of our failure to obtain registration of the trademark for such logo, or otherwise any liability to use such logo in the future, may result in the loss of any goodwill associated with such logo. For further information on the pending trademark applications, please see the section titled “Government and Other Approvals” on page 260 of this Red Herring prospectus.

40. We have entered and may enter into certain transactions with related parties which may lead to conflicts of interest.

We have entered and may enter into transactions with related parties, including our Promoter, Directors and Group Entities. There can be no assurance that we could not have achieved more favorable terms on such transactions had such transactions not been entered into with related parties. Furthermore, it is likely that we will enter into related party transactions in the future. There can be no assurance that such transactions, individually or in the aggregate, will not have an adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations. The transactions we have entered into and any future transactions with related parties have involved or could potentially involve conflicts of interest. For further information related to our related party transactions, see Note 5 of Annexure V to our Financial Statements on page 209.

41. Our insurance may not be adequate to protect us against all potential losses to which we may be subject.

We maintain insurance for our wind farm assets and for our other assets. We do not have any significant fixed assets other than the wind farm assets. However, our other fixed assets are also covered by requisite insurance contracts. Our wind farm assets represented 2.63% of our total assets as of December 31, 2010. However, the amount of our insurance coverage may be less than the replacement cost of such property and may not be sufficient to cover all financial losses that we may suffer should a risk materialize. If we were to incur a significant liability for which we were not fully insured, it could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations and financial position.

42. Our wind farm project is subject to a number of risks which could adversely affect our financial condition.

We operate a wind power generation facilities at Koppa and Kundur village, in the state of Karnataka that are subject to risks relating to dependence on a specific customer and the contractual relationship with the electricity grids, as well as to a number of risks inherent to wind power generation facilities, including sensitivity to changes in weather conditions and the costs of compliance with regulatory requirements. We have limited experience in operating such facilities.

The electricity produced by our wind farm is distributed to Bangalore Electricity Supply Company Limited ("BESCOM"). We have entered into two power purchase agreements with BESCOM for the supply of 1.5 MW and 4.5 MW, respectively, of electricity generated at our wind power facilities. There can be no assurance that, on the expiry or termination, we will be able to enter into new off-take arrangements on terms acceptable to us, or at all, which could adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Changing global environmental and weather conditions may affect wind power generation at our wind power project. The profitability of our wind power project is primarily dependent on the wind patterns at the site. Climatic weather patterns, whether seasonal or for an extended period of time, that result in lower, inadequate and/or inconsistent wind speed to propel the wind turbines may render our wind farm incapable of generating adequate, or any, electrical energy.

The operation of wind power projects is subject to regulation by various government agencies. Changes in the regulatory environment, and the actions of regulatory bodies, including delays in obtaining the required regulatory approvals, could affect our wind power generation operations. Environmental regulators may impose restrictions on our operations which would limit our ability to generate revenues. We may also be assessed for significant financial penalties for any environmental damage caused.

43. Our results of operations may vary from period to period as a result of various factors beyond our control and our results of operations for any particular fiscal period should not be relied upon as being indicative of our financial performance in future fiscal periods.

We could experience fluctuations in our operating results from fiscal period to fiscal period due to a number of factors, including our ability to make investments in companies that meet our investment criteria, the interest rate payable on the debt securities we acquire, interest rates on our loans, the level of our expenses, variations in and the timing of the recognition of realized and unrealized gains or losses, the degree to which we encounter competition and general economic conditions. As a result of these factors, our results of operations may vary from fiscal period to fiscal period and our results of operations for any particular fiscal period should not be relied upon as being indicative of our financial performance in future fiscal periods.

44. Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend upon future earnings, financial condition, cash flows, working capital requirements and capital expenditures.

The amount of future dividend payments, if any, will depend upon our future earnings, financial condition, cash flows, working capital requirements, terms and conditions of our indebtedness and capital expenditures. Dividend payments are subject to prior consent of our lenders. There can be no assurance that we will be able to pay dividends in the future.

45. Our Promoter, key management personnel and Directors may be interested in the Company to the extent of equity shares held or to be allotted to them.

Our Promoter is interested in the Company to the extent of the Equity Shares held by it and our Directors are interested in the Company to the extent of remuneration and the sitting fee paid to them by our Company. Our Directors may also be regarded as interested in the Equity Shares, if any, held by them or to be allotted to them under the ESOP Scheme or that may be subscribed by or allotted to the companies, firms or trusts in which they are interested as directors, members, partners, trustees and promoters, pursuant to this Issue. All of the Directors may also be deemed to be interested to the extent of any dividend payable to them and other distributions in respect of such Equity Shares. Similarly our key management personnel are interested to the extent of remuneration paid to them by our Company and may also be regarded as interested in the Equity Shares to be allotted to them under the ESOP Scheme. For further information on the shareholdings of our Promoter, directors and key management personnel, see the section titled “Our Management- Key Management Personnel” on page 164.

46. Certain of our Group Companies have incurred losses in recent financial years.

Certain of our Group Companies have incurred losses in recent financial years, as set forth in the table below:

(₹ in millions)
Name of the Group Company	Fiscal 2009	Fiscal 2010
PTC Energy Limited	(22.92)	11.20
R.S India Global Energy Limited	0.19	(3.64)
Barak Power Private Limited	-	(0.08)

47. The proposed adoption of IFRS could result in our financial condition and results of operations appearing materially different than under Indian GAAP.

We may be required to prepare annual and interim financial statements under IFRS in accordance with the roadmap for the adoption of, and convergence with, IFRS announced by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs, GoI in January 2010. The convergence of 35 Indian Accounting Standards with IFRS was notified by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs on February 25, 2011. The date of implementing such converged Indian accounting standards has not yet been determined, and will be notified by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs in due course after various tax-related and other issues are resolved.

Our financial condition, results of operations, cash flows or changes in shareholders’ equity may appear materially different under IFRS than under Indian GAAP. This may have a material adverse effect on the amount of income recognized during that period and in the corresponding period in the comparative period. In addition, in our transition to IFRS reporting, we may encounter difficulties in the ongoing process of implementing and enhancing our management information systems. Moreover, our transition may be hampered by increasing competition and increased costs for the relatively small number of IFRS-experienced accounting personnel available as more Indian companies begin to prepare IFRS financial statements.

48. We do not own the premises in which our registered office is located.

We do not own the premises on which our registered office is located, which is owned by our Promoter PTC. We share these premises with PTC and PTC Energy Limited. We have not entered into any formal lease agreement with PTC in this regard. If such arrangement is terminated, we may suffer a disruption in our operations and incur costs related to moving offices. In fiscal 2010 and in the nine months ended December 31, 2010, we paid ₹ 1.22 million and ₹ 1.84 million, respectively, to PTC in connection with the lease of these premises and related services.

EXTERNAL RISKS

Risks Factors relating to our Industry

49. Private participation in the energy sector in India is dependent on the continued growth of the Indian economy and regulatory developments in India.

Although the energy sector, particularly power, is a rapidly growing sector in India, we believe that further development of this sector is dependent upon the formulation and effective implementation of regulations and policies that facilitate and encourage private sector investment in power projects. Many of these regulations and policies are evolving and their success will depend on whether they are designed to adequately address the issues faced and are effectively implemented. Additionally, these regulations and policies will need continued support from stable and experienced regulatory regimes that not only stimulate and encourage the continued investment of private capital into power projects, but also lead to increased competition, appropriate allocation of risk, transparency, and effective dispute resolution. The availability of private capital and the continued growth of the private power sector in India are also linked to continued growth of the Indian economy. Many specific factors in the power sector may also influence the success of power projects, including changes in policies, regulatory frameworks and market structures. Any adverse change in the policies relating to the power sector may leave us with unutilized capital and interest and debt obligations to fulfill. If the central and state governments' initiatives and regulations in the power sector do not proceed in the desired direction, or if there is any downturn in the macroeconomic environment in India, our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition could be adversely affected. Additionally, it is generally believed that demand for power in India will increase in connection with expected increases in India's GDP. However, there can be no assurance that demand for power in India will increase to the extent we expect or at all. In the event demand for power in India does not increase as anticipated, the extent to which we are able to grow our business by financing the growth of the power sector would be limited and this could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations and the price of our Equity Shares.

50. Any downturn in the Indian and global financial markets could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

In fiscal 2008 and 2009, the global credit markets experienced, significant dislocations and liquidity disruptions, which have originated from the liquidity disruptions in the United States and the European credit and sub-prime residential mortgage markets. These and other related events, such as the collapse of a number of financial institutions, had a significant adverse impact on the availability of credit and the confidence of the financial markets, globally as well as in India. The deterioration in the financial markets heralded a recession in many countries, which led to significant declines in employment, household wealth, consumer demand and lending and as a result adversely affected economic growth in India and elsewhere. In addition, uncertainties in the global and Indian credit and financial markets led to a significant decrease in the availability of credit and an increase in the cost of financing in fiscal 2009 and part of fiscal 2010. In response to such developments, although legislators and financial regulators in the United States and other jurisdictions, including India, implemented a number of policy measures designed to add stability to the financial markets, the overall impact of these and other legislative and regulatory efforts on the global financial markets is uncertain, and they may not have the intended stabilizing effects. There can be no assurance that similar downturns in the Indian and global financial markets will not recur in the future. In the event of similar circumstances in the future, we may have difficulty accessing the financial markets, which could make it more difficult or expensive for us to obtain funds in the future. There can be no assurance that we will be able to secure additional financing required by us on adequate terms or at all. If there are changes in statutory limitations on the amount of liquidity we must maintain or if there is any significant financial disruption, such conditions could have an adverse effect on our business, prospects, results of operations, financial condition and the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Risks Factors Relating to this Issue

51. The price of our Equity Shares may be volatile, or an active trading market for our Equity Shares may not develop.

Prior to this Issue there has been no public market for our Equity Shares. There can be no assurance that an active trading market for our Equity Shares will develop or be sustained after this Issue, or that the price at which our Equity Shares are initially offered will correspond to the prices at which they will trade in the market subsequent to this Issue. The trading price of our Equity Shares may fluctuate after this Issue due to a variety of factors, including our results of operations and the performance of our business, competitive conditions, general economic, political and social factors, the performance of the Indian and global economy and significant developments in India's fiscal regime, volatility in the Indian and global securities market, performance of our competitors, the financial services industry, the energy industry and the perception in the market about investments in the financial services industry, changes in the estimates of our performance or recommendations by financial analysts and announcements by us or others regarding contracts, acquisitions, strategic partnerships, joint ventures, or capital commitments. In addition, if the stock markets experience a loss of investor confidence, the trading price of our Equity Shares could decline for reasons unrelated to our business, financial condition or operating results. The trading price of our Equity Shares may also decline in reaction to events that affect other companies in our industry even if these events do not directly affect us. Each of these factors, among others, could materially affect the price of our Equity Shares.

52. Any future issuance of Equity Shares by the Company or sales of the Equity Shares by any of its significant shareholders may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Any future issuance of our Equity Shares by our Company, the issue or vesting of stock options under the existing or future employee stock option plans could dilute your shareholding. Any such future issuance of our Equity Shares or sales of our Equity Shares by any of our significant shareholders may also adversely affect the trading price of our Equity Shares, and could impact our ability to raise capital through an offering of our securities. Upon completion of the Issue, 20.0% of our post-Issue paid-up capital held by our Promoter will be locked up for a period of three years from the date of allotment of Equity Shares in the Issue. For further information relating to such Equity Shares that will be locked up, please see the section titled “Capital Structure” on page 65. All other remaining Equity Shares that are outstanding prior to the Issue will be locked up for a period of one year from the date of allotment of Equity Shares in the Issue. Allotment to Anchor Investors, if any shall be locked in for a period of 30 days from the date of allotment of Equity Shares in the Issue. Other than these, there are no restrictions on the transfer of our Equity Shares. There can be no assurance that we will not issue further Equity Shares or that the shareholders will not dispose of, pledge or otherwise encumber their Equity Shares. In addition, any perception by investors that such issuances or sales might occur could also affect the trading price of our Equity Shares.

53. Economic developments and volatility in securities markets in other countries may also cause the price of our Equity Shares to decline.

The Indian economy and its securities markets are influenced by economic developments and volatility in securities markets in other countries. Investors’ reactions to developments in one country may have adverse effects on the market price of securities of companies located in other countries, including India. For instance, the economic downturn in the U.S. and several European countries during a part of fiscal 2008 and 2009 adversely affected market prices in the world’s securities markets, including India. Negative economic developments, such as rising fiscal or trade deficits, or a default on national debt, in other emerging market countries may also affect investor confidence and cause increased volatility in Indian securities markets and indirectly affect the Indian economy in general.

54. We cannot guarantee the accuracy or completeness of facts and other statistics with respect to India, the Indian economy and the financial services and power sector contained in this Red Herring Prospectus.

While facts and other statistics in this Red Herring Prospectus relating to India, the Indian economy and the financial services and power sector has been based on various publications and reports from agencies that we believe are reliable, we cannot guarantee the quality or reliability of such materials. While we have taken reasonable care in the reproduction of such information, industry facts and other statistics have not been prepared or independently verified by us or any of our respective affiliates or advisers and, therefore we make no representation as to their accuracy or completeness. These facts and other statistics include the facts and statistics included in the section titled “Industry Overview” on page 91. Due to possibly flawed or ineffective data collection methods or discrepancies between published information and market practice and other problems, the statistics herein may be inaccurate or may not be comparable to statistics produced elsewhere and should not be unduly relied upon. Further, there is no assurance that they are stated or compiled on the same basis or with the same degree of accuracy, as the case may be, elsewhere.

55. Fluctuations in the exchange rate between the Rupee and other currencies could have a material adverse effect on the value of the Equity Shares, independent of our operating results.

The Equity Shares are quoted in Rupees on the BSE and the NSE. Any dividends in respect of the Equity Shares will be paid in Rupees and subsequently converted into other currencies for repatriation. Any adverse movement in exchange rates during the time it takes to undertake such conversion may reduce the net dividend to investors. In addition, any adverse movement in exchange rates during a delay in repatriating the proceeds from a sale of Equity Shares outside India, for example, because of a delay in regulatory approvals that may be required for the sale of Equity Shares may reduce the net proceeds received by shareholders. The exchange rate between the Rupee and other currencies could fluctuate significantly in the future, which may have a material adverse effect on the value of the Equity Shares and returns from the Equity Shares, independent of our operating results.

56. There is no guarantee that the Equity Shares issued pursuant to the Issue will be listed on the BSE and the NSE in a timely manner, or at all.

In accordance with Indian law and practice, permission for listing and trading of the Equity Shares issued pursuant to the Issue will not be granted until after the Equity Shares have been issued and allotted. Approval for listing and trading will require all relevant documents authorizing the issuing of Equity Shares to be submitted. There could be a failure or delay in listing the Equity Shares on the BSE and the NSE. Any failure or delay in obtaining the approval would restrict your ability to dispose of your Equity Shares.

57. Investors may be subject to Indian taxes arising out of capital gains on the sale of the Equity Shares.

Under current Indian tax laws and regulations, capital gains arising from the sale of Equity Shares in an Indian company are generally taxable in India. Any gain realized on the sale of listed equity shares on a stock exchange held for more than 12 months will not be subject to capital gains tax in India if Securities Transaction Tax ("STT") has been paid on the transaction. STT will be levied on and collected by a domestic stock exchange on which the Equity Shares are sold. Any gain realized on the sale of equity shares held for more than 12 months to an Indian resident, which are sold other than on a recognized stock exchange and on which no STT has been paid, will be subject to long term capital gains tax in India. Further, any gain realized on the sale of listed equity shares held for a period of 12 months or less will be subject to short term capital gains tax in India. Capital gains arising from the sale of the Equity Shares will be exempt from taxation in India in cases where the exemption from taxation in India is provided under a treaty between India and the country of which the seller is resident. Generally, Indian tax treaties do not limit India's ability to impose tax on capital gains. As a result, residents of other countries may be liable for tax in India as well as in their own jurisdiction on a gain upon the sale of the Equity Shares.

58. There are restrictions on daily movements in the price of the Equity Shares, which may adversely affect a shareholder's ability to sell, or the price at which the shareholders may sell, Equity Shares.

We are subject to a daily circuit breaker imposed by stock exchanges in India which does not allow transactions beyond a certain level of volatility in the price of the Equity Shares. This circuit breaker operates independently of the index-based market-wide circuit breakers generally imposed by the SEBI on Indian stock exchanges. The percentage limit on our circuit breaker is set by the stock exchanges based on the historical volatility in the price and trading volume of the Equity Shares. The stock exchanges do not inform us of the percentage limit of the circuit breaker from time to time, and may change it without our knowledge. This circuit breaker effectively limits upward and downward movements in the price of the Equity Shares. As a result of this circuit breaker, there can be no assurance regarding the ability of shareholders to sell the Equity Shares or the price at which shareholders may be able to sell their Equity Shares at a particular point in time.

Risk Factors Related to India

59. Political instability or changes in the Government of India could adversely affect economic conditions in India and consequently our business.

Our Company is incorporated in India, derive its revenues in India and all of our assets are located in India. Consequently, our performance and the market price and liquidity of the Equity Shares may be affected by changes in exchange rates and controls, interest rates, Government policies, taxation, social and ethnic instability and other political and economic developments affecting India. The Government has traditionally exercised and continues to exercise a significant influence over many aspects of the economy. Our business and the business of certain of our subsidiaries, and the market price and liquidity of the Equity Shares may be affected by interest rates, changes in Government policy, taxation, social and civil unrest and political, economic or other developments in or affecting India. Since 1991, successive governments have pursued policies of economic and financial sector liberalization and deregulation and encouraged infrastructure projects. The policies of the Government may change the rate of economic liberalization, specific laws and policies affecting banks and financial institutions and the NBFC industry, the power industry, foreign investment and other matters affecting investment in the Equity Shares. There can be no assurance that such policies will be continued. A significant change in the Government's policies in the future, in particular, those relating to the financial services industry and the power industry in India, could affect business and economic conditions in India, and could also adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations.

60. If communal disturbances or riots erupt in India, or if regional hostilities increase, this would adversely affect the Indian economy, and our business, financial condition and results of operations.

India has experienced communal disturbances, terrorist attacks and riots during recent years. If such events recur, our business may be adversely affected. The Asian region has from time to time experienced instances of civil unrest and hostilities. Hostilities and tensions may occur in the future and on a wider scale. Military activity or terrorist attacks in India, such as the recent attacks in Mumbai in November 2008, as well as other acts of violence or war could influence the Indian economy by creating a greater perception that investments in India involve higher degrees of risk. Events of this nature in the future, as well as social and civil unrest within other countries in Asia, could influence the Indian economy and could have a material adverse effect on the market for securities of Indian companies, including the Equity Shares.

61. A slow down in the economic growth in India could cause our business to suffer.

We derive all of our revenues from operations in India and consequently, our performance and growth is dependent on the state of the Indian economy. The Annual Policy Statement of the RBI released in April 2010 and amended in July 2010 placed real GDP growth for the fiscal year 2011 at approximately 8.50% as compared to 6.00% in fiscal year 2010. Any slowdown in the Indian economy, and in particular in the financing requirements of our customers could adversely affect our business.

62. A downgrade of India's sovereign debt rating may adversely affect our ability to raise additional debt financing.

India's sovereign debt rating could be downgraded due to various factors, including changes in tax or fiscal policy, which are outside our control. Such downgrading could cause a change in interest rates or other commercial terms and could adversely affect our ability to raise additional financing as well as our capital expenditure plans, business and financial performance. A decline in this reserve could impact the valuation of the Indian Rupee and could result in reduced liquidity and higher interest rates, which could adversely affect the availability of financing to us for our future projects.

63. A decline in India's foreign exchange reserves may affect liquidity and interest rates in the Indian economy, which could adversely impact our financial condition.

According to the weekly statistical supplement released by the RBI, India's foreign exchange reserves totalled US$ 297,334 million as of December 31, 2010. A decline in India's foreign exchange reserves could impact the valuation of the Rupee and could result in reduced liquidity and higher interest rates which could adversely affect our future financial performance.

64. Companies operating in India are subject to a variety of central and state government taxes and surcharges.

Tax and other levies imposed by the central and state governments in India that affect our tax liability include: central and state taxes and other levies, income tax, value added tax, turnover tax, service tax, stamp duty and other special taxes and surcharges which are introduced on a temporary or permanent basis from time to time. Moreover, the central and state tax scheme in India is extensive and subject to change from time to time. For example, a new tax code is proposed to be introduced in the winter session of the Indian Parliament. In addition, a new goods and services tax is to be introduced effective April 1, 2011, and the scope of the service tax is proposed to be enlarged. The statutory corporate income tax in India, which includes a surcharge on the tax and an education cess on the tax and the surcharge, is currently 33.21%. The central or state government may in the future increase the corporate income tax it imposes. Any such future increases or amendments may affect the overall tax efficiency of companies operating in India and may result in significant additional taxes becoming payable. Additional tax exposure could adversely affect our business and results of operations.

65. Our ability to raise foreign currency borrowings may be constrained by Indian law.

As an Indian company, we are subject to exchange controls that regulate borrowing in foreign currencies. Such regulatory restrictions limit our financing sources and hence could constrain our ability to obtain financing on competitive terms and refinance existing indebtedness. In addition, we cannot assure you that the required approvals will be granted to us without onerous conditions, if at all. Limitations on raising foreign debt may have an adverse effect on our business.

66. India is vulnerable to natural disasters that could severely disrupt the normal operation of our business.

India has experienced natural calamities, such as tsunamis, floods, droughts and earthquakes in the past few years. To the extent and severity of these natural disasters determines their impact on the Indian economy. For example, the erratic progress of the monsoon in 2004 and 2009 affected sowing operations for certain crops. Such unforeseen circumstances of below normal rainfall and other natural calamities, could have a negative impact on the Indian economy. Because our operations are located in India, our business and operations could be interrupted or delayed as a result of a natural disaster in India, which could affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and the price of our Equity Shares.

67. An outbreak of an infectious disease or any other serious public health concerns in India or elsewhere could adversely affect the Indian economy and consequently our business.

The outbreak of an infectious disease in India or elsewhere or any other serious public health concern, such as swine influenza, could have a negative impact on the Indian economy, financial markets and business activities worldwide, which could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and the price of our Equity Shares. Although, we have not been adversely affected by such outbreaks in the past, we can give you no assurance that a future outbreak of an infectious disease among humans or animals or any other serious public health concerns will not have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and the price of our Equity Shares.

68. A third party could be prevented from acquiring control of us because of the Indian laws applicable to takeovers.

There are provisions in Indian law that may delay, deter or prevent a takeover, substantial acquisition, or change in control of the Company, even if a change in control would result in the purchase of your Equity Shares at a premium to the market price or would otherwise be beneficial to you. Under the takeover regulations an acquirer has been defined as any person who, directly or indirectly, acquires or agrees to acquire shares or voting rights or control over a company, whether individually or acting in concert with others. Although these provisions have been formulated to ensure that interests of investors/shareholders are protected, these provisions may also prevent a third party from attempting to take control of or substantially acquire our Company. Consequently, even if a potential takeover or substantial acquisition of our Company would result in the purchase of the equity shares at a premium to their market price or would otherwise be beneficial to its stakeholders, it is possible that such a takeover would not be attempted or consummated because of Indian takeover regulations.

69. Foreign investors are subject to foreign investment restrictions under Indian law that limits our ability to attract foreign investors, which may adversely impact the market price of the Equity Shares.

Under the foreign exchange regulations currently in force in India, transfers of shares between non-residents and residents are freely permitted (subject to certain exceptions) if they comply with the pricing guidelines and reporting requirements specified by the RBI. If the transfer of shares is not in compliance with such pricing guidelines or reporting requirements or fall under any of the exceptions referred to above, then the prior approval of the RBI will be required. Additionally, shareholders who seek to convert the Rupee proceeds from a sale of shares in India into foreign currency and repatriate that foreign currency from India will require a no objection or a tax clearance certificate from the income tax authority. We cannot assure investors that any required approval from the RBI or any other Government agency can be obtained on any particular terms or at all.

SECTION III – INTRODUCTION

SUMMARY OF INDUSTRY

The information in this section has been obtained or derived from publicly available documents prepared by various sources, including officially prepared materials from the Government of India ("GoI") and its various ministries and from various multi-lateral institutions. This information has not been prepared or independently verified by us or any of our advisors including the BRLMs, and should not be relied on as if it had been so prepared or verified. Unless otherwise indicated, the data presented exclude captive generation capacity.

Overview of the Indian Economy

India is the fifth largest economy in the world after the European Union, United States of America, China and Japan in purchasing power parity terms with an estimated GDP (purchasing power parity) of US$ 3.68 trillion in 2009. India is also among the fastest growing economies globally and has grown at an average rate of more than 7.0% since 1997. According to the revised estimates of the Central Statistical Organisation (CSO) India's GDP grew at a rate of 7.4% in the fiscal year 2010.

Overview of Indian Power Industry

India has continuously experienced shortages in energy and peak power requirements. According to the Monthly Review of the Power Section ("Monthly Review") published by the CEA in October 2010, the total energy deficit and peak power deficit during April 2010 to October 2010 was approximately 9.2% and 10.1%, respectively. According to the Monthly Review (October 2010), the total installed power generation capacity in India was 167278.36 MW as of August 31, 2010.

Power Consumption

The total energy consumption in India is estimated to grow from 566 Mtoe in 2006 to 1280 Mtoe in 2030. (Source: World Economic Outlook 2008, IEA). This implies growth at a CAGR of 3.5% CAGR in India's energy requirement over the next 25-30 years and hence, there is a huge potential for investments in the energy sector in India. The GoI has set a goal of 1,000 kWh per capita by fiscal 2012 in its mission of "Power for All by 2012" under the National Electricity Policy.

Power Demand-Supply Overview

The Indian power sector has historically been beset by energy shortages which have been rising over the years. In fiscal 2010, peak energy deficit was 12.7% and total energy deficit was 10.1%. The deficits in electric energy and peak power requirements vary across different regions in India. The peak deficit was 17.2% in the Western Region, followed by 18.5% in the North Eastern Region in the period from April to October 2010.

Power Generation

According to the White Paper on Strategy for Eleventh Plan, the total capacity addition during the past 25 years between the 6th and the 10th Five-Year Plans was approximately 91,000 MW. A total capacity addition of 78,700 MW is planned for the 11th Five-Year Plan which should result in significant investments in the power generation sector. The installed generation capacity and the proposed capacity addition during the 11th Five-Year Plan is 167,278.36 and 78,700.4 MW according to Monthly Review (October 2010), published by CEA.

Planned Expansion

The aim for the 11th Plan i.e. by 2012 is a capacity addition of 15,000 MW from renewables. The total fund requirement for generation projects, during the Twelfth Plan period is estimated at approximately ₹ 4,950,830 million, with approximately ₹ 1,266,490 million being required for the hydro sector, approximately ₹ 3,306,680 million being required for the thermal sector and approximately ₹ 377,660 million being required for the nuclear sector. (Source: Base Paper, International Conclave on Key Inputs for Accelerated Development of Indian Power Sector for Twelfth Plan and Beyond, 18-19 August 2009, MoP and CEA)

Investments in generation, transmission and distribution

The total fund requirement for transmission system development and related schemes during the Twelfth Plan period is estimated at ₹ 2,400,000 million, with ₹ 1,400,000 million being required for the central sector and ₹ 1,000,000 million being required for the state sector. The total fund requirement for the distribution sector, during the Twelfth Plan period is estimated at ₹ 3,710,000 million. (Source: Base Paper, International Conclave on Key Inputs for Accelerated Development of Indian Power Sector for Twelfth Plan and Beyond, 18-19 August 2009, MoP and CEA).

Power Trading

Power trading involves the exchange of power from suppliers with surpluses to those with deficits. Seasonal diversity in generation and demand, as well as the concentration of power generation facilities in the resources rich eastern region of India, have created significant opportunities for the trading of power. With the help of the recent regulatory reforms, the volume of power traded as well as its traded price has increased rapidly over the last few years.

Tariffs

The main objectives of the National Tariff Policy (“NTP”) notified by the GoI on January 6, 2006, include promoting competition, efficiency in operations and improvements in the quality of power supply and ensuring the accessibility of electricity to consumers at reasonable and market-competitive rates.

Merchant Power Plants

Merchant power plants (“MPPs”) generate electricity for sale at market-driven rates in the open wholesale market. Typically, the MPPs do not have long-term PPAs and are constructed and owned by private developers. MPPs can sell power to the power trading companies (like the PTC India Ltd and Tata Power Trading Company), the SEBs and industrial and bulk customers.

Captive Power Generation

Captive power refers to power generation from a project established for industrial consumption. According to Monthly Review of Power Sector, August 2010 (CEA), captive power capacity at 19,509 MW, accounted for 11.86% of the 164508.80 MW of total installed capacity in India.

Indian Energy Exchange/ Power Exchange India Limited

Indian Energy Exchange (“IEX”) is India's first nation-wide automated and online electricity trading platform. The total volume of power traded on IEX amounted to 1089.46 million units in October, 2010 (Source: http://www.cercind.gov.in/2010/MMC/MMC_Monthly_Report_Oct_2010.pdf). Power Exchange India Limited (“PXIL”) is a fully electronic, nation-wide exchange for trading of electricity. The total volume of power traded on PXIL amounted to 112.32 million units in October, 2010 (Source: http://www.cercind.gov.in/2010/MMC/MMC_Monthly_Report_Oct_2010.pdf).

Providers of Finance to the Power Sector in India

The primary providers of power sector financing in India are power sector specific government companies, financing institutions, public sector banks and other public sector institutions, multilateral development institutions and private banks. There also exist several short term and long-term financing measures by the GoI to facilitate the financial viability of the power sector, such as the implementation of the Electricity Act. As a long-term financing measure, the process has been initiated for institutionalizing mechanism for facilitating and accelerating private and foreign direct investment into the power sector.

SUMMARY OF OUR BUSINESS

We are an Indian non-banking financial institution promoted by PTC India Limited ("PTC") to make principal investments in, and provide financing solutions for, companies with projects across the energy value chain. We believe we are one of the few financial institutions in India that provide both equity and debt financing, including short-term and long-term debt, as well as structured debt financing. With a focus on infrastructure development, we offer an integrated suite of services including provision financing to, and make investments in, private sector Indian companies in the power sector, including for power generation, equipment supply and fuel source projects. We are currently focused primarily on power generation projects in India. We also provide fee-based syndication and advisory services as well as carbon credit financing against certified emissions reduction (CER).

We are regulated by the Reserve Bank of India (the "RBI") as a systemically important non-deposit taking, non-banking financial company ("NBFC"), and we have been classified by the RBI as an Infrastructure Finance Company, or IFC, in August 2010. The IFC status enhances our ability to raise funds on a cost-competitive basis and enables us to assume higher debt exposure in infrastructure projects. For further information, see the section entitled "Regulations and Policies" on page 118.

We are a subsidiary of and promoted by PTC, which is the market leader for power trading solutions in India, according to the Central Electricity Regulatory Commission monthly report on short term transactions of electricity (December 2010). PTC purchases power primarily for sale to power utilities and also provides comprehensive solutions for the power sector in India. As of December 31, 2010, PTC had a portfolio of power purchase agreements aggregating to approximately 14,185 MW and memoranda of understandings for an additional approximately 13,243 MW. PTC is a GoI initiated company promoted by National Thermal Power Corporation ("NTPC"), Power Grid Corporation of India Limited ("Power Grid"), Power Finance Corporation Limited ("PFC") and NHPC Limited ("NHPC"). We believe we benefit from the power sector expertise, network and relationships of PTC and its affiliates, which provide us with early access to business opportunities.

We were incorporated in September 2006 and received our certificate for commencement of business in March 2007. As of the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, PTC holds 77.60% of our equity share capital and GS Strategic Investments Limited (an affiliate of The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc.) and Macquarie India Holdings Limited (an affiliate of The Macquarie Group) each hold 11.20% of our equity share capital.

Principal Investments. We make strategic equity investments in companies in the energy value chain in India, including in greenfield and brownfield projects. The nature and extent of our equity participation in such companies vary in accordance with the requirements, opportunities and risks associated with the relevant project, but we generally do not retain management control. As of December 31, 2010, our Board had approved equity commitments for ten companies for an aggregate amount of ₹ 5,641.66 million, with projects aggregating 3,221.45 MW of power generation capacity. Of these equity commitments, as of December 31, 2010, we had entered into definitive agreements for investments in eight companies for an aggregate amount of ₹ 4,827.67 million, with projects aggregating 2,621.45 MW of power generation capacity. All of our principal investments have been in private unlisted companies. As of December 31, 2010, our principal investments aggregated ₹ 4,186.23 million in eight companies including in Indian Energy Exchange Limited ("IEX"), India's first nationwide, automated and online electricity trading platform. Our current portfolio of principal investments are mostly greenfield projects, which typically involve between two and five years of development activity prior to commencement of commercial operations. Three of our principal investment projects, with an aggregate power generation capacity of 175.60 MW, have commenced commercial operation. In September 2010, we liquidated a portion of our investment in IEX for a gain. Further, as of December 31, 2010 our Board had approved funding in the form of optionally convertible debentures aggregating ₹ 385.00 million to two companies. As of December 31, 2010 we had disbursed ₹ 385.00 million, out of which ₹ 340.00 million has been repaid, and ₹ 45.00 million remains outstanding.

Debt Finance. We provide fund based and non-fund based debt financing, including short-term and long-term debt, as well as structured debt financing. In addition to financing project companies, we also provide bridge financing to promoters of power projects. As of December 31, 2010, our Board had approved debt commitments aggregating ₹ 22,567.30 million to 31 companies, with projects aggregating 8,982.20 MW of power generation capacity. Of these approved debt commitments, as of December 31, 2010, we had entered into definitive agreements for financing arrangements for an aggregate amount of ₹ 11,198.72 million to 17 companies, with power projects aggregating 8,283 MW of power generation capacity. As of December 31, 2010, we had outstanding loan financing of ₹ 5,951.15 million to 13 companies with projects representing 6,794 MW of aggregate power generation capacity. As of December 31, 2010, we did not have any non-performing assets in our outstanding loan portfolio.

Fee-based and other Services. We provide various fee-based services including facility agent and security agent services, as well as advisory services such as techno-economic feasibility studies for power projects in India. In addition, in March 2010 we commenced carbon credit financing, which involves purchase of future CERs from power project developers for sale to third parties.

As of December 31, 2010 our Board had approved funding in form of funding against CERs aggregating ₹ 306.11 million to two companies with projects aggregating 108 MW capacity.

Sources of Funds. Our primary sources of funds include equity, term loans and non-convertible debentures ("NCDs") issued by us. We have issued secured NCDs on a private placement basis in October 2009 and February 2010. As of December 31, 2010, we had ₹ 2,000.00 million in outstanding NCDs and ₹ 2773.69 million in other borrowings. As of December 31, 2010, our NCDs represented 41.90% of our outstanding total indebtedness. Our long-term bank borrowings have been rated "LA+ (positive outlook)" by ICRA, while our NCDs have been rated "LA+ (positive outlook)" by ICRA and "BWR AA" (stable outlook) by Brickwork. Our short-term borrowings have been rated "A1+" by ICRA, which is the highest credit quality rating assigned by ICRA to short term debt instruments. In October 2010, we have also entered into ECB agreement with Deutsche Investitions - UND Entwicklungsgesellschaft MBH ("DEG") for an aggregate amount of US$ 26.00 million (₹1165.06 million) for on-lending to renewable energy projects. We have also raised funds through capital contributions from our Promoter and our other shareholders.

In fiscal 2008, 2009 and 2010, and in the nine months ended December 31, 2010, our total income was ₹ 31.38 million, ₹ 116.00 million and ₹ 534.90 million, and ₹ 825.44 million, respectively, and our profit after tax was ₹ 16.41 million, ₹ 85.30 million, ₹ 254.52 million, and ₹ 312.18 million, respectively. We maintain our capital adequacy ratios above the minimum levels of 15.0% prescribed by the RBI for IFCs. Our capital adequacy ratios were 97.90%, 275.36%, 88.30% and 60.57% as of March 31, 2008, 2009 and 2010, and December 31, 2010, respectively.

Competitive Strengths

Composite financial services platform focused on all areas of the energy value chain

We are a one stop solution provider offering a comprehensive range of financial products and services that add value throughout the life cycle of projects across all areas of the energy value chain. We believe this has enabled us to establish ourselves as a preferred financing provider for power projects. We have financed or approved financing arrangements for various projects, including power generation, equipment supply and fuel source projects. We have also invested in India's first nationwide automated and online electricity trading platform. We believe we are one of the few financial institutions in India that provide both equity and debt financing, including short-term and long-term debt as well as structured debt financing, for power projects in India. We also provide fee-based services including syndication services and advisory services such as techno-economic feasibility studies for power projects in India. In addition, in March 2010 we commenced carbon credit financing against CERs.

PTC relationship and brand

We are a subsidiary of and are promoted by PTC, which is the market leader for power trading solutions in India and provides comprehensive solutions for the power sector, according to the Central Electricity Regulatory Commission monthly report on short term transactions of electricity (December 2010). PTC is a GoI initiated company promoted by NTPC, Power Grid, PFC and NHPC. As of December 31, 2010, PTC had a portfolio of power purchase agreements aggregating to approximately 14,185 MW and memoranda of understandings for an additional approximately 13243 MW. PTC together with its affiliates provides comprehensive solutions in the energy value chain including services such as power trading, co-development, fuel-intermediation, consulting and is in the process of setting up an energy equity fund. We believe the synergies among the group entities provide us with early access to potential business opportunities, ability to understand and efficiently cater to the needs of the developers in a comprehensive manner. We believe that PTC is an established brand name in the Indian power sector and we benefit from the associated goodwill.

Strong domain knowledge and expertise with exclusive focus on the power sector

We believe our power sector knowledge and experience enables us to identify investment opportunities with high potential and effectively manage risks associated with such opportunities. We believe our exclusive focus on the power sector has enabled us to develop strong relationships and become a preferred financing provider for power projects, particularly for smaller and medium sized projects, compared to competitors that are not similarly focused on the power sector. Our management team has significant experience in the power sector and the financial services industry, which enables us to identify specific requirements of power project developers and offer structured products and services while effectively managing associated risks and maintaining competitive margins. In addition, we benefit from the industry experience of our Promoter PTC.

Flexibility due to NBFC and IFC status

We believe our status as an NBFC and IFC provide us with greater flexibility than some of our competitors, particularly banks, and enable us to quickly and efficiently capitalize upon financing opportunities that arise. While banks are subject to more stringent regulation in India and may provide only certain forms of debt financing and equity financing subject to certain specified limits, as an NBFC we are able to provide a wider range of debt financing, including structured products, as well as equity financing that is subject to fewer restrictions.

In February 2010 the RBI introduced the IFC category as a separate category for certain NBFCs engaged in infrastructure financing. We were granted IFC status in August 2010 and believe our status as an IFC enhances our ability to raise funds on a cost-competitive basis and take higher debt exposure in power projects than other NBFCs that have not been granted IFC status. For example, an IFC is entitled to lend up to 25.00% of its Owned Funds to a single borrower in the infrastructure sector, compared to 20.00% of Owned Funds by other NBFCs that have not been granted IFC status. As an IFC, we are also eligible to raise ECBs up to 50.00% of our Owned Funds without prior RBI approval. Banks and NBFCs that are not IFCs are required to seek prior RBI approval in order to avail ECBs for on-lending activities. Furthermore, our IFC status enables us to raise capital through issuance of infrastructure bonds at comparatively lower yields, which will enable us to reduce our cost of funds, as infrastructure bondholders are entitled to certain tax benefits. For further information, see the section titled “Regulations and Policies” on page 118.

Demonstrated growth and robust balance sheet

Our business has grown rapidly in recent years, providing us with a robust balance sheet that we believe provides a foundation for future growth. Our total assets, total income and profit after tax grew at a CAGR of 191.54%, 312.86% and 293.86%, respectively, from fiscal 2008 to fiscal 2010. Our total assets as of March 31, 2008, 2009, 2010 and December 31, 2010 was ₹ 1128.33 million, ₹ 6305.46 million, ₹ 9590.37 million and ₹ 11682.92 million, respectively. While total income in fiscal 2008, 2009 and 2010 and in the nine months ended December 31, 2010 was ₹ 31.38 million, ₹ 116.00 million, ₹ 534.90 million and ₹ 825.44 million, respectively, our profit after tax in fiscal 2008, 2009 and 2010 and in the nine months ended December 31, 2010 was ₹ 16.41 million, ₹ 85.30 million, ₹ 254.52 million and ₹ 312.18 million, respectively. We made our first principal investment in IEX in December 2007, investing ₹ 65.00 million for 26.00% shareholding. We have subsequently rapidly expanded our investment portfolio, with outstanding principal investments in eight companies aggregating ₹ 4186.23 million as of December 31, 2010. In September 2010, we liquidated our shareholding in IEX from earlier 26.00% to 21.12% for a consideration of ₹ 135.30 million.

We disbursed our first loan of ₹ 200.00 million in March 2009. Within a relatively short period our loan portfolio has grown significantly, and December 31, 2010, we had outstanding loan financing of ₹ 5,951.15 million to 13 companies with projects representing 6,794 MW of aggregate power generation capacity. As of December 31, 2010, we had entered into definitive agreements for financing arrangements for an aggregate amount of ₹ 11,198.72 million to 17 companies, with power projects representing 8,283 MW of power generation capacity. As of such date, we did not have any non performing assets in our outstanding loan portfolio.

Our capital to risk-weighted asset ratio as of December 31, 2010 was 60.57% and our return on average total assets in fiscal 2010 was 3.20%. Our long-term bank borrowings have been rated “LA+” (positive outlook)” by ICRA, while our NCDs have been rated “LA+ (positive outlook)” by ICRA and “BWR AA” (stable outlook) by Brickwork. Our short-term borrowings have been rated “A1+” by ICRA, which is the highest credit quality rating assigned by ICRA to short term debt instruments.

Nimble management structure

We have a lean employee base and flat management structure. In addition to our senior management team, which includes our two whole time directors, Mr. Tantra Narayan Thakur and Dr. Ashok Haldia, we have a team of experienced professionals with expertise in project finance, principal investment, asset management and advisory services. We believe our corporate culture promotes involved management at all levels in an efficient manner.

Effective risk management framework

We believe we have established an effective risk management framework through the implementation of robust systems and procedures for evaluating and approving debt and equity financing proposals. Prior to commitment of any financial assistance, we undertake extensive techno-economic analysis, financial and legal due diligence of the potential principal investment or debt financing opportunity, either in-house or by appointing third party experts. Subsequent to a principal investment or disbursement of debt, we continue to monitor the development and performance of the relevant project, including through appointment of nominee directors in the case of certain principal investments. We also request for periodic progress reports from the projects and then performance assessments of these projects are regularly considered at our Board meetings. We further try to protect our interest by incorporating certain clauses in our principal investment agreements such as buy-back clause, tag along rights, drag along rights etc.

We have institutionalized our project appraisal process and systems and have implemented the Advanced Internal Risk Scoring Model developed by ICRA Management Consulting Services Limited for the assessment and mitigation of credit risk. These processes and systems include a detailed appraisal methodology, identification of risks and suitable structuring of credit risk mitigation measures. We use a range of quantitative as well as qualitative parameters as a part of the appraisal process to make a sound assessment of the extent of underlying credit risk in a project. We have adopted various risk management policies, including a credit risk management policy, asset liability management policy, operational risk management policy, interest rate policy and a policy for investment of surplus funds. For further information, see the section titled “Our Business – Risk Management” on page 116.

Business Strategy

Offer comprehensive structured financing solutions to private power project developers

We continue to focus on the power sector and offer comprehensive, structured financing solutions that address the financing requirements of private power project developers in India. We intend to leverage our industry experience, knowledge and our ability, as an NBFC and an IFC, to offer structured debt products and equity products, to provide customized financing solutions. We intend to grow our principal investment and debt financing businesses, as well as expand our fee based and other services, to ensure effective sourcing and cross-sell of our financing products and services.

Consolidate our position as a preferred financing solutions provider for smaller and medium sized power projects

We seek to leverage our strong industry experience, relationships and the goodwill from our association with PTC, to consolidate our position as a preferred financing solutions provider for smaller and medium sized power generation, equipment supply and fuel source projects. We believe that this specific segment in the power sector has significant potential and is currently under served by large banks and financing institutions that may have limited interest for this segment. We believe that availability of financing solutions for this segment will further encourage the development of such projects and power sector in India.

Expand fee-based services and CER financing

We intend to increase our focus on our current fee-based services that include primarily debt facility agent and security agent services as well as various advisory services such as techno-commercial appraisal services. We intend to increasingly focus on debt syndication activities in the future as we believe that our technical expertise and industry experience enable us to effectively understand the risks and opportunities in a project and structure financing solutions. We believe that the credibility of our project appraisal capabilities and our relationship with other financial institutions will enable us to ensure timely financial closure for such projects.

We commenced financing against carbon credits i.e. CERs in March 2010 and believe that this segment will continue to grow. We intend to develop specific expertise in this segment to effectively capitalize on the growing carbon market and develop capabilities to offer carbon credit advisory services.

Lower our cost of funds

We continue to evaluate various funding opportunities to lower our cost of funds, including through the issuance of infrastructure bonds at comparatively lower yields, as holders of such bonds are entitled to certain tax benefits. In addition, our IFC status enables us to avail ECBs up to 50.00% of our Owned Funds without prior RBI approval. We believe that foreign credit markets offer more cost-effective terms for long-term debt than the domestic credit market. In this connection, in October 2010, we have entered into a financing arrangement with DEG for an external commercial borrowing in an aggregate amount of US$ 26.00 million (₹ 1165.06 million) for the financing of renewable energy projects. We also have entered into a letter agreement with International Finance Corporation on January 20, 2011 for a proposed loan of US$ 50.00 million (₹ 2240.5 million) to support and expand our lending program to renewable energy projects.

We intend to develop and maintain an asset base with an optimal mix of principal investments and debt financing, and also increase the proportion of long-term debt in our debt financing portfolio, which we believe will enable us to further improve credit ratings for our long-term borrowings, resulting in lower cost of funds. As of December 31, 2010, our principal investments aggregated ₹ 4,186.23 million while our outstanding loan financing aggregated ₹ 5,951.15 million, of which long-term debt represented 59.19%.

Continue to develop strategic partnerships with international financial institutions

We intend to continue to develop strategic partnerships with international financial institutions by establishing joint ventures and/or private equity funds. We are currently exploring joint venture opportunities for the establishment of a fund focused on renewable energy. In addition, we have entered into strategic partnerships with Macquarie Bank Limited and Vitol SA in connection with our carbon credit financing business. We intend to enter into similar strategic partnerships from time to time to provide various financial services in specific areas of India's power sector.

Focus on renewable energy and other emerging segments of the power sector

We believe that there is significant investment potential in the renewable energy sector in India. India has large untapped potential across the renewable space with a current installed capacity of 17,173.90 MW out of an estimated technical potential of 84,776 MW (Source: Ministry of New and Renewable Energy). We continue to evaluate strategic initiatives focused on the renewable energy value chain. As of December 31, 2010 our Board had approved aggregate equity commitment of ₹ 822.11 million for four companies and aggregate debt commitment of ₹ 3273.30 million for 12 companies in the renewable energy sector. In addition, we have sanctioned financing against CERs to two renewable energy companies. We have also entered into an ECB agreement with DEG for an aggregate amount of US$ 26.00 million (₹1165.06 million) for on-lending to renewable energy projects.

Illustration of Book Building Process and the Price Discovery Process

(Investors should note that the following is solely for the purpose of illustration and is not specific to this Issue)

Bidders can bid at any price within the Price Band. For instance, assuming a price band of ₹ 20 to ₹ 24 per share, an issue size of 3,000 equity shares and receipt of five bids from bidders, details of which are shown in the table below. A graphical representation of the consolidated demand and price would be made available at the Bidding Centres during the bidding period. The illustrative book as shown below indicates the demand for the shares of the issuer company at various prices and is collated from bids from various investors.

Bid Quantity	Bid Price (₹)	Cumulative Quantity	Subscription
500	24	500	16.67%
1,000	23	1,500	50.00%
1,500	22	3,000	100.00%
2,000	21	5,000	166.67%
2,500	20	7,500	250.00%

The price discovery is a function of demand at various prices. The highest price at which the issuer is able to issue the desired number of shares is the price at which the book cuts off, i.e. ₹ 22 in the above example. The issuer, in consultation with Book Running Lead Managers and the Co Book Running Lead Manager, will finalise the issue price at or below such cut-off, i.e. at or below ₹ 22. All bids at or above this issue price and cut-off bids are valid bids and are considered for allocation in the respective categories.

Shares in a company, listed securities or units of the Unit Trust of India or units of a mutual fund specified under section 10(23D) of the Act or Zero-Coupons bonds will be considered as long term capital assets if they are held for a period exceeding 12 months. Consequently, capital gains arising on sale of these assets held for more than 12 months are considered as “long term capital gains”. Capital gains arising on sale of these assets held for 12 months or less are considered as “short term capital gains”.

1.8.2 Section 48 of the Act, which prescribes the mode of computation of capital gains, provides for deduction of cost of acquisition / improvement and expenses incurred in connection with the transfer of a capital asset, from the sale consideration to arrive at the amount of capital gains. However, in respect of long term capital gains [other than gains on transfer of bonds or debentures (other than capital indexed bonds issued by the government)], it offers a benefit by permitting substitution of cost of acquisition / improvement with the indexed cost of acquisition / improvement, which adjusts the cost of acquisition / improvement by a cost inflation index as prescribed from time to time.

1.8.3 As per the provisions of Section 112 of the Act, long term gains as computed above that are not exempt under section 10(38) of the Act would be subject to tax at a rate of 20 percent (plus applicable surcharge and education cess). However, as per the proviso to Section 112(1), if the tax on long term capital gains resulting on transfer of listed securities or Units or Zero-Coupons bonds, calculated at the rate of 20 percent with indexation benefit exceeds the tax on long term gains computed at the rate of 10 percent without indexation benefit, then such gains are chargeable to tax at a concessional rate of 10 percent (plus applicable surcharge and education cess).

1.8.4 As per the provisions of section 111A of the Act, short-term capital gains on sale of equity shares or units of an equity oriented fund where the transaction of sale is chargeable to Securities Transaction tax (“STT”) shall be subject to tax at a rate of 15 per cent (plus applicable surcharge and education cess).

1.8.5 Exemption of capital gain from income tax

- According to section 10(38) of the Act, long-term capital gains on sale of equity shares or units of an equity oriented fund where the transaction of sale is chargeable to STT shall be exempt from tax.
- According to the provisions of section 54EC of the Act and subject to the conditions specified therein, capital gains not exempt under section 10(38) and arising on transfer of a long term capital asset shall not be chargeable to tax to the extent such capital gains are invested in certain notified bonds within six months from the date of transfer. Deduction under section 54EC of the Act is restricted to Rs. 50 lacs during any financial year. However, if the said bonds are transferred or converted into money within a period of three years from the date of their acquisition, the amount of capital gains exempted earlier would become chargeable to tax as long term capital gains in the year in which the bonds are transferred or converted into money.

1.9 Other specified deductions

Subject to fulfillment of conditions, the Company will be eligible, inter alia, for the following specified deductions in computing its business income:-

- 1.9.1 According to section 36(1)(viii) of the Act, the Company being a financial corporation will be eligible for deduction at 20% of the profits derived from the business of providing long term finance for specified purposes computed in the manner specified under the section and carried to a Special Reserve account created and maintained by the Company.

The deduction will be allowed subject to the aggregate of the amounts transferred to the Special Reserve Account for this purpose from time to time not exceeding twice the paid-up share capital and general reserves of the Company. The amount withdrawn from such a Special Reserve Account will be chargeable to income tax in the year of withdrawal, in accordance with the provisions of Section 41(4A) of the Act.

- 1.9.2 According to section 80(IA)(1) of the Act read with section 80(IA)(4)(iv)(a) of the Act, profits derived from the distribution and generation of power shall be eligible for 100 percent deduction subject to fulfillment of certain conditions. Shares in a company, listed securities or units of the Unit Trust of India or units of a mutual fund specified under section 10(23D) of the Act or Zero-Coupons bonds will be considered as long term capital assets if they are held for a period exceeding 12 months. Consequently, capital gains arising on sale of these assets held for more than 12 months are considered as “long term capital gains”. Capital gains arising on sale of these assets held for 12 months or less are considered as “short term capital gains”.
- 2.2.2 Section 48 of the Act, which prescribes the mode of computation of capital gains, provides for deduction of cost of acquisition / improvement and expenses incurred in connection with the transfer of a capital asset, from the sale consideration to arrive at the amount of capital gains. However, in respect of long term capital gains, it offers a benefit by permitting substitution of cost of acquisition / improvement with the indexed cost of acquisition / improvement, which adjusts the cost of acquisition / improvement by a cost inflation index as prescribed from time to time.
- 2.2.3 As per the provisions of Section 112 of the Act, long term gains as computed above that are not exempt under section 10(38) of the Act would be subject to tax at a rate of 20 percent (plus applicable surcharge and education cess). However, as per the proviso to Section 112(1), if the tax on long term capital gains resulting on transfer of listed securities or Units or Zero-Coupons bonds, calculated at the rate of 20 percent with indexation benefit exceeds the tax on long term gains computed at the rate of 10 percent without indexation benefit, then such gains are chargeable to tax at a concessional rate of 10 percent (plus applicable surcharge and education cess).
- 2.2.4 As per the provisions of section 111A of the Act, short-term capital gains on sale of equity shares where the transaction of sale is chargeable to STT shall be subject to tax at a rate of 15 per cent (plus applicable surcharge and education cess).

2.2.5 Exemption of capital gain from income tax

- According to section 10(38) of the Act, long-term capital gains on sale of equity shares where the transaction of sale is chargeable to STT shall be exempt from tax.
- According to the provisions of section 54EC of the Act and subject to the conditions specified therein, capital gains not exempt under section 10(38) and arising on transfer of a long term capital asset shall not be chargeable to tax to the extent such capital gains are invested in certain notified bonds within six months from the date of transfer. However, if the said bonds are transferred or converted into money within a period of three years from the date of their acquisition, the amount of capital gains exempted earlier would become chargeable to tax as long term capital gains in the year in which the bonds are transferred or converted into money. Deduction under section 54EC of the Act is restricted to Rs. 50 lacs during any financial year. Where the benefit of section 54EC has been availed of on investments in the notified bonds, a deduction from the income with reference to such cost shall not be allowed under section 80C of the Act [applicable to individuals and Hindu Undivided Families (HUFs)].
- According to the provisions of section 54F of the Act and subject to the conditions specified therein, in the case of an individual or a Hindu Undivided Family ('HUF'), gains arising on transfer of a long term capital asset (not being a residential house), other than gains exempt under section 10(38), are not chargeable to tax if the entire net consideration received on such transfer is invested within the prescribed period in a residential house. If part of such net consideration is invested within the prescribed period in a residential house, then such gains would not be chargeable to tax on a proportionate basis. For this purpose, net consideration means full value of the consideration received or accruing as a result of the transfer of the capital asset as reduced by any expenditure incurred wholly and exclusively in connection with such transfer. Dividends (whether interim or final) declared, distributed or paid by the Company are exempt in the hands of shareholders as per the provisions of Section 10(34) of the Act.

4.2 Computation of capital gains

- 4.2.1 Capital assets may be categorised into short term capital assets and long term capital assets based on the period of holding. Shares in a company, listed securities or units of the Unit Trust of India or units of a mutual fund specified under section 10(23D) of the Act or Zero-Coupons bonds will be considered as long term capital assets if they are held for a period exceeding 12 months. Consequently, capital gains arising on sale of these assets held for more than 12 months are considered as “long term capital gains”. Capital gains arising on sale of these assets held for 12 months or less are considered as “short term capital gains”.
- 4.2.2 Section 48 of the Act contains special provisions in relation to computation of capital gains on transfer of an Indian company’s shares by non-residents. Computation of capital gains arising on transfer of shares in case of non-residents has to be done in the original foreign currency, which was used to acquire the shares. The capital gain (i.e., sale proceeds less cost of acquisition/ improvement) computed in the original foreign currency is then converted into Indian Rupees at the prevailing rate of exchange.
- 4.2.3 In case investment is made in Indian rupees, the long-term capital gain is to be computed after indexing the cost. As per the provisions of Section 112 of the Act, long term gains as computed above that are not exempt under section 10(38) of the Act would be subject to tax at a rate of 20 percent (plus applicable surcharge and education cess). However, as per the proviso to Section 112(1), if the tax on long term capital gains resulting on transfer of listed securities or Units or Zero-Coupons bonds, calculated at the rate of 20 percent with indexation benefit exceeds the tax on long-term gains computed at the rate of 10 percent without indexation benefit, then such gains are chargeable to tax at a concessional rate of 10 percent (plus applicable surcharge and education cess).

4.2.4 As per the provisions of section 111A of the Act, short-term capital gains on sale of equity shares, where the transaction of sale is chargeable to STT, shall be subject to tax at a rate of 15 per cent (plus applicable surcharge and education cess).

4.2.5 Exemption of capital gain from income tax

- According to section 10(38) of the Act, long-term capital gains on sale of equity shares where the transaction of sale is chargeable to STT shall be exempt from tax.
- According to the provisions of section 54EC of the Act and subject to the conditions specified therein, capital gains not exempt under section 10(38) and arising to the assessee on transfer of a long term capital asset shall not be chargeable to tax to the extent such capital gains are invested in certain notified bonds within six months from the date of transfer. Deduction under section 54EC of the Act is restricted to Rs. 50 lacs during any financial year. However, if the assessee transfers or converts the notified bonds into money within a period of three years from the date of their acquisition, the amount of capital gains exempted earlier would become chargeable to tax as long term capital gains in the year in which the bonds are transferred or converted into money.

Where the benefit of section 54EC has been availed of on investments in the notified bonds, a deduction from the income with reference to such cost shall not be allowed under section 80C of the Act (applicable to individuals).

- According to the provisions of section 54F of the Act and subject to the conditions specified therein, in the case of an individual or a HUF, gains arising on transfer of a long term capital asset (not being a residential house), other than gains exempt under section 10(38), are not chargeable to tax if the entire net consideration received on such transfer is invested within the prescribed period in a residential house. If part of such net consideration is invested within the prescribed period in a residential house, then such gains would not be chargeable to tax on a proportionate basis. For this purpose, net consideration means full value of the consideration received or accrued as a result of the transfer of the capital asset as reduced by any expenditure incurred wholly and exclusively in connection with such transfer. If the specified conditions prescribed in section 54F of the Act are not followed, then, the exemption claimed will be revoked and the gains so exempted will be taxable as long term capital gains in the year in which default is committed.

4.3 Where the gains are offered to tax as 'Profits and gains of Business or profession' by the shareholder, then, STT paid by the shareholder on such transaction would be considered as deduction against such Business Income under section 36(1)(xv) of the Act.

5. Benefits available to Foreign Institutional Investors ('FIIs')

5.1 Dividends exempt under section 10(34)

Dividends (whether interim or final) declared, distributed or paid by the Company are exempt in the hands of shareholders as per the provisions of section 10(34) of the Act.

5.2 Taxability of capital gains

As per the provisions of section 115AD of the Act, FIIs will be taxed on the capital gains that are not exempt under section 10(38) of the Act at the following rates:

Nature of income	Rate of tax (%)
Long term capital gains	10
Short term capital gains	30

The above tax rates would be increased by the applicable surcharge and education cess. The benefits of indexation and foreign currency fluctuation protection as provided by Section 48 of the Act are not available to an FII.

According to Section 111A of the Act, short-term capital gains on sale of equity shares where the transaction of sale is chargeable to STT shall be subject to tax at a rate of 15% per cent (plus applicable surcharge and education cess).

5.3 Exemption of capital gain from income tax

According to section 10(38) of the Act, long-term capital gains on sale of shares where the transaction of sale is chargeable to STT shall be exempt from tax.

6. Benefits available to Mutual Funds

As per the provisions of Section 10(23D) of the Act, any income of Mutual Funds registered under the Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 or Regulations made thereunder, Mutual Funds set up by public sector banks or public financial institutions and Mutual Funds authorised by the Reserve Bank of India would be exempt from income tax, subject to the conditions as the Central Government may by notification in the Official Gazette specify in this behalf.

7. Tax Treaty benefits

An investor has an option to be governed by the provisions of the Act or the provisions of a Tax Treaty that India has entered into with another country of which the investor is a tax resident, whichever is more beneficial.

8. Benefits available under the Wealth-tax Act, 1957

Asset as defined under Section 2(ea) of the Wealth tax Act, 1957 does not include shares in companies and hence, shares are not liable to wealth tax.

9. Benefits available under the Gift-tax Act, 1958

Gift tax is not leviable in respect of any gifts made on or after October 1, 1998. Therefore, any gift of shares will not attract gift tax.

10. The above Statement of Possible Direct Tax Benefits sets out the provisions of law in a summary manner only and is not a complete analysis or listing of all potential tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposal of equity shares. The statements made above are based on the tax laws in force and as interpreted by the relevant taxation authorities as of date. Investors are advised to consult their tax advisors with respect to the tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposal of equity shares.

Overview of the Indian Economy

India is the fifth largest economy in the world after the European Union, United States of America, China and Japan in purchasing power parity terms with an estimated GDP (purchasing power parity) of US$ 3.68 trillion in 2009. India is also among the fastest growing economies globally and has grown at an average rate of more than 7.0% since 1997. An industrial slowdown early in 2008, followed by the global financial crisis, led annual GDP growth to slow to 6.5% in 2009, still the second highest growth in the world among major economies (Source: CIA World Factbook website). India escaped the brunt of the global financial crisis because of cautious banking policies and a relatively low dependence on exports for growth. According to the revised estimates of the Central Statistical Organisation (CSO) India's GDP grew at a rate of 7.4% in the fiscal year 2010.

The following table presents a comparison of India's real GDP growth rate with the real GDP growth rate of certain other countries:

Countries	2007*	2008*	2009*
Australia	4.8%	2.3%	1.3%

Investment in India has, remained relatively stable despite the global slowdown and has been growing at a rate higher than that of GDP. There has been upward trend in the growth of the private investment. The recovery was broad based with mining and quarrying, manufacturing, and electricity, gas and water supply recording impressive growth rates. (Source: Ministry of Finance: Economic Survey, 2009-10)

India's ability to recover from the global slowdown and its own domestic liquidity crunch has been driven by the country's large domestic savings (including corporate retained earnings) and private consumption. Further, the GoI's fiscal policies and the monetary policies of the Reserve Bank of India have also played an important role in the revival of economic growth. In particular, the GoI as part of its fiscal stimulus package took the following initiatives to promote consumption in the economy: (i) increased GoI expenditure especially on infrastructure; and (ii) reduced taxes to spur consumption. The RBI has also taken various other steps to stimulate the economy including by (a) reducing the cash reserve ratio (CRR) to 6.00%; (b) maintaining the statutory liquidity ratio (SLR) at 25.00%; (c) reducing the repo rate to 6.25%; and (d) reducing the reverse repo rate to 5.35%. (Source: RBI)

A strong recovery in the industrial sector combined with a resilient services sector muted the impact of a deficient South-West monsoon on overall output. The contribution of the industrial sector to the overall growth increased sharply from 9.5% in 2008-2009 to 28.0% in 2009-2010. (Source: RBI, 2009-2010 Annual Report)

The Indian economy witnessed robust recovery in growth in the last quarter of fiscal 2010. Most of the business expectation surveys suggest continuation of the growth momentum in fiscal 2011. The Industrial Outlook Survey of the Reserve Bank indicates further improvement in several parameters of the business environment for the three months ended September 30, 2010 quarter. The Professional Forecasters' Survey conducted by the Reserve Bank in June 2010 places overall (median) GDP growth rate for fiscal 2011 at 8.4%, higher than 8.2% reported in the previous round of the survey. Organization of the Power Industry in India

The following diagram depicts the current structure of the Indian power industry:

Overview of Indian Power Industry

India has continuously experienced shortages in energy and peak power requirements. According to the Monthly Review of the Power Section ("Monthly Review") published by the CEA in October 2010, the total energy deficit and peak power deficit during April 2010 to October 2010 was approximately 9.2% and 10.1%, respectively.

The shortages in energy and peak power have been primarily due to the sluggish progress in capacity addition. During the 10th Five Year Plan (fiscal 2002 to fiscal 2007), capacity addition achieved compared to target capacity addition was 51.5%. During the 11th Five Year Plan (fiscal 2008 to fiscal 2012), capacity addition achieved was 9,263 MW or 56.7% of target capacity addition of 16,335 MW in fiscal 2008, while in fiscal 2009, capacity addition achieved was 3,454 MW, or 31.2% of target capacity addition of 11,061 MW, while in fiscal 2010, capacity addition achieved was 9,585 MW, or 66.1% of target capacity addition of 14,507 MW. According to the Monthly Review (October 2010), the total installed power generation capacity in India was 167278.36 MW as of August 31, 2010.

Power Consumption

The per capita consumption of power in India has grown from 566.7 kWh/year in fiscal 2003 to 733.5 kWh/year in fiscal 2009, at a CAGR of 4.39% (Source: Monthly Review (July 2010)). The following table sets forth information relating to India's per capital consumption of power for the periods indicated:

Year	Per Capita Consumption (kWh)
2002-03	566.7
2003-04	592.0
2004-05	612.5
2005-06	631.5
2006-07	671.9
2007-08	717.1
2008-09	733.5

(Source: Monthly Review (October 2010))

The total energy consumption in India is estimated to grow from 566 Mtoe in 2006 to 1280 Mtoe in 2030. (Source: World Economic Outlook 2008, IEA). This implies growth at a CAGR of 3.5% CAGR in India's energy requirement over the next 25-30 years and hence, there is a huge potential for investments in the energy sector in India.

The GoI has set a goal of 1,000 kWh per capita by fiscal 2012 in its mission of “Power for All by 2012” under the National Electricity Policy.

According to the CIA Factbook, India is sixth largest consumer of electricity in the world after the United States, China, European Union, Russia and Japan with an estimated 568 billion kWh in total electricity generated plus imports and minus exports in 2007.

Power Demand-Supply Overview

The Indian power sector has historically been beset by energy shortages which have been rising over the years. In fiscal 2010, peak energy deficit was 12.7% and total energy deficit was 10.1%. The following table provides the peak and normative shortages of power in India from fiscal year 2003 to June 2010:

	Peak Demand (MW)	Peak Met (MW)	Peak Deficit/ Surplus (MW)	Peak Deficit/ Surplus (%)	Power Requirement (MU)	Power Availability (MU)	Power Deficit/ Surplus (MU)	Power Deficit/ Surplus (%)

(Source: Power Scenario at a Glance, November 2010)

The deficits in electric energy and peak power requirements vary across different regions in India. The peak deficit was 17.2% in the Western Region, followed by 18.5% in the North Eastern Region in the period from April to October 2010. The deficit is a result of the slow development progress of additional power generation capacity in those areas.

The following table outlines the peak and normative power shortages in India in fiscal year 2010 across the regions of India:

Demand Projections

According to the Integrated Energy Policy (“IEP”) report dated August 2006 issued by the Planning Commission, India would require additional capacity of about 220-233 gigawatt (“GW”) by 2012, 306-337 GW by 2017 and 425-488 GW by 2022, respectively, based on normative parameters in order to maintain a 8-9% GDP growth rate (Source: GoI, "Integrated Energy Policy, Report of the Expert Committee", August 2006, available at http://planningcommission.gov.in/reports/genrep/rep_intengy.pdf).

The table below lays out the additional capacity needed by 2012, 2017 and 2022 under different GDP growth rate scenarios:

	Assumed GDP Growth (%)	Electricity Generation required (BU)	Peak Demand (GW)	Installed Capacity (GW)	Capacity Addition Required (GW)*
By fiscal 2012	8.0	1,097	158	220	71
By fiscal 2017	9.0	1,167	168	233	84
By fiscal 2022	8.0	1,524	226	306	157
By fiscal 2022	9.0	1,687	250	337	188
By fiscal 2022	8.0	2,118	323	425	276
By fiscal 2022	9.0	2,438	372	488	339

Historical Capacity Additions

The energy deficit in India is a result of insufficient progress in the development of additional energy capacity. The Indian economy is based on planning through successive five year plans (“Five-Year Plans”) that set out targets for economic development in various sectors, including the power sector. In the last three Five-Year Plans (the Eighth, Ninth, and Tenth Five-Year Plans, covering fiscal years 1992 to 2007), less than 55% of the targeted additional energy capacity level was added. According to the White Paper on Strategy for Eleventh Plan, prepared by CEA and Confederation of Indian Industry, August 2007 (the “White Paper”), India added an average of approximately 20,000 MW to its energy capacity in each of the 9th and 10th Five-Year Plan periods (fiscal years 1997 to 2002 and 2002 to 2007).

The following table sets forth the targeted energy capacity addition, the installed capacity actually achieved at the end of those fiscal year and the installed capacity actually achieved as a percentage of the targeted capacity additions for each of those fiscal years:

Five-Year Plan/Year	Target (MW)	Achievement (MW)	Achievement (% of MW)
10th Plan	39258.72	21,094.6	53.7%
FY 2008	16,335	9,263	56.7%
FY 2009	11,061	3,454	31.2%
FY 2010	14,507	9,585	66.1%
October 2010	21441.2	7020.0	32.7

(Source: CEA, October, 2010 Monthly Review)

The total capacity addition during the past 25 years between the 6th and the 10th Five-Year Plans was approximately 91,000 MW. A total capacity addition of 78,700 MW is planned for the 11th Five-Year Plan which should result in significant investments in the power generation sector.

Installed Generation Capacity

The following table sets forth a summary of India's energy generation capacity as of October 31, 2010 in terms of fuel source and ownership:

Sector	Thermal	Nuclear	Hydro	RES*	Total
Central	38,622.23	4,560.00	8,685.40	0.00	51,867.63
State	52,186.73	0.00	27,218.00	2,822.32	82,227.05
Private	17,794.02	0.00	1,425.00	13,964.66	33,183.68
TOTAL	108,602.98	4,560.00	37,328.40	16,786.98	167,278.36

*RES = Renewable energy sources

(Source: CEA, Monthly Review (October 2010))

The private sector has historically been hesitant to enter into the market for power plants because of onerous governmental regulations on the construction and operation of power plants and sourcing of fuel for such plants. The participation of the private sector has, however, been increasing over time, thanks to some key power sector reforms.

Future Capacity Additions

The proposed capacity addition during the 11th Five-Year Plan is 78,700.4 MW according to Monthly Review (October 2010), published by CEA.

	Thermal	Nuclear	Hydro	Total
Central	24,840	3,380	8,654	36,874
State	23,301	0.00	3,482	26,783
Private	11,552	0.00	3,491	15,043
TOTAL	59,693	3,380	15,627	78,700

(Source: CEA, Monthly Review (October 2010))

This represents a growth in capacity of 9.8% per annum during the 11th Plan period. According to the White Paper, the total fund requirement has been assessed to ₹ 10.32 trillion.

Planned Expansion

The aim for the 11th Plan i.e. by 2012 is a capacity addition of 15,000 MW from renewables. By the end of the 11th Plan, renewable power capacity could be 25,000 MW in a total capacity of 2,00,000 MW accounting for 12.5% and contributing around 5% to the electricity mix. A capacity addition of around 30,000MW is envisaged for the 12th and 13th Plans. Renewable power capacity by the end of the 13th plan period i.e. by 2022 is likely to reach 54,000 MW, comprising 40,000 MW wind power, 6,500 MW small hydro power and 7,500 MW bio-power, which would correspond to a share of 5% in the then electricity-mix. (Source: 11th Five Year Plan MNRE)

Investments in generation

The total fund requirement for generation projects, during the Twelfth Plan period is estimated at approximately ₹ 4,950,830 million, with approximately ₹ 1,266,490 million being required for the hydro sector, approximately ₹ 3,306,680 million being required for the thermal sector and approximately ₹ 377,660 million being required for the nuclear sector. (Source: Base Paper, International Conclave on Key Inputs for Accelerated Development of Indian Power Sector for Twelfth Plan and Beyond, 18-19 August 2009, MoP and CEA)

Capacity Utilisation

Capacity utilization in the Indian power sector is measured by the plant load factor (“PLF”) of generating plants.

Coal

The average PLF for coal-fired plants in India has increased from 69.0% in the fiscal year 2001 to 76.65% in the fiscal year 2010. The following table sets forth the average PLF for coal-fired plants in India:

Fiscal Year	Central	State	Private	Overall
2001	74.3	65.6	73.1	69.0
2002	74.3	67.0	74.7	69.9
2003	77.1	68.7	78.9	72.1
2004	78.7	68.4	80.5	72.7
2005	81.7	69.6	85.1	74.8
2006	82.1	67.1	85.4	73.6
2007	84.8	70.6	86.3	76.8
2008	86.7	71.9	90.8	78.6
2009	84.3	71.2	91.0	77.2
2010*	84.13	69.72	84.43	76.65

Source: MoP, 2009-2010 Annual Report

* Up to January, 2010

PLF varies significantly across ownership segments. According to the MoP, 2008-2010 Annual Report, coal-fired generating plants owned by the state electricity boards (“SEBs”) operated at an average PLF of around 69.72% as of January 31, 2010, while those owned by private companies operated at an average PLF of 84.43%. The average PLF of central public sector undertakings (“CPSUs”) was 84.13% during the same period.

Renewable Power

Power from renewable energy sources such as wind, biomass, small hydro and solar energy is being generated for meeting the electricity requirements in different locations across the country. 15,691 MW grid power from renewable sources of power has been installed up to December 31, 2009. In addition, renewable energy sources are being utilised for off-grid power generation to meet electricity requirements at decentralised locations. Renewable power projects based on wind power, biomass, small hydro and solar are mainly private investment driven with favorable tariff policy regimes established by State Electricity Regulatory Commissions (SERC), and almost all-renewable power capacity addition during the year has come through this route. (Source: Annual Report 2009-10 MNRE)

Wind Power

Wind energy, today, has emerged as the most promising renewable energy technology for generating grid connected power amongst various renewable energy sources. A total capacity of 10,925 MW has been established up to December, 2009 in the country. India is now the fifth largest wind power producer in the world, after USA, Germany, Spain and China. The on shore wind power potential has been estimated at about 48,500 MW, assuming 1% land availability in potential areas for setting up wind farms @12 ha/MW in sites having wind power density greater than 200 W/sq.m at 50 m height. (Source: Annual Report 2009-10 MNRE)

Biomass

The current potential for power generation from surplus agro and forestry residues is estimated at 16,000 MW. With progressive higher steam parameters and efficient project configuration in new sugar mills and modernization of existing ones, the potential of surplus power generation through bagasse cogeneration in sugar mills is estimated at 5000 MW. Thus the total estimated biomass power potential is approximately 21,000 MW. Between April and December 2009, biomass power and bagasse cogeneration capacity addition of 384 MW (125 MW biomass projects and 259 MW bagasse cogeneration) has been achieved in the States of Andhra Pradesh, Chhattisgarh, Karnataka, Maharashtra, Punjab, Tamil Nadu, Uttar Pradesh and West Bengal against a target of 400 MW. Current trends indicate that it is likely that a total capacity of 450 MW would be added during fiscal 2009. The cumulative biomass power and cogeneration based power capacity has reached approximately 2,136 MW which comprises of 829 MW of biomass power projects and 1307 MW of bagasse cogeneration projects. Power Transmission and Distribution

In India, the transmission and distribution system is a three-tier structure comprised of regional grids, state grids and distribution networks. The five regional grids, configured on a geographical contiguity basis, enable transfer of power from a power surplus state to a power deficit state. The regional grids also facilitate the optimal scheduling of maintenance outages and better co-ordination between power plants. These regional grids are to be gradually integrated to form a national grid, whereby surplus power from a region could be redirected to another region facing power deficits, thereby allowing a more optimal utilization of the national generating capacity.

Most inter-regional and interstate transmission links are owned and operated by Power Grid though some are jointly owned by the State Electricity Boards (“SEBs”). Power Grid is the central transmission utility of India and holds one of the largest transmission networks in the world. Power Grid has a pan-India network presence of approximately 79,556 circuit kms of transmission network (as of December 1, 2010), 132 substations (as of September 30, 2010), and a total transformation capacity of 89,170 mega volt ampere (as of December 1, 2010). As of December 1, 2010, approximately 51% of the entire generating capacity in India is sent through Power Grid's system. (Source: <http://powermin.nic.in> and <http://powergridindia.com>).

Power Grid is pursuing the establishment of an integrated national power grid, in a phased approach, in order to fortify the regional grids and to support the generation capacity addition program of about 78,577 MW during the Eleventh Five-Year Plan period. The existing inter-regional power transfer capacity of 17,000 MW is expected to be boosted to 37,000 MW by 2012 through the use of “Transmission Super Highways”. (Source: <http://powergridindia.com>) According to the White Paper, the total fund requirement has been assessed to ₹ 10.32 trillion.

State grids and distribution networks are mostly owned and operated by the respective SEBs or state governments (through state electricity departments). A direct consequence of the high AT&C losses is the inadequate financial condition of SEBs, thereby holding back the SEBs from making any meaningful investments in generation and in modernizing the transmission and distribution network.

Investments in generation, transmission and distribution

The total fund requirement for transmission system development and related schemes during the Twelfth Plan period is estimated at ₹ 2,400,000 million, with ₹ 1,400,000 million being required for the central sector and ₹ 1,000,000 million being required for the state sector. (Source: Base Paper, International Conclave on Key Inputs for Accelerated Development of Indian Power Sector for Twelfth Plan and Beyond, 18-19 August 2009, MoP and CEA)

The total fund requirement for the distribution sector, during the Twelfth Plan period is estimated at ₹ 3,710,000 million. (Source: Base Paper, International Conclave on Key Inputs for Accelerated Development of Indian Power Sector for Twelfth Plan and Beyond, 18-19 August 2009, MoP and CEA).

Power Trading

Historically the main suppliers and consumers of bulk power in India have been the various government controlled generation and distribution companies who usually contracted power on a long-term basis through power purchase agreements (“PPAs”) with regulated tariffs. However, in order to encourage the entry of merchant power plants and private sector investment in the power sector, the Electricity Act recognized power trading as a separate activity from generation and has facilitated the development of a trading market for electricity in India by allowing for open access to transmission networks for normative charges. Power trading involves the exchange of power from suppliers with surplus to those with deficit. Seasonal diversity in generation and demand, as well as the concentration of power generation facilities in the resources rich eastern region of India, have created significant opportunities for the trading of power. Recent regulatory developments include the announcement of rules and provisions for open access and licensing related to interstate trading in electricity. Several entities have started trading operations or made application for trading licenses. With the help of the reforms, the volume of power traded as well as its traded price has increased rapidly over the last few years.

Tariffs

The main objectives of the National Tariff Policy (“NTP”) notified by the GoI on January 6, 2006, include promoting competition, efficiency in operations and improvements in the quality of power supply and ensuring the accessibility of electricity to consumers at reasonable and market-competitive rates. The NTP reiterates the importance of implementing competition in different segments of the electricity industry as highlighted in the Electricity Act and that competition will lead to significant benefits to consumers through reduction in capital costs and improved efficiency of operations. It will also facilitate the shaping of price through competition.

The NTP stipulates that all future power requirements should be procured competitively by distribution licensees except in cases of expansion of pre-existing projects or where there is a state-controlled or state-owned developer involved, in which case, regulators must resort to tariffs set by reference to standards of the CERC, provided that expansion of generating capacity by private developers for this purpose will be restricted to a one time addition of not more than 50% of the existing capacity. Under the NTP, even for public sector projects, tariffs for all new generation and transmission projects will be decided on the basis of competitive bidding after a certain time period.

Merchant Power Plants

Merchant power plants (“MPPs”) generate electricity for sale at market-driven rates in the open wholesale market. Typically, the MPPs do not have long-term PPAs and are constructed and owned by private developers. Merchant sales, however, include the sale of power under short-term PPAs and on-spot basis. Many private sector newcomers are starting to adopt the MPP model for their projects to generate higher returns as opposed to selling power through a long term PPA, as the off-take risk is seen to be low in light of significant power shortages in the country. The MPPs can sell power to the power trading companies (like the PTC India Ltd and Tata Power Trading Company), the SEBs and industrial and bulk customers.

Captive Power Generation

Another segment of power generation in India is the captive power segment. Captive power refers to power generation from a project established for industrial consumption. According to Monthly Review of Power Sector, August 2010 (CEA), captive power capacity, at 19,509 MW, accounted for 11.86% of the 164,508.80 MW of total installed capacity in India. The dependence on captive power has been rising, due to the continuing shortage of power and India's sustained economic growth.

The Electricity Act 2003 provided further incentives to captive power generation companies to grow by making them exempt from licensing requirements. This has resulted in an increase in captive power capacity. Reliability of power supply and better economics are other variables pushing industries to develop captive generation plants.

Indian Energy Exchange

Indian Energy Exchange (“IEX”) is India's first nation-wide automated and online electricity trading platform. IEX seeks to catalyze the modernization of electricity trade in India by allowing trading through a technology-enabled platform. On June 9, 2008, IEX received Central Electricity Regulatory Commission approval to begin operations. IEX is a demutualised exchange that will enable efficient price discovery and price risk management in the power trading market. IEX offers a broader choice to generators and distribution licensees for sale and purchase of power facilitating trade in smaller quantities. IEX enables participants to precisely adjust their portfolio as a function of consumption or generation. The total volume of power traded on IEX amounted to 1,089.46 million units in October, 2010 (Source: http://www.cercind.gov.in/2010/MMC/MMC_Monthly_Report_Oct_2010.pdf).

Power Exchange India Limited

Power Exchange India Limited (“PXIL”) is a fully electronic, nation-wide exchange for trading of electricity. It has been promoted by two of India's leading Exchanges, National Stock Exchange of India Ltd (NSE) & National Commodities & Derivatives Exchange Ltd (NCDEX). PXIL received regulatory approval from Central Electricity Regulatory Authority (CERC) on September 30, 2008 to begin operations and PXIL successfully began its operations on October 22, 2008. The total volume of power traded on PXIL amounted to 112.32 million units in October, 2010 (Source: http://www.cercind.gov.in/2010/MMC/MMC_Monthly_Report_Oct_2010.pdf).

PROVIDERS OF FINANCE TO THE POWER SECTOR IN INDIA

The primary providers of power sector financing in India are power sector specific government companies, financing institutions, public sector banks and other public sector institutions, multilateral development institutions and private banks.

Power-Sector Specific Government Companies

Besides our Company, the other sector-specific companies engaged in power sector financing are as follows:

Power Finance Corporation Limited

In order to provide funds for the power projects in India and to act as developmental financial institution for the power sector in India, PFC was incorporated on July 16, 1986. PFC is a Public Sector Undertaking and its main objective is to raise resources from international and domestic sources at competitive rates and terms and conditions and on-ward lend these funds on optimum basis to the power projects in India. PFC has been actively persuading State Governments to initiate reform and restructuring of their power sector in order to make them commercially viable and in this regard, is providing financial assistance to reform-minded States under relaxed lending criteria/exposure limit norms. It is also providing funds based services like Term Loans, Equipment Leasing, Bill Discounting, Buyers Line of Credit and also non funds based services like Guarantee Services and Consultancy Services.

Rural Electrification Corporation

The Rural Electrification Corporation (“REC”) was incorporated on July 25, 1969 under the Companies Act. REC is a wholly owned Government enterprise and its main objective is to finance and promote rural electrification projects throughout India. It provides financial assistance to SEBs, state government departments and rural electric cooperatives for rural electrification projects. REC also promotes and finances rural electricity cooperatives; administers funds and grants from the GoI and other sources for financing rural electrification; provides consultancy services and project implementation in related fields; finances and executes small, mini and micro generation projects; and develops other energy sources.

Indian Renewable Energy Development Agency Limited

The Indian Renewable Energy Development Agency Limited (“IREDA”) was incorporated on March 11, 1987 as a public sector NBFC under the administration of the Ministry of Non-Conventional Energy Sources with the objective of promoting, developing and extending financial assistance for renewable energy and energy efficiency, and energy conservation projects. IREDA plays a key role in the development of renewable energy in India.

Financial Institutions

Financial institutions were established to provide medium-term and long-term financial assistance to various industries for setting up new projects and for the expansion and modernization of existing facilities. These institutions provide fund based and non-fund based assistance in the form of loans, underwriting, direct subscription to shares, debentures and guarantees. The primary long-term lending institutions include IDFC Limited, IIFC Limited, IFCI Limited, and Industrial Investment Bank of India Limited and Small Industries Development Bank of India.

State Level Financial Institutions

State financial corporations operate at the state level and form an integral part of the institutional financing system. State financial corporations were set up to finance and promote small and medium-sized enterprises. At the state level, there are also state industrial development corporations, which provide finance primarily to medium-sized and large-sized enterprises.

Public Sector Banks and other Public Sector Institutions

Public sector banks make up the largest category of banks in the Indian banking system. The primary public sector banks providing finance to the power sector include the IDBI Bank Limited, State Bank of India Limited, Punjab National Bank and the Bank of Baroda. Other public sector entities such as the Life Insurance Corporation of India, India Infrastructure Finance Company Limited, etc. are also providing financing to the power sector.

Private Sector Banks

After the first phase of bank nationalization was completed in 1969 the majority of Indian banks were public sector banks. Some of the existing private sector banks, which showed signs of an eventual default, were merged with state owned banks. In July 1993, as part of the banking reform process and as a measure to induce competition in the banking sector, the RBI permitted entry by the private sector into the banking system. This resulted in the introduction of nine private sector banks. These banks are collectively known as the "new" private sector banks. These institutions also provide fund based and non-fund based assistance in the form of loans, underwriting, direct subscription to shares, debentures and guarantees and also compete in the power sector.

Infrastructure Finance Companies

IFCs are a new category of infrastructure funding entities introduced by the RBI in February 2010. Non-deposit taking NBFCs which satisfy the following conditions are eligible to apply to the RBI and seek the IFC status:

- a minimum of 75.0% of its assets deployed in infrastructure loans;
- net owned funds of at least ₹ 3,000.0 million;
- minimum credit rating 'A' or equivalent of CRISIL, FITCH, CARE, ICRA or equivalent rating by any other accrediting rating agencies; and
- CRAR of 15.0% (with a minimum Tier I capital of 10.0%).

IFCs enjoy benefits including a lower risk weight on their bank borrowings (from a flat 100.0% to as low as 20.0% for AAA-rated borrowers), higher permissible bank borrowing (up to 20.0% of the bank's net worth as against 15% for an NBFC that is not an IFC), access to external commercial borrowings (up to 50.0% of owned funds on an automatic basis) and relaxation in their single party and group exposure norms. IFCs are also eligible for issuance of infrastructure bonds. These benefits should enable a highly rated IFC to raise more funds, of longer tenors and at lower costs, and in turn lend more to infrastructure companies.

International Development Financial Institutions

International development financial institutions are supportive of power sector reform and of more general economic reforms aimed at mobilizing investment and increasing energy efficiency. The primary international development financial institutions involved in power sector lending in India include several international banking institutions such as Japan Bank for International Cooperation, Kreditanstalt für Wiederaufbau, the World Bank, the Asian Development Bank and the International Finance Corporation.

In the early 1990s, the World Bank decided to finance mainly projects in states that “demonstrate a commitment to implement a comprehensive reform of their power sector, privatize distribution, and facilitate private participation in generation and environment reforms”. Recent loans from the World Bank have gone to support the restructuring of SEBs. In general, the loans are for rehabilitation and capacity increase of the transmission and distribution systems, and for improvements in metering the power systems in states that have agreed to reform their power sector.

The overall strategy of the Asian Development Bank for the power sector is to support restructuring, especially the promotion of competition and private sector participation. Like the World Bank, the ADB also provides loans for restructuring the power sector in the states and improving transmission and distribution.

Other Provisions for Power Sector Finance

There also exist several short term and long-term financing measures by the GoI to facilitate the financial viability of the power sector, such as the implementation of the Electricity Act. As a long-term financing measure, the process has been initiated for institutionalizing mechanism for facilitating and accelerating private and foreign direct investment into the power sector.

OUR BUSINESS

We are an Indian non-banking financial institution promoted by PTC India Limited ("PTC") to make principal investments in, and provide financing solutions for, companies with projects across the energy value chain. We believe we are one of the few financial institutions in India that provide both equity and debt financing, including short-term and long-term debt, as well as structured debt financing. With a focus on infrastructure development, we offer an integrated suite of services including provision financing to, and make investments in, private sector Indian companies in the power sector, including for power generation, equipment supply and fuel source projects. We are currently focused primarily on power generation projects in India. We also provide fee-based syndication and advisory services as well as carbon credit financing against certified emissions reduction (CER).

We are regulated by the Reserve Bank of India (the "RBI") as a systemically important non-deposit taking, non-banking financial company ("NBFC"), and we have been classified by the RBI as an Infrastructure Finance Company, or IFC, in August 2010. The IFC status enhances our ability to raise funds on a cost-competitive basis and enables us to assume higher debt exposure in infrastructure projects. For further information, see the section entitled "Regulations and Policies" on page 118.

We are a subsidiary of and promoted by PTC, which is the market leader for power trading solutions in India, according to the Central Electricity Regulatory Commission monthly report on short term transactions of electricity (December 2010). PTC purchases power primarily for sale to power utilities and also provides comprehensive solutions for the power sector in India. As of December 31, 2010, PTC had a portfolio of power purchase agreements aggregating to approximately 14,185 MW and memoranda of understandings for an additional approximately 13,243 MW. PTC is a GoI initiated company promoted by National Thermal Power Corporation ("NTPC"), Power Grid Corporation of India Limited ("Power Grid"), Power Finance Corporation Limited ("PFC") and NHPC Limited ("NHPC"). We believe we benefit from the power sector expertise, network and relationships of PTC and its affiliates, which provide us with early access to business opportunities.

We were incorporated in September 2006 and received our certificate for commencement of business in March 2007. As of the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, PTC holds 77.60% of our equity share capital and GS Strategic Investments Limited (an affiliate of The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc.) and Macquarie India Holdings Limited (an affiliate of The Macquarie Group) each hold 11.20% of our equity share capital.

Principal Investments. We make strategic equity investments in companies in the energy value chain in India, including in greenfield and brownfield projects. The nature and extent of our equity participation in such companies vary in accordance with the requirements, opportunities and risks associated with the relevant project, but we generally do not retain management control. As of December 31, 2010, our Board had approved equity commitments for ten companies for an aggregate amount of ₹ 5,641.66 million, with projects aggregating 3,221.45 MW of power generation capacity. Of these equity commitments, as of December 31, 2010, we had entered into definitive agreements for investments in eight companies for an aggregate amount of ₹ 4,827.67 million, with projects aggregating 2,621.45 MW of power generation capacity. All of our principal investments have been in private unlisted companies. As of December 31, 2010, our principal investments aggregated ₹ 4,186.23 million in eight companies including in Indian Energy Exchange Limited ("IEX"), India's first nationwide, automated and online electricity trading platform. Our current portfolio of principal investments are mostly greenfield projects, which typically involve between two and five years of development activity prior to commencement of commercial operations. Three of our principal investment projects, with an aggregate power generation capacity of 175.60 MW, have commenced commercial operation. In September 2010, we liquidated a portion of our investment in IEX for a gain. Further, as of December 31, 2010 our Board had approved funding in the form of optionally convertible debentures aggregating ₹ 385.00 million to two companies. As of December 31, 2010 we had disbursed ₹ 385.00 million, out of which ₹ 340.00 million has been repaid, and ₹ 45.00 million remains outstanding.

Debt Finance. We provide fund based and non-fund based debt financing, including short-term and long-term debt, as well as structured debt financing. In addition to financing project companies, we also provide bridge financing to promoters of power projects. As of December 31, 2010, our Board had approved debt commitments aggregating ₹ 22,567.30 million to 31 companies, with projects aggregating 8,982.20 MW of power generation capacity of these approved debt commitments, as of December 31, 2010, we had entered into definitive agreements for financing arrangements for an aggregate amount of ₹ 11,198.72 million to 17 companies, with power projects aggregating 8,283 MW of power generation capacity. As of December 31, 2010, we had outstanding loan financing of ₹ 5,951.15 million to 13 companies with projects representing 6,794 MW of aggregate power generation capacity. As of December 31, 2010, we did not have any non-performing assets in our outstanding loan portfolio.

Fee-based and other Services. We provide various fee-based services including facility agent and security agent services, as well as advisory services such as techno-economic feasibility studies for power projects in India. In addition, in March 2010 we commenced carbon credit financing, which involves purchase of future CERs from power project developers for sale to third parties.

As of December 31, 2010 our Board had approved funding in form of funding against CERs aggregating ₹ 306.11 million to two companies with projects aggregating 108 MW capacity.

Sources of Funds. Our primary sources of funds include equity, term loans and non-convertible debentures ("NCDs") issued by us. We have issued secured NCDs on a private placement basis in October 2009 and February 2010. As of December 31, 2010, we had ₹ 2,000.00 million in outstanding NCDs and ₹ 2773.69 million in other borrowings. As of December 31, 2010, our NCDs represented 41.90% of our outstanding total indebtedness. Our long-term bank borrowings have been rated "LA+ (positive outlook)" by ICRA, while our NCDs have been rated "LA+ (positive outlook)" by ICRA and "BWR AA" (stable outlook) by Brickwork. Our short-term borrowings have been rated "A1+" by ICRA, which is the highest credit quality rating assigned by ICRA to short term debt instruments. In October 2010, we have also entered into ECB agreement with Deutsche Investitions - UND Entwicklungsgesellschaft MBH ("DEG") for an aggregate amount of US$ 26.00 million (₹ 1165.06 million) for on-lending to renewable energy projects. We have also raised funds through capital contributions from our Promoter and our other shareholders.

In fiscal 2008, 2009 and 2010, and in the nine months ended December 31, 2010, our total income was ₹ 31.38 million, ₹ 116.00 million and ₹ 534.90 million, and ₹ 825.44 million, respectively, and our profit after tax was ₹ 16.41 million, ₹ 85.30 million, ₹ 254.52 million, and ₹ 312.18 million, respectively. We maintain our capital adequacy ratios above the minimum levels of 15.0% prescribed by the RBI for IFCs. Our capital adequacy ratios were 97.90%, 275.36%, 88.30% and 60.57% as of March 31, 2008, 2009 and 2010, and December 31, 2010, respectively.

Competitive Strengths

Composite financial services platform focused on all areas of the energy value chain

We are a one stop solution provider offering a comprehensive range of financial products and services that add value throughout the life cycle of projects across all areas of the energy value chain. We believe this has enabled us to establish ourselves as a preferred financing provider for power projects. We have financed or approved financing arrangements for various projects, including power generation, equipment supply and fuel source projects. We have also invested in India's first nationwide automated and online electricity trading platform. We believe we are one of the few financial institutions in India that provide both equity and debt financing, including short-term and long-term debt as well as structured debt financing, for power projects in India. We also provide fee-based services including syndication services and advisory services such as techno-economic feasibility studies for power projects in India. In addition, in March 2010 we commenced carbon credit financing against CERs.

PTC relationship and brand

We are a subsidiary of and are promoted by PTC, which is the market leader for power trading solutions in India and provides comprehensive solutions for the power sector, according to the Central Electricity Regulatory Commission monthly report on short term transactions of electricity (December 2010). PTC is a GoI initiated company promoted by NTPC, Power Grid, PFC and NHPC. As of December 31, 2010, PTC had a portfolio of power purchase agreements aggregating to approximately 14,185 MW and memoranda of understandings for an additional approximately 13243 MW. PTC together with its affiliates provides comprehensive solutions in the energy value chain including services such as power trading, co-development, fuel-intermediation, consulting and is in the process of setting up an energy equity fund. We believe the synergies among the group entities provide us with early access to potential business opportunities, ability to understand and efficiently cater to the needs of the developers in a comprehensive manner. We believe that PTC is an established brand name in the Indian power sector and we benefit from the associated goodwill.

Strong domain knowledge and expertise with exclusive focus on the power sector

We believe our power sector knowledge and experience enables us to identify investment opportunities with high potential and effectively manage risks associated with such opportunities. We believe our exclusive focus on the power sector has enabled us to develop strong relationships and become a preferred financing provider for power projects, particularly for smaller and medium sized projects, compared to competitors that are not similarly focused on the power sector. Our management team has significant experience in the power sector and the financial services industry, which enables us to identify specific requirements of power project developers and offer structured products and services while effectively managing associated risks and maintaining competitive margins. In addition, we benefit from the industry experience of our Promoter PTC.

Flexibility due to NBFC and IFC status

We believe our status as an NBFC and IFC provide us with greater flexibility than some of our competitors, particularly banks, and enable us to quickly and efficiently capitalize upon financing opportunities that arise. While banks are subject to more stringent regulation in India and may provide only certain forms of debt financing and equity financing subject to certain specified limits, as an NBFC we are able to provide a wider range of debt financing, including structured products, as well as equity financing that is subject to fewer restrictions.

In February 2010 the RBI introduced the IFC category as a separate category for certain NBFCs engaged in infrastructure financing. We were granted IFC status in August 2010 and believe our status as an IFC enhances our ability to raise funds on a cost-competitive basis and take higher debt exposure in power projects than other NBFCs that have not been granted IFC status. For example, an IFC is entitled to lend up to 25.00% of its Owned Funds to a single borrower in the infrastructure sector, compared to 20.00% of Owned Funds by other NBFCs that have not been granted IFC status. As an IFC, we are also eligible to raise ECBs up to 50.00% of our Owned Funds without prior RBI approval. Banks and NBFCs that are not IFCs are required to seek prior RBI approval in order to avail ECBs for on-lending activities. Furthermore, our IFC status enables us to raise capital through issuance of infrastructure bonds at comparatively lower yields, which will enable us to reduce our cost of funds, as infrastructure bondholders are entitled to certain tax benefits. For further information, see the section titled “Regulations and Policies” on page 118.

Demonstrated growth and robust balance sheet

Our business has grown rapidly in recent years, providing us with a robust balance sheet that we believe provides a foundation for future growth. Our total assets, total income and profit after tax grew at a CAGR of 191.54%, 312.86% and 293.86%, respectively, from fiscal 2008 to fiscal 2010. Our total assets as of March 31, 2008, 2009, 2010 and December 31, 2010 was ₹ 1128.33 million, ₹ 6305.46 million, ₹ 9590.37 million and ₹ 11682.92 million, respectively. While total income in fiscal 2008, 2009 and 2010 and in the nine months ended December 31, 2010 was ₹ 31.38 million, ₹ 116.00 million, ₹ 534.90 million and ₹ 825.44 million, respectively, our profit after tax in fiscal 2008, 2009 and 2010 and in the nine months ended December 31, 2010 was ₹ 16.41 million, ₹ 85.30 million, ₹ 254.32 million and ₹ 312.18 million, respectively. We made our first principal investment in IEX in December 2007, investing ₹ 65.00 million for 26.00% shareholding. We have subsequently rapidly expanded our investment portfolio, with outstanding principal investments in eight companies aggregating ₹ 4186.23 million as of December 31, 2010. In September 2010, we liquidated our shareholding in IEX from earlier 26.00% to 21.12% for a consideration of ₹ 135.30 million.

We disbursed our first loan of ₹ 200.00 million in March 2009. Within a relatively short period our loan portfolio has grown significantly, and December 31, 2010, we had outstanding loan financing of ₹ 5,951.15 million to 13 companies with projects representing 6,794 MW of aggregate power generation capacity. As of December 31, 2010, we had entered into definitive agreements for financing arrangements for an aggregate amount of ₹ 11,198.72 million to 17 companies, with power projects representing 8,283 MW of power generation capacity. As of such date, we did not have any non performing assets in our outstanding loan portfolio.

Our capital to risk-weighted asset ratio as of December 31, 2010 was 60.57% and our return on average total assets in fiscal 2010 was 3.20%. Our long-term bank borrowings have been rated “LA+” (positive outlook)” by ICRA, while our NCDs have been rated “LA+ (positive outlook)” by ICRA and “BWR AA” (stable outlook) by Brickwork. Our short-term borrowings have been rated “A1+” by ICRA, which is the highest credit quality rating assigned by ICRA to short term debt instruments.

Nimble management structure

We have a lean employee base and flat management structure. In addition to our senior management team, which includes our two whole time directors, Mr. Tantra Narayan Thakur and Dr. Ashok Haldia, we have a team of experienced professionals with expertise in project finance, principal investment, asset management and advisory services. We believe our corporate culture promotes involved management at all levels in an efficient manner.

Effective risk management framework

We believe we have established an effective risk management framework through the implementation of robust systems and procedures for evaluating and approving debt and equity financing proposals. Prior to commitment of any financial assistance, we undertake extensive techno-economic analysis, financial and legal due diligence of the potential principal investment or debt financing opportunity, either in-house or by appointing third party experts. Subsequent to a principal investment or disbursement of debt, we continue to monitor the development and performance of the relevant project, including through appointment of nominee directors in the case of certain principal investments. We also request for periodic progress reports from the projects and then performance assessments of these projects are regularly considered at our Board meetings. We further try to protect our interest by incorporating certain clauses in our principal investment agreements such as buy-back clause, tag along rights, drag along rights etc.

We have institutionalized our project appraisal process and systems and have implemented the Advanced Internal Risk Scoring Model developed by ICRA Management Consulting Services Limited for the assessment and mitigation of credit risk. These processes and systems include a detailed appraisal methodology, identification of risks and suitable structuring of credit risk mitigation measures. We use a range of quantitative as well as qualitative parameters as a part of the appraisal process to make a sound assessment of the extent of underlying credit risk in a project. We have adopted various risk management policies, including a credit risk management policy, asset liability management policy, operational risk management policy, interest rate policy and a policy for investment of surplus funds. For further information, see the section titled “Our Business – Risk Management” on page 116.

Business Strategy

Offer comprehensive structured financing solutions to private power project developers

We continue to focus on the power sector and offer comprehensive, structured financing solutions that address the financing requirements of private power project developers in India. We intend to leverage our industry experience, knowledge and our ability, as an NBFC and an IFC, to offer structured debt products and equity products, to provide customized financing solutions. We intend to grow our principal investment and debt financing businesses, as well as expand our fee based and other services, to ensure effective sourcing and cross-sell of our financing products and services.

Consolidate our position as a preferred financing solutions provider for smaller and medium sized power projects

We seek to leverage our strong industry experience, relationships and the goodwill from our association with PTC, to consolidate our position as a preferred financing solutions provider for smaller and medium sized power generation, equipment supply and fuel source projects. We believe that this specific segment in the power sector has significant potential and is currently under served by large banks and financing institutions that may have limited interest for this segment. We believe that availability of financing solutions for this segment will further encourage the development of such projects and power sector in India.

Expand fee-based services and CER financing

We intend to increase our focus on our current fee-based services that include primarily debt facility agent and security agent services as well as various advisory services such as techno-commercial appraisal services. We intend to increasingly focus on debt syndication activities in the future as we believe that our technical expertise and industry experience enable us to effectively understand the risks and opportunities in a project and structure financing solutions. We believe that the credibility of our project appraisal capabilities and our relationship with other financial institutions will enable us to ensure timely financial closure for such projects.

We commenced financing against carbon credits i.e. CERs in March 2010 and believe that this segment will continue to grow. We intend to develop specific expertise in this segment to effectively capitalize on the growing carbon market and develop capabilities to offer carbon credit advisory services.

Lower our cost of funds

We continue to evaluate various funding opportunities to lower our cost of funds, including through the issuance of infrastructure bonds at comparatively lower yields, as holders of such bonds are entitled to certain tax benefits. In addition, our IFC status enables us to avail ECBs up to 50.00% of our Owned Funds without prior RBI approval. We believe that foreign credit markets offer more cost-effective terms for long-term debt than the domestic credit market. In this connection, in October 2010, we have entered into a financing arrangement with DEG for an external commercial borrowing in an aggregate amount of US$ 26.00 million (₹ 1165.06 million) for the financing of renewable energy projects. We also have entered into a letter agreement with International Finance Corporation on January 20, 2011 for a proposed loan of US$ 50.00 million (₹ 2240.5 million) to support and expand our lending program to renewable energy projects.

We intend to develop and maintain an asset base with an optimal mix of principal investments and debt financing, and also increase the proportion of long-term debt in our debt financing portfolio, which we believe will enable us to further improve credit ratings for our long-term borrowings, resulting in lower cost of funds. As of December 31, 2010, our principal investments aggregated ₹ 4,186.23 million while our outstanding loan financing aggregated ₹ 5,951.15 million, of which long-term debt represented 59.19%.

Continue to develop strategic partnerships with international financial institutions

We intend to continue to develop strategic partnerships with international financial institutions by establishing joint ventures and/or private equity funds. We are currently exploring joint venture opportunities for the establishment of a fund focused on renewable energy. In addition, we have entered into strategic partnerships with Macquarie Bank Limited and Vitol SA in connection with our carbon credit financing business. We intend to enter into similar strategic partnerships from time to time to provide various financial services in specific areas of India's power sector.

Focus on renewable energy and other emerging segments of the power sector

We believe that there is significant investment potential in the renewable energy sector in India. India has large untapped potential across the renewable space with a current installed capacity of 17,173.90 MW out of an estimated technical potential of 84,776 MW (Source: Ministry of New and Renewable Energy). We continue to evaluate strategic initiatives focused on the renewable energy value chain. As of December 31, 2010 our Board had approved aggregate equity commitment of ₹ 822.11 million for four companies and aggregate debt commitment of ₹ 3273.30 million for 12 companies in the renewable energy sector. In addition, we have sanctioned financing against CERs to two renewable energy companies. We have also entered into an ECB agreement with DEG for an aggregate amount of US$ 26.00 million (₹ 1165.06 million) for on-lending to renewable energy projects.

Principal Investments

We make strategic equity investments in companies in the energy value chain in India, including in greenfield and brownfield projects. The nature and extent of our equity participation in such companies vary in accordance with the requirements, opportunities and risks associated with the relevant project, but we generally do not retain management control. As of December 31, 2010, our Board had approved equity commitments for ten companies for an aggregate amount of ₹ 5,641.66 million, with projects aggregating 3,221.45 MW of power generation capacity. Of these equity commitments, as of December 31, 2010, we had entered into definitive agreements for investments in eight companies for an aggregate amount of ₹ 4827.67 million, with projects aggregating 2,621.45 MW of power generation capacity. As of December 31, 2010, our principal investments aggregated ₹ 4,186.23 million in eight companies including in Indian Energy Exchange Limited ("IEX"), India's first nationwide, automated and online electricity trading platform. Our current portfolio of principal investments are mostly greenfield projects, which typically involve between two and five years of development activity prior to commencement of commercial operations. Three of our principal investment projects, with an aggregate power generation capacity of 175.60 MW, have commenced commercial operation. In September 2010, we liquidated a portion of our investment in IEX for a gain. Further, as of December 31, 2010 our Board had approved funding in the form of optionally convertible debentures aggregating ₹ 385.00 million to two companies. Please see the following paragraph for the details of development in such projects.

Although there is no restriction on our making principal investments in public sector or private sector listed companies, historically we have made principal investments in only unlisted private sector companies.

Following are brief descriptions of our various principal investments:

East Coast Energy Private Limited

East Coast Energy Private Limited ("East Coast") is developing a 1,320 MW thermal power project, comprising of two units of 660 MW each, in Andhra Pradesh. The Unit I and Unit II of the project are expected to be commissioned by December 2013 and May 2014, respectively. The estimated cost of the project is ₹ 65,700 million and financial closure for the project has been achieved. East Coast has entered into a PPA with PTC partly on long-term basis to sell 85.00% of the power generated and partly on a short-term/merchant basis. Approximately 70.00% of the coal requirement for the projects is proposed to be met through a domestic coal linkage while the remaining 30.00% is expected to be imported. The boiler, turbine, generator ("BTG") order has been placed, acquisition of 2,050 acres of land has been completed and major regulatory approvals, including environmental clearances have been received. On March 1, 2011, the GoI, through the MoEF, ordered the suspension of on-going construction work related to the project on the basis of several representations received by the MoEF that East Coast had not complied with the order, dated August 30, 2010, of the National Environment Appellate Authority, and that the project was being developed on wetlands which is not permitted. East Coast has been required to submit a report by March 6, 2011 to demonstrate that the project complies with the conditions stipulated in the environmental clearance, and to respond to allegations of violations of environmental laws, including that the project is located in the wetlands. In response to the MoEF letter, East Coast has issued a press release stating that East Coast is in compliance with the conditions laid down in the MoEF environmental clearance and in the order of the National Environment Appellate Authority. East Coast has also mentioned in the press release that it will submit a factual report in the manner required by MoEF. For further information, please see the section entitled "Risk Factors" on page 14 of this RHP. The transaction was structured such that we initially invested in debentures of East Coast and acquired the equity shareholding in East Coast on conversion of the debentures and interest thereon into the equity shares of East Coast. Asian Genco Pte Ltd. (AGPL), one of the subsidiaries of Asian Infrastructure Pte Ltd, ("AIPL", co-promoter) has signed an agreement with a consortium led by Morgan Stanley (MS) for its equity contribution in East Coast and other projects of AGPL. Shares of AIPL in East Coast have been transferred to AGPL.

Loan Products

Our principal loan products are long-term loans and short-term loans. Our long term loans are typically of maturity period between 10 and 15 years. Our short term loans are typically of maturity period of up to five years. Our loans are sanctioned for projects in the energy value chain and we may also offer loans to corporates for their new and expansion projects in the energy value chain. Additionally, we also offer short term loans which can get converted to long term loans after the achievement of financial closure. All of our financial products are denominated in Rupees. We structure the loan products taking into consideration various factors such as requirements of the borrowing entity, market conditions, regulatory requirements, risks and rewards from the relevant projects. Some of our loans can be optionally convertible into equity shares which are structured based on the needs of the borrowers and the risk associated with the financing. Our borrowers include multinational corporations, top Indian corporations, large power utilities, first generation entrepreneurs or companies promoted by them.

Long Term Loans

We generally offer our long-term loans to projects in the energy value chain. Our long-term loans are disbursed based on the funds requirement during the course of implementation of the project. The long-term loans typically bear floating interest rates at our prevailing interest rates. These interest rates are dependent on our cost of funds and the risk associated with the assisted project. Our long-term loans also provide for re-pricing mechanisms to enable us to adjust for changes in interest rates. Our long-term loans also typically provide for pre-payment penalties, as well as the payment of additional interest in the case of default.

All our long-term loans are backed by various securities and collaterals including, mortgage of immovable properties, hypothecation of movable assets, corporate guarantee, personal guarantee, pledge of shares of promoters, bank guarantee etc. Further, we ensure that all the cash flows of the project are routed through a trust and retention account over which we have a first charge. All the above securities are shared pari pasu with other lenders of the project.

Where we issue long-term loans as part of consortium financing, we may vary the terms if required. In the event that our pricing terms are more favorable to us than the proposed consortium terms, we typically seek to maintain our pricing terms. In certain instances, at an additional fee, we offer comfort letters as an ancillary feature to our sanctioned long-term loans to enable borrowers to establish a letter of credit with their bankers.

Short Term Loans

We offer short term loans of maturity of up to five years which include corporate loans and bridge loans. The corporate loans are generally disbursed in a single tranche. Such loans can be repaid in periodic installments or in a bullet payment and may also have put and call options.

Bridge loans are offered prior to financial closure of a project to expedite its implementation. Bridge loans are typically of maturity of up to one year or the achievement of financial closure, whichever is earlier and may be convertible into long-term loans after financial closure. Generally such loans bear higher interest rates than long-term loans. We also incorporate pre-payment penalties in such loans and penalties in case the borrower does not convert them to long term loans. The facility of bridge loan ensures that we are able to forge relationships with borrowers at an early stage due to which we may be in a position to command better terms and conditions in the long term loan. It also ensures that we are able to compete with established players because of our early access and relationship with the borrowers. However, there is no compromise on the security coverage on such loans and we ensure that our funds are well secured through existing project assets and other collaterals. Particularly in bridge loans we ensure that the entire project land and any assets of the project are necessarily charged to us as there are generally no other lenders prior to financial closure in such companies. Such securities are ceded or shared with other lenders after financial closure. Our short-term loans permit the borrower to provide one or more of the following types of any of the security: a pledge of shares, hypothecation of assets, bank guarantee, corporate and personal guarantees.

Fee Based and Other Services

We provide various fee-based services including lenders agent and security agent services, as well as advisory services such as techno-economic feasibility studies for power projects in India.

For loan financing in form of a consortium of banks and financial institutions, we may act as the lead financial institution and perform the lenders agent and security agent services. As a lenders agent, we act as a communication channel between the borrower and the lenders and convene meetings of lenders and borrowers. We prepare the common loan agreement and other relevant documents related to the financing and security creation for the loan financing and monitor the compliance with the terms of such agreements. We also continuously monitor the development of projects and report to the lenders of the consortium periodically. As the security agent we prepare and execute the various security documents related to the loan financing.

We intend to increasingly focus on debt syndication activities in the future as we believe that our technical expertise and industry experience enable us to effectively understand the risks and opportunities in a project and structure financing solutions. We believe that the credibility of our project appraisal capabilities and our relationship with other financial institutions will enable us to ensure timely financial closure for such projects.

CER Finance

We provide financing to project developers against purchase of CERs generated or to be generated from their projects. In this regard, we undertake the transaction through a structured finance instrument meeting requirements of the project. We may provide upfront finance to the projects for delivery of pre-determined volume of CERs on a future date at a pre-agreed price and also at mutually agreed other terms and conditions. We may also enter into forward agreements (without upfront finance) with the projects for delivery of pre-determined volume of CERs on a future date at a pre-agreed price. However, the transfer of money would take place only on delivery of CERs. We typically do not carry the market risk of the CER prices and enter into parallel agreements with CER buyers. We have successfully concluded two carbon financing transactions until date, wherein we have sanctioned financing against CERs to two renewable energy companies. We have entered into strategic partnerships with Macquarie Bank Limited and Vitol SA in connection with our carbon financing business to jointly identify existing or new projects that could qualify either as a CDM project within the framework of the Kyoto Protocol ("Protocol") or as an emissions reduction project pursuant to the Protocol and jointly secure the exclusive rights to purchase or market the CERs of the identified projects.

As of December 31, 2010 our Board had approved funding in form of funding against CERs aggregating ₹ 306.11 million to two companies with projects aggregating 108 MW capacity.

Wind Power Project

In 1999, the government of Karnataka sanctioned a wind power project of 5 MW in favour of Suzlon Energy Limited ("Suzlon"). The capacity of the project was revised to 10 MW in 2000, of which, a wind power project with a capacity of 6 MW ("Wind Energy Project") was developed and transferred by Suzlon in our favour in 2010. Out of the total capacity of 6 MW, the unit for the generation of 1.5 MW is located at Koppa, District Davangere, Karnataka and the unit for the generation of the remaining 4.5 MW is located at Kundur Village, District Davangere, Karnataka. We have entered into two power purchase agreements dated March 29, 2010 with Bangalore Electricity Supply Company Limited for the supply of 1.5 MW and 4.5 MW, respectively, of electricity generated at our wind farms. Pursuant to the terms of the PPAs, BESCOM has agreed to off-take and purchase all electricity generated at our wind farms. The tariff agreed upon is ₹ 3.70 per kWh for the first 10 years, and thereafter according to the tariff determined by the Karnataka Electricity Regulatory Commission. In addition, any benefits that would accrue on account of carbon credit would be shared between our Company and BESCOM in accordance with the terms stipulated in the PPAs.

All the assets of the wind farm including all receivables are charged in favor of Punjab National Bank to secure its term loan, availed to part finance the 6 MW wind project.

Treasury Operations

In accordance with our policy for investment of surplus funds, we aim to use our treasury to manage liquidity, provide a steady source of income with minimal risks and increase the overall return on assets. Our treasury policy lays down guidelines for the permissible types of investments we can make and their monitoring. Through our treasury operations, we maintain liquidity to repay borrowings as they mature and make new loans and investments as opportunities arise. Our investments are predominantly in units of debt mutual funds, and in bank deposits.

Project Appraisal Procedure

Following is a brief description of our investment / appraisal procedure for our principal investments as well as debt financing projects:

Sourcing of investment opportunities. The investment team generates opportunities from multiple sources like PTC, banks, co-investments with advisors, market intermediaries etc.

Evaluation of investment opportunities. An independent detailed analysis is conducted on the potential target and a decision is based on a variety of factors like the promoter background, growth opportunities, historical performance etc. The appraisal follows relevant policies, viz. appraisal guidelines, credit risk management policy, investment policy, and internal credit rating.

Development of investment memorandum. An investment memorandum is prepared which includes all the evaluation results of the project that is primarily used by the whole-time directors to make appropriate decisions.

Negotiation of investment terms. The investment team then identifies the key drivers of investment returns and risks in evaluating the attractiveness of the investment and based upon their research, the investment team will negotiate the terms of a proposed investment to mitigate these risks.

Investment approval. The investment team finally submits the final investment memorandum to the Whole-Time Directors who after discussions with the investment team, decides, whether the proposal should be presented to the Board. If the Board approves, the investment team proceeds to execute the transaction supported by a frame work and internal and external legal expertise.

Monitoring of investments. Our investment/ project appraisal team is also involved closely with the Company's management and helps the Company in budgeting, building a strategic plan and other requirement with regard to development of project. In addition to the dealing officer, there is an officer designated to maintain and strengthen the centralised monitoring who prepares a report including the regular flow of information about the status of all the projects and regularly presents such a report to the Board. We also appoint nominee directors in the investee companies.

In addition to the above procedures, the following applies with respect to an exit strategy for our principal investments: While investing the investment team evaluates a number of exit options which are periodically evaluated to ensure a timely exit. The principal means for exiting is written into definitive agreements such as the shareholders' agreement and include initial public offerings, tag-along and drag-along rights, buy-backs and stake sales. We will seek to exit after sufficient value creation in the investee company.

I. NBFC Regulations

The Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934 (“RBI Act”)

The RBI is entrusted with the responsibility of regulating and supervising activities of NBFCs by virtue of the power vested in it under Chapter IIIB of the RBI Act. The RBI Act defines an NBFC under Section 45-I (f) as:

- (i) a financial institution which is a company;
 - (ii) a non-banking institution which is a company and which has as its principal business the receiving of deposits, under any scheme or arrangement or in any other manner, or lending in any manner;
 - (iii) such other non-banking institution or class of such institutions, as the Bank may, with the previous approval of the Central Government and by notification in the Official Gazette, specify.”

Section 45-I(c) of the RBI Act defines a “financial institution” as a non-banking institution carrying on as its business or part of its business, amongst other activities, the financing, whether by way of making loans or advances or otherwise, of any activity, other than its own and a “non- banking institution” have been defined under section 45-I (e) of the RBI Act as company, corporation or cooperative society.

Any company which carries on the business of a non-banking financial institution as its principal business is to be treated as a NBFC. RBI pursuant to a press release dated April 8, 1999 bearing reference 1998-99/1269 has further indicated that in order to identify a particular company as a NBFC, it will consider both the assets and the income pattern as evidenced from the last audited balance sheet of the company to decide its principal business. A company would be categorized as a NBFC if its financial assets were more than 50% of its total assets (netted off by intangible assets) and income from financial assets is more than 50% of the gross income. Both these tests are required to be satisfied as the determinant factor for classifying the principal business of a company as that of a NBFC.

With effect from January 9, 1997, NBFCs were not permitted to commence or carry on the business of a non banking financial institution without obtaining a Certificate of Registration (“CoR”) from the RBI. Further, with a view to imparting greater financial soundness and achieving the economies of scale in terms of efficiency of operations and higher managerial skills, the RBI raised the requirement of minimum net owned fund from ₹ 2.5 million to ₹ 20 million for a NBFC commencing business on or after April 21, 1999. Further, every NBFC was required to submit to the RBI a certificate, from its statutory auditor within one month from the date of finalization of the balance sheet and in any case not later than December 30 of that year, stating that it was engaged in the business of non-banking financial institution and it held a CoR. In case an NBFC does not accept or hold deposits from the public (“NBFC-ND”), it shall obtain a CoR without authorization to accept public deposits.

Public Deposit Regulations

As per the Non Banking Financial Companies Acceptance of Public Deposits (Reserve Bank) Directions, 1998 as amended from time to time (“Public Deposit Directions”) certain NBFC-NDs are entitled to certain exemptions from the norms and conditions stipulated under the Public Deposit Directions, such as:

- (i) an insurance company holding a valid certificate of registration issued under section 3 of the Insurance Act, 1938, or a stock exchange notified under section 4 of the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956, or a stock broking company defined in section 12 of the Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992; and
- (ii) a loan company, an investment company, an asset finance company not accepting/holding any public deposits.

In order to benefit from such exemptions, the board of directors of the NBFC-ND must pass a resolution within thirty days of the commencement of every financial year to the effect that the company has neither accepted public deposit nor would accept any public deposit during the year.

As a NBFC-ND, we have been complying with the requirement of passing a board resolution within 30 days of commencement of a financial year to the effect that the Company has neither accepted public deposits nor would accept any public deposit.

Capital Reserve fund

Pursuant to Section 45 IC of the RBI Act, every NBFC is required to create a reserve fund and transfer thereto a sum not less than 20% of its net profit every year, as disclosed in the profit and loss account and before any dividend is declared. Such a fund is to be created by every NBFC including a NBFC-ND. Further, no appropriation can be made from such fund by the NBFC except for the purposes specified by the RBI from time to time and every such appropriation shall be reported to the RBI within 21 days from the date of such withdrawal.

Further, SI-NBFC-NDs may exceed the concentration of credit/ investment norms, as provided above by 5% for any single party and by 10% for a single group of parties, if the additional exposure is on account of infrastructure loan and/ or investment. Additionally, IFCs may exceed the concentration of credit norms applicable to SI-NBFC-NDs under the Prudential Norms as under:

- (i) in lending to

- (a) any single borrower by 10% of its Owned Fund i.e. 25% of its Owned Fund; and

Accordingly, the NBFCs (engaged in and classified as equipment leasing, hire purchase finance, loan, investment and residuary non-banking companies) meeting certain criteria, including, an asset base of ₹ 1,000 million, irrespective of whether they are accepting / holding public deposits or not, are required to put in place an ALM system. The ALM system rests on the functioning of ALM information systems within the NBFC, ALM organization including an Asset Liability Committee (“ALCO”) and ALM support groups, and the ALM process including liquidity risk management, management of marketing risk, funding and capital planning, profit planning and growth projection, and forecasting/ preparation of contingency plans. It has been provided that the management committee of the board of directors or any other specific committee constituted by the board of directors should oversee the implementation of the system and review its functioning periodically. The ALM Guidelines mainly address liquidity and interest rate risks. In case of structural liquidity, the negative gap (i.e. where outflows exceed inflows) in the 1 to 30/ 31 days time-bucket should not exceed the prudential limit of 15% of outflows of each time-bucket and the cumulative gap of up to one year should not exceed 15% of the cumulative cash outflows of up to one year. In case these limits are exceeded, the measures proposed for bringing the gaps within the limit should be shown by a footnote in the relevant statement.

Further for the purposes of monitoring the asset liability gap and strategize action to mitigate the risk associated thereto, the Company in 2007 constituted an Asset Liability Management/ Risk Management Committee and also appointed five private consultants to develop a structure/organization for monitoring and controlling the overall risk management framework.

In addition to the aforesaid instruction, the RBI has issued a Master Circular on Fair Practices Code dated July 1, 2010 consolidating all previous instructions regulating the rates of interest charged by NBFCs which stipulate that the board of each NBFC is required to adopt an interest rate model taking into account the various relevant factors including cost of funds, margin and risk premium. The rate of interest and the approach for gradation of risk and the rationale for charging different rates of interest for different categories of borrowers are required to be disclosed to the borrowers in the application form and expressly communicated in the sanction letter. Further, this is also required to be made available on the NBFCs website or published in newspapers and is required to be updated in the event of any change therein. Further, the rate of interest would have to be an annualized rate so that the borrower is aware of the exact rates that would be charged to the account.

In order to ensure adherence to the regulatory framework by SI-NBFCs-ND, the RBI has directed such NBFCs to put in place a system for submission of an annual statement of capital funds, and risk asset ratio etc. as at the end of March every year, in a prescribed format. Anti Money Laundering

The Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002 (“PMLA”) seeks to prevent money laundering and provides for confiscation of property derived from, or involved in money laundering and for other matters connected therewith or incidental thereto. It extends to all banking companies, financial institutions, including NBFCs and intermediaries. Pursuant to the provisions of PMLA and the RBI guidelines, all NBFCs are advised to appoint a principal officer for internal reporting of suspicious transactions and cash transactions and to maintain a system of proper record (i) for all cash transactions of value of more than ₹ 1 million; (ii) all series of cash transactions integrally connected to each other which have been valued below ₹ 1 million where such series of transactions have taken place within one month and the aggregate value of such transaction exceeds ₹ 1 million. Further, all NBFCs are required to take appropriate steps to evolve a system for proper maintenance and preservation of account information in a manner that allows data to be retrieved easily and quickly whenever required or when requested by the competent authorities. Further, NBFCs are also required to maintain for at least ten years from the date of transaction between the NBFCs and the client, all necessary records of transactions, both domestic or international, which will permit reconstruction of individual transactions (including the amounts and types of currency involved if any) so as to provide, if necessary, evidence for prosecution of persons involved in criminal activity.

Such PDI will be eligible for inclusion as Tier I Capital to the extent of 15% of the total Tier I Capital as on March 31 of the previous accounting year. Any amount in excess of the amount admissible as Tier I capital will qualify as Tier II Capital within the eligible limits. The minimum investment in each issue/tranche by any single investor shall not be less than ₹ 0.5 million. It has been clarified that the amount of funds so raised shall not be treated as public deposit within the meaning of clause 2 (1) (xii) of the Public Deposit Directions.

II. Regulations applicable to foreign investment

FEMA and FDI Regulations

Foreign investment in India is governed primarily by the provisions of the FEMA which relates to regulation primarily by the RBI and the rules, regulations and notifications thereunder, the Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion (“DIPP”) has issued Circular 2 of 2010 dated September 30, 2010 (the “Consolidated FDI Policy”) which consolidates the policy framework on FDI with effect from October 1, 2010. The Consolidated FDI Policy consolidates and subsumes all such previous press notes, press releases and clarifications issued by DIPP.

The RBI, in exercise of its power under the FEMA, has notified the Foreign Exchange Management (Transfer or Issue of Security by a Person Resident Outside India) Regulations, 2000, as amended (“FEMA Regulations”) to prohibit, restrict or regulate, transfer by or issue of security to a person resident outside India.

For further information on the restrictions on foreign ownership of Indian securities, see section titled “Restriction on Foreign Ownership of Indian Securities” on page 326.

III. Regulations applicable to External commercial borrowings

The current policy of the RBI directly relating to external commercial borrowing (“ECB”) is embodied in the Foreign Exchange Management (Borrowing or Lending in Foreign Exchange) Regulations, 2000, as amended from time to time (“ECB Guidelines”). The ECB Guidelines states that ECB refers to commercial loans in the form of bank loans, buyers’ credit, suppliers’ credit and securitized instruments (e.g. floating rate notes and fixed rate bonds) availed from non-resident lenders with a minimum average maturity of three years. Funds received by an Indian company from the issue of preference shares, whether non-convertible, optionally convertible or partially convertible, or the issue of debentures that are not mandatorily and compulsorily convertible into equity shares are considered debt, and accordingly, all norms applicable to ECBs (including those relating to eligible borrowers, recognised lenders, amount and maturity and end-use stipulations) apply to such issues.

ECB can be accessed under two routes, viz. (i) automatic route, and (ii) approval route. The ECB Guidelines are subject to amendment from time to time. Investors are urged to consult their own advisors in connection with the applicability of any Indian laws or regulations.

Pursuant to A.P. (DIR Series) Circular No. 51 dated May 11, 2010 on external commercial borrowings policy issued by RBI, NBFCs categorized as IFCs by the RBI exclusively involved in the financing of the infrastructure sector have been permitted to avail external ECBs, including the outstanding ECBs, upto 50% of their Owned Funds under the automatic route subject to such NBFC's compliance with RBI prescribed prudential norms. However, ECBs availed by IFCs above 50% of their Owned Funds would require the approval of RBI and will, therefore, be considered under the approval route.

Automatic route

Under the automatic route the recognised lenders are as follows viz. internationally recognized sources such as (i) international banks, (ii) international capital markets, (iii) multilateral financial institutions / regional financial institutions and Government owned development financial institutions, (iv) export credit agencies, (v) suppliers of equipments, (vi) foreign collaborators and (vii) foreign equity holders (other than erstwhile Overseas Corporate Bodies (OCBs)). A foreign equity holder to be eligible as a recognized lender would require a minimum holding of paid-up equity in the borrower company as follows: (a) For ECB up to USD 5 million - minimum paid up equity of 25% held directly by the lender, and (b) For ECB more than USD 5 million - minimum paid up equity of 25% held directly by the lender and debt-equity ratio not exceeding 4:1 (i.e. the proposed ECB not exceeding four times the direct foreign equity holding).

Further, the maximum amount of ECB which can be raised by a corporate other than those in the hotel, hospital and software sectors is USD 500 million or its equivalent during a financial year and the maturity of such ECBs are as follows: (i) ECB up to USD 20 million or its equivalent in a financial year with minimum average maturity of three years; (ii) ECB above USD 20 million or equivalent and up to USD 500 million or its equivalent with a minimum average maturity of five years.

All-in-cost includes rate of interest, other fees and expenses in foreign currency except commitment fee, pre-payment fee, and fees payable in Indian Rupees. The payment of withholding tax in Indian Rupees is excluded for calculating the all-in-cost ("All-in-cost Ceiling"). The All-in-cost Ceilings for ECB are reviewed from time to time and at present all-in-cost ceilings over 6 month LIBOR (for the respective currency of borrowing or applicable benchmark) for average maturity period of 3 years and up to 5 years is 300 basis points and for more than 5 years is 500 basis points.

Issuance of guarantee, standby letter of credit, letter of undertaking or letter of comfort by banks, financial institutions and NBFCs from India relating to ECB is not permitted.

The choice of security to be provided to the lender/ supplier is left to the borrower. However, creation of charge over immoveable assets and financial securities, such as shares, in favour of the overseas lender is subject to compliance with certain notifications under FEMA. AD Category - I banks have been delegated powers to convey 'no objection' under FEMA for creation of charge on immovable assets, financial securities and issue of corporate or personal guarantees in favour of overseas lender / security trustee, to secure the ECB to be raised by the borrower.

Borrowers may enter into loan agreement complying with the ECB Guidelines with a recognised lender for raising ECB under the automatic route. The borrower must obtain a Loan Registration Number (LRN) from the RBI before drawing down the ECB. Further, Prepayment of ECB up to USD 500 million may be allowed by AD banks without prior approval of RBI subject to compliance with the stipulated minimum average maturity period as applicable to the loan

Approval route

Under the approval route requiring RBI permission, corporates can avail of ECB of an additional amount of USD 250 million with average maturity of more than 10 years under the approval route, over and above the existing limit of USD 500 million under the automatic route, during a financial year. Other ECB criteria, such as end-use, recognized lender, etc. need to be complied with.

IV. Legislative framework for recovery of debts

Securitisation and Reconstruction of Financial Assets and Enforcement of Security Interest Act, 2002

The Securitisation Act provides the powers of "seize and desist" to banks and grants certain special rights to banks and financial institutions to enforce their security interests. The Securitisation Act provides that a “secured creditor” may, in respect of loans classified as non-performing in accordance with RBI guidelines, give notice in writing to the borrower requiring it to discharge its liabilities within 60 days, failing which the secured creditor may take possession of the assets constituting the security for the loan, and exercise management rights in relation thereto, including the right to sell or otherwise dispose of the assets.

Under the Securitisation Act, all mortgages and charges on immovable properties in favour of banks and financial institutions are enforceable without the intervention of the courts. The Securitisation Act also provides for the establishment of asset reconstruction companies regulated by RBI to acquire assets from banks and financial institutions. A bank or financial institution may sell a standard asset only if the borrower has a consortium or multiple banking arrangements, at least 75% by value of the total loans to the borrower are classified as non-performing and at least 75% by value of the banks and financial institutions in the consortium or multiple banking arrangements agree to the sale. The banks or financial institution selling financial assets should ensure that there is no known liability devolving on them and that they do not assume any operational, legal or any other type of risks relating to the financial assets sold. Furthermore, banks or financial institutions may not sell financial assets at a contingent price with an agreement to bear a part of the shortfall on ultimate realisation. However, banks or financial institutions may sell specific financial assets with an agreement to share in any surplus realised by the asset reconstruction company in the future. While each bank or financial institution is required to make its own assessment of the value offered in the sale before accepting or rejecting an offer for purchase of financial assets by an asset reconstruction company, in consortium or multiple banking arrangements where more than 75% by value of the banks or financial institutions accept the offer, the remaining banks or financial institutions are obliged to accept the offer.

Recovery of Debts Due to Banks and Financial Institutions Act, 1993

The Recovery of Debts Due to Banks and Financial Institutions Act, 1993 (“Debts Recovery Act”) provides for establishment of Debt Recovery Tribunals for expeditious adjudication and recovery of debts due to any bank or public financial institution or to a consortium of banks and public financial institutions. Under the Debts Recovery Act, the procedures for recoveries of debt have been simplified and time frames been fixed for speedy disposal of cases. Upon establishment of the Debts Recovery Tribunal, no court or other authority can exercise jurisdiction in relation to matters covered by the Debts Recovery Act, except the higher courts in India in certain circumstances.

V. Laws relating to issuance of infrastructure bonds

The Government of India has pursuant to a notification dated July 9, 2010 bearing reference no. 48/2010[F.No.149/84/2010-SO(TPL)] issued by it (“Notification”), specified certain bonds as “long-term infrastructure bonds” (“Infrastructure Bonds”) for the purposes of Section 80CCF of the IT Act. As per the Notification, the Infrastructure Bonds can be issued by the following: (i) Industrial Finance Corporation of India; (ii) Life Insurance Corporation of India; (iii) Infrastructure Development Finance Company Limited; and (iv) a NBFC classified as an Infrastructure Finance Company by the RBI, during the financial year 2010-11. The volume of issuance during the financial year shall be restricted to 25% of the incremental infrastructure investments made by the issuer during the financial year 2009-10 and ‘investment’ for the purposes of the aforesaid limit shall include loans, bonds, other forms of debt, quasi-equity, preference equity and equity. The Infrastructure Bonds shall have a tenure of a minimum period of 10 years and a minimum lock-in period for an investor shall be 5 years, after which the investor may exit either through the secondary market or through a buyback facility specified by the issuer in the issue document at the time of issue. The Infrastructure Bond shall also be allowed as pledge or lien or hypothecation for obtaining loans from scheduled commercial bank, after the said lock-in period.

The yield of the Infrastructure Bond shall not exceed the yield on government securities of corresponding residual maturity, as reported by the fixed income money market and derivatives association of India (“FIMMDA”) as on the last working day of the month immediately preceding the month of the issue of the Infrastructure Bond. The proceeds of the Infrastructure Bonds shall be utilised towards ‘infrastructure lending’ as defined in the guidelines issued by the RBI.

VI. Laws relating to Employment

Shops and Establishments Legislations in Various States

The provisions of various Shops and Establishments legislations, as applicable, regulate the conditions of work and employment in shops and commercial establishments and generally prescribe obligations in respect of registration, opening and closing hours, daily and weekly working hours, holidays, leave, health and safety measures and wages for overtime work.

Labour Laws

The Company is required to comply with various labour laws, including the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972 and the Employees' Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952 which have been discussed below:

The Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972

The Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972 (the “Gratuity Act”) establishes a scheme for the payment of gratuity to employees engaged in every factory, mine, oil field, plantation, port and railway company, every shop or establishment in which ten or more persons are employed or were employed on any day of the preceding twelve months and in such other establishments in which ten or more persons are employed or were employed on any day of the preceding twelve months, as the central government may, by notification, specify. Penalties are prescribed for non-compliance with statutory provisions.

Under the Gratuity Act, an employee who has been in continuous service for a period of five years will be eligible for gratuity upon his retirement, resignation, superannuation, death or disablement due to accident or disease. However, the entitlement to gratuity in the event of death or disablement will not be contingent upon an employee having completed five years of continuous service. The maximum amount of gratuity payable may not exceed ₹ 1 million.

Employees Provident Fund and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952

The Employees Provident Fund and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952 (“EPF Act”) provides for the institution of compulsory provident fund, pension fund and deposit linked insurance funds for the benefit of employees in factories and other establishments. A liability is placed both on the employer and the employee to make certain contributions to the funds mentioned above.

VII. Laws relating to Electricity

The Electricity Act, 2003 (“Electricity Act”) is a central legislation consolidating the laws relating to inter-alia including generation, transmission, distribution, trading and use of electricity and generally for taking measures conducive to development of the electricity industry, promoting competition therein etc. The Electricity Act provides for a multi buyer, multi seller system as opposed to the earlier structure which permitted only a single buyer to purchase power from power generators. It also provides for greater flexibility and grants the respective electricity regulatory commission greater freedom in determining tariffs, without being constrained by rate-of return regulations. Transmission, distribution and trade of electricity are regulated activities under the Electricity Act which require licenses from the appropriate electricity regulatory commission, unless exempted by the appropriate government. The Electricity Act was amended in 2007 to exempt captive power generation plants from licensing requirements for supply to any licensee or consumer.

Under the Electricity Act, any generating company may establish, operate and maintain generating stations without obtaining a license under the Electricity Act, if it complies with prescribed technical standards relating to grid connectivity. A generating company is required to establish, operate and maintain generating stations, tie-lines, sub-stations and dedicated transmission lines connected therewith in accordance with the Electricity Act or the rules or regulations made under it. Further, a generating company may subject to the provisions of the Electricity Act, supply electricity to any licensee and to any consumer. The Electricity Act provides for the constitution of a central commission known as the Central Electricity Regulatory Commission (“CERC”) to discharge the functions assigned to it under the Electricity Act which inter alia include, regulating the tariff of generating companies owned or controlled by the central government and such others companies who enter into or otherwise have a composite scheme for generation and sale of electricity in more than one state; regulating inter-state transmission of electricity; determining tariff for inter-state transmission of electricity; issuing licenses to persons to function as transmission licensee and electricity trader with respect to their inter-state operations etc.

VIII. Regulations relating to Carbon Credits

Kyoto Protocol and Carbon Credits

The Kyoto Protocol is a protocol to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (“UNFCCC”) with the objective of reducing greenhouse gases (“GHG”) and global warming that cause climate change. The Kyoto Protocol was agreed on December 11, 1997 at the third conference of the parties to the treaty when they met in Kyoto, Japan and entered into force on February 16, 2005. India acceded to the Kyoto Protocol on August 26, 2002. The Kyoto Protocol sets binding targets for certain industrialized countries for reducing their GHG emissions.

Recognizing that developed countries are principally responsible for the current high levels of GHG emissions in the atmosphere as a result of years of industrial activity, the Kyoto Protocol places a heavier burden on developed nations under the principle of “common but differentiated responsibilities.

Under the Kyoto Protocol, countries must meet their targets primarily through national measures. However, the Kyoto Protocol offers them an additional means of meeting their targets by way of three market-based mechanisms namely (i) emission trading (known as the carbon market); (ii) clean development mechanism (“CDM”); and (iii) joint implementation (“JI”). The protocol includes mechanisms which allow developed nations to meet their GHG emission limitation by purchasing GHG emission reductions from elsewhere. These can be bought either from financial exchanges, from projects which reduce emissions in developing nations under the CDM, the JI scheme or from developed nations with excess allowances.

Typical emission certificates are:

- Certified Emission Reduction (“CER”);
- Emission Reduction Unit (“ERU”); and
- Voluntary or Verified Emission Reductions (“VER”).

CERs and ERUs are certificates generated from emission reduction projects, under the CDM for projects implemented in developing countries, and under JI for projects implemented in developed countries, respectively. These mechanisms are introduced within the Kyoto Protocol. For projects which cannot be implemented as CDM or JI, but still fulfil the required standards, VERs can be generated. VERs, however, cannot be used for compliance under the Kyoto Protocol.

Pursuant to Article 12 of the Kyoto Protocol, the CDM allows emission-reduction (or emission removal) projects in developing countries to earn certified emission reduction credits, each equivalent to one tonne of carbon dioxide. These CERs can be traded and sold, and used by industrialized countries to meet a part of their emission reduction targets under the Kyoto Protocol. The designated authority in India is the National Clean Development Mechanism Authority, under the Ministry of Environment and Forests for registering a project before it can be submitted to the relevant authority under the executive board of the UNFCCC.

IX. Laws relating to Intellectual Property

The Trade Marks Act, 1999 and the Copyright Act, 1957 amongst others govern the law in relation to intellectual property, including brand names, trade names and service marks and research works.

X. Other regulations

In addition to the above, the Company is required to comply with the provisions of the Companies Act, FEMA, various tax related legislations imposed by the centre or the state and other applicable statutes for its day-to-day operations.

ANNEXURE - V

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND NOTES TO THE RESTATED SUMMARY STATEMENT OF ASSETS AND LIABILITIES, PROFIT AND LOSS ACCOUNT AND CASH FLOW STATEMENT

(A) Significant accounting policies

(i) Basis of accounting

These financial statements have been prepared to comply in all material aspects with all the applicable accounting principles in India, the applicable accounting standards notified under section 211(3C) of the Companies Act, 1956, the relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 1956, Non-Banking Financial (Non-Deposit Accepting or Holding) Companies Prudential Norms (Reserve Bank) Directions, 2007 and the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2009 (the "ICDR Regulations") and the related clarifications thereto issued by the Securities and Exchange Board of India.

(ii) Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires the management of the Company to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported balances of assets and liabilities, revenues and expenses and disclosures relating to the contingent liabilities. The management believes that the estimates used in preparation of the financial statements are prudent and reasonable. Future results could differ from these estimates. Any revision to accounting estimates is recognized prospectively in the current and future periods.

(iii) Fixed assets including intangible assets and depreciation

Fixed assets including intangible assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation/amortisation. Cost of acquisition comprises purchase price, duties, levies and any directly attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for the intended use.

Depreciation on fixed assets (other than intangible assets) is charged on a pro-rata basis at the written down value rates prescribed in Schedule XIV to the Companies Act, 1956. Assets costing upto Rs. 5,000 are fully depreciated in the year of purchase.

Intangible assets comprising of software are amortised on a straight line method over a period of 5 years or less depending on the estimated useful life of the assets.

(iv) Investments

Investments that are readily realizable and intended to be held for not more than a year are classified as current investments. All other investments are classified as long-term investments. Long Term Investments are stated at cost. A provision for diminution (if any) is made to recognize a decline other than temporary in the value of investment.

Current Investments are carried at the lower of cost and fair value.

(v) Revenue recognition

- a) Interest and other dues are accounted on accrual basis.
- b) Dividend is accounted when the right to receive is established.
- c) Fee based incomes are recognized when reasonable right of recovery is established and the revenue can be reliably measured.
- d) Revenue from power supply is accounted on accrual basis.

(vi) Employee stock options

The Company calculates the employee stock compensation expense based on the intrinsic value method wherein the excess of intrinsic price of underlying equity shares as on the date of the grant of options over the exercise price of the options given to employees under the Employee Stock Option Scheme of the Company, is recognized as deferred stock compensation expense and is amortized over the vesting period of options.

(vii) Employee benefits

Provident fund is a defined contribution scheme and the contributions are charged to the profit and loss account of the year when the contributions to the government funds are due.

Gratuity liability and long term employee benefits are provided on the basis of actuarial valuation made at the end of each financial year as per projected unit credit method.

Gains and losses arising out of actuarial valuations are recognized immediately in the profit and loss account as income or expense.

Liability for leave encashment and gratuity in respect of employees on deputation with the Company are accounted for on the basis of terms and conditions of the deputation agreement with the holding company.

(viii) Foreign currency transactions

Transactions in foreign currency are recorded at the exchange rates prevalent at the time of transaction. Differences on settlement of such transactions are recognized in the profit and loss account. All monetary items denominated in foreign currency at the balance sheet date are translated at the year end rates and resultant exchange differences are recognized in profit and loss account.

(ix) Earnings per share (EPS)

The earnings considered in ascertaining the Company's EPS comprises the net profit after tax (and includes the post tax effect of any extra ordinary items) attributable to equity shareholders. The number of shares used in computing Basic EPS is the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year. The diluted EPS is calculated on the same basis as basic EPS, after adjusting for the effect of potential dilutive equity shares.

(x) Taxation

Provision for current taxation is ascertained on the basis of assessable profits computed in accordance with the provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961.

Deferred Tax is recognized, subject to the consideration of prudence, on timing differences, being the difference between taxable income and accounting income that originate in one period and are capable of reversal in one or more subsequent periods.

Deferred tax assets are recognized on unabsorbed depreciation and carried forward of losses based on virtual certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax asset can be realized.

(xi) Provisions and contingencies

Provisions are recognized when the Company has a present obligation as a result of past events, for which it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate of the amount can be made. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following discussion of our financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with our restated audited financial statements as of and for the years ended March 31, 2008, 2009, 2010 and as of and for the period ended March 31, 2007 (from our inception on September 8, 2006), and as of and for the nine months ended December 31, 2010, prepared in accordance with the Companies Act, Indian GAAP and the SEBI ICDR Regulations, including the schedules, annexures and notes thereto and the reports thereon, included in the section titled "Financial Information" beginning on page 176 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, as well as the section titled "Selected Statistical Information" beginning on page 238 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

Indian GAAP differs in certain material respects from U.S. GAAP and IFRS. We have not attempted to quantify the impact of IFRS or U.S. GAAP on the financial data included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, nor do we provide a reconciliation of our financial statements to those of U.S. GAAP or IFRS. Accordingly, the degree to which the Indian GAAP financial statements included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus will provide meaningful information is entirely dependent on the reader's level of familiarity with Indian accounting practices.

Our fiscal year ends on March 31 of each year. Accordingly, all references to a particular fiscal year are to the twelve-month period ended March 31 of that year.

We were incorporated on September 8, 2006. Thus, our financial results for the period from September 8, 2006 (inception) to March 31, 2007 are not directly comparable to our financial results for subsequent fiscal years.

This discussion contains forward-looking statements and reflects our current views with respect to future events and financial performance. Actual results may differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of certain factors such as those set forth in the section titled "Risk Factors" on page 14.

Overview

We are an Indian non-banking financial institution promoted by PTC to make principal investments in, and provide financing solutions for, companies with projects across the energy value chain. We believe we are one of the few financial institutions in India that provide both equity and debt financing, including short-term and long-term debt, as well as structured debt financing. With a focus on infrastructure development, we offer an integrated suite of services including provision financing to, and make investments in, private sector Indian companies in the power sector, including for power generation, equipment supply and fuel source projects. We are currently focused primarily on power generation projects in India. We also provide fee-based syndication and advisory services as well as carbon credit financing against certified emissions reduction (CER).

Principal Investments. We make strategic equity investments in companies in the energy value chain in India, including in greenfield and brownfield projects. The nature and extent of our equity participation in such companies vary in accordance with the requirements, opportunities and risks associated with the relevant project, but we generally do not retain management control. As of December 31, 2010, our Board had approved equity commitments for ten companies for an aggregate amount of ₹ 5,641.66 million, with projects aggregating 3,221.45 MW of power generation capacity. Of these equity commitments, as of December 31, 2010, we had entered into definitive agreements for investments in eight companies for an aggregate amount of ₹ 4,827.67 million, with projects aggregating 2,621.45 MW of power generation capacity. As of December 31, 2010, our principal investments aggregated ₹ 4,186.23 million in eight companies including in Indian Energy Exchange Limited ("IEX"), India's first nationwide, automated and online electricity trading platform. Our current portfolio of principal investments are mostly greenfield projects, which typically involve between two and five years of development activity prior to commencement of commercial operations. Three of our principal investment projects, with an aggregate power generation capacity of 175.60 MW, have commenced commercial operation. In September 2010, we liquidated a portion of our investment in IEX for a gain. Further, as of December 31, 2010 our Board had approved funding in the form of optionally convertible debentures aggregating ₹ 385.00 million to two companies. As of December 31, 2010 we had disbursed ₹ 385.00 million, out of which ₹ 340.00 million has been repaid, and ₹ 45.00 million remains outstanding.

Debt Finance. We provide fund based and non-fund based debt financing, including short-term and long-term debt, as well as structured debt financing. In addition to financing project companies, we also provide bridge financing to promoters of power projects. As of December 31, 2010, our Board had approved debt commitments aggregating ₹ 22,567.30 million to 31 companies, with projects aggregating 8,982.20 MW of power generation capacity. Of these approved debt commitments, as of December 31, 2010, we had entered into definitive agreements for financing arrangements for an aggregate amount of ₹ 11,198.72 million to 17 companies, with power projects aggregating 8,283 MW of power generation capacity. As of December 31, 2010, we had outstanding loan financing of ₹ 5,951.15 million to 13 companies with projects representing 6,794 MW of aggregate power generation capacity. As of December 31, 2010, we did not have any non-performing assets in our outstanding loan portfolio.

Fee-based and other Services. We provide various fee-based services including facility agent and security agent services, as well as advisory services such as techno-economic feasibility studies for power projects in India. In addition, in March 2010 we commenced carbon credit financing, which involves purchase of future CERs from power project developers for sale to third parties.

As of December 31, 2010 our Board had approved funding in form of funding against CERs aggregating ₹ 306.11 million to two companies with projects aggregating 108 MW capacity.

Sources of Funds. Our primary sources of funds include equity, term loans and non-convertible debentures ("NCDs") issued by us. We have issued secured NCDs on a private placement basis in October 2009 and February 2010. As of December 31, 2010, we had ₹ 2,000.00 million in outstanding NCDs and ₹ 2773.69 million in other borrowings. As of December 31, 2010, our NCDs represented 41.90% of our outstanding total indebtedness. Our long-term bank borrowings have been rated "LA+ (positive outlook)" by ICRA, while our NCDs have been rated "LA+ (positive outlook)" by ICRA and "BWR AA" (stable outlook) by Brickwork. Our short-term borrowings have been rated "A1+" by ICRA, which is the highest credit quality rating assigned by ICRA to short term debt instruments. In October 2010, we have also entered into ECB agreement with Deutsche Investitions - UND Entwicklungsgesellschaft MBH ("DEG") for an aggregate amount of US$ 26.00 million (₹1165.06 million) for on-lending to renewable energy projects. We have also raised funds through capital contributions from our Promoter and our other shareholders.

In fiscal 2008, 2009 and 2010, and in the nine months ended December 31, 2010, our total income was ₹ 31.38 million, ₹ 116.00 million and ₹ 534.90 million, and ₹ 825.44 million, respectively, and our profit after tax was ₹ 16.41 million, ₹ 85.30 million, ₹ 254.52 million, and ₹ 312.18 million, respectively. We maintain our capital adequacy ratios above the minimum levels of 15.0% prescribed by the RBI for IFCs. Our capital adequacy ratios were 97.90%, 275.36%, 88.30% and 60.57% as of March 31, 2008, 2009 and 2010, and December 31, 2010, respectively.

Factors Affecting Results of Operations

Our business, results of operations and financial condition are affected by a number of factors, including the performance of the Indian economy and the power sector generally and the projects we finance in particular. The following is a discussion of the factors that have had, and we expect will continue to have, a significant effect on our financial results:

Timely execution of projects

Given the long gestation periods for projects we fund, the projects are susceptible to changes in various factors, such as interest rates, statutory regulations and policies, the cost and availability of raw materials and other key inputs and general economic conditions. These factors could affect projects' viability in the implementation stages, which impact the ability of the borrowers to service our loans in a timely manner. Moreover, in certain cases, borrowers are not required to make any repayments until the commencement of project operations, impacting our results of operations in the event of delays in execution of the project. If borrowers fail to make payments of interest or principal in a timely manner may also affect the asset classification as per the terms of applicable prudential norms and consequently we may be unable to recognise revenue from these loans on an accrual basis and may also call for additional provisioning in accordance with applicable prudential norms. Similarly, a delay in the execution of projects in which we have made principal investments has a direct effect on our ability to make profitably exit from such investments in a timely manner, thereby impacting our results of operations.

Availability of cost effective sources of funds and ability to raise capital

Our ability to compete effectively is dependent on our ability to maintain a low effective cost of funds. If we are unable to access funds at an effective cost that is comparable to or lower than our competitors, whether due to a change in GoI policy or a reduction in our credit rating or due to other factors, we may not be able to offer competitive interest rates to our borrowers. We recently have been classified by the RBI as one of the few Infrastructure Finance Companies, or IFCs, in India, which we believe improves our ability to raise funds on a cost-competitive basis and take higher debt exposure in power projects.

Interest rate volatility

Our results of operations are affected by volatility in interest rates. Our business is significantly dependent on interest income from our lending and treasury operations. In fiscal 2010 and in the nine months ended December 31, 2010, interest income represented 51.44% and 70.19%, respectively, of our total income in such periods. Accordingly, we are affected by volatility in interest rates in our lending and treasury operations. Our policy is to attempt to balance the proportion and maturity of our interest-earning assets, which bear fixed interest rates, with interest-bearing liabilities. A majority of our liabilities, such as our secured non-convertible debentures, and short term loans carry fixed rates of interest and the remaining are linked to the respective banks' benchmark prime lending rate/base rate. Interest rates are highly sensitive to many factors beyond our control, including the monetary policies of the RBI, deregulation of the financial sector in India, domestic and international economic and political conditions and other factors. Due to these factors, interest rates in India have historically experienced and may continue to experience a relatively high degree of volatility.

When interest rates decline, our borrowers may seek re-pricing of our loans to them based on the terms of their loan agreements with us or due to commercial considerations resulting from competitive conditions. Additionally, if we are unable or unwilling to competitively re-price our loans, we may be subject to greater levels of pre-payments on such loans.

When interest rates rise, we may be more susceptible to such increases than our competitors that have access to lower cost funds, particularly if we have a higher portion of floating rate borrowings or borrowings with shorter durations than that of our competitors. Although we are able to reset interest rates in accordance with the terms of certain of our financing arrangements, we may be unable to do so in a favourable manner because of competitive pressures. If our cost of borrowing is more susceptible to increases of interest rates than our competitors, we may not be able to competitively price our loans.

Growth of the power sector in India

Our financial results are significantly affected by general economic conditions prevailing in India and in particular by developments in the power sector, including increases in the demand for power and expectations for power-related projects and increased investments in integrated power projects in India.

We believe that the power sector will continue to be one of the prime driving forces of the Indian economy and that the continued growth of the Indian economy will be met by increased investment in the power sector, both public and private. A total capacity addition of 78,700 MW is planned for the 11th Five-Year Plan which should result in significant investments in the power generation sector. According to the White Paper on Strategy for Eleventh Plan, prepared by the Central Electricity Authority and Confederation of Indian Industry, August 2007, the total fund requirement has been assessed to ₹ 10.32 trillion. We believe our business has been, and will continue to be, a prime beneficiary from the increased growth of, and investment into, the Indian power sector.

Power sector development in India has historically been the preserve of central and state governments, and has been constrained by various factors such as shortages of public funding, political considerations and issues of transparency and accountability. The statutory and regulatory framework for the Indian power sector has changed significantly in recent years and the impact of these changes is yet to be completely seen. The Electricity Act provides a framework for reforms in the sector, but in many areas the details and timing are yet to be determined. It is expected that many of these reforms will take time to be fully implemented. Furthermore, there could be additional changes in the areas of tariff and other policies, the unbundling of GoI owned power utilities, restructuring of companies in the power sector, open access and parallel distribution, and licensing requirements for, and tax incentives applicable to, companies in the power sector.

Competition

Competition in our industry depends on, among other things, the ongoing evolution of Government policies relating to the industry, the entry of new participants into the industry and the extent to which there is consolidation among banks, financial institutions and NBFCs in India. Our ability to compete effectively is dependent on our ability to maintain a low effective cost of funds. With the growth of our business, we are increasingly reliant on funding from the equity and debt markets and commercial borrowings. The market for such funds is competitive and our ability to obtain funds on acceptable terms or at all will depend on various factors including our ability to maintain and improve our credit ratings. The activity of identifying, completing and harvesting attractive investments is also highly competitive. We will be competing for investments with many other entities providing capital resources, including financial institutions focused on power sector investments, infrastructure funds, private equity funds, public and private companies and hedge funds. Similarly, these entities may seek to dispose off infrastructure assets at the same time as us, thereby resulting in a decline in the value of such assets. However, we believe we have a significant competitive advantage being a subsidiary of PTC, which is the market leader for power trading solutions in India (according to the Central Electricity Regulatory Commission monthly report on short term transactions of electricity for December, 2010). PTC along with its affiliates provides comprehensive solutions in the energy value chain including services such as power trading, co-development, fuel-intermediation, consulting and is in the process of setting up an energy equity fund. We believe the synergies among the group entities provide us with early access to potential business opportunities, ability to understand and cater to the needs of the developers with agility and in a comprehensive manner.

Performance of companies we invest in

We generally take minority equity position in project companies and do not manage, operate or control such companies. Although we may seek to obtain board representation or other management rights, in connection with our investments in such projects, there can be no assurance that these rights, if sought, will be obtained. Furthermore, even in the case where we may have certain rights to be represented on the board of directors of the project companies in which we invest or to participate in certain significant business decisions or have other management rights, we do not expect to have an active role in the day-to-day operations of those project companies. These investments will be subject to the risk that such companies may make business, financial or management decisions with which we do not agree, or that the majority stakeholders or the management of such companies may take risks or otherwise act in a manner that does not serve our interest. The actions taken by the management of project companies that we do not control may affect our financial performance.

Critical Accounting Policies

Critical accounting policies are those that are important both to the portrayal of our Company's financial condition and results of operations and that also require management's most subjective and complex judgments. In order to provide an understanding about how management forms its judgment about the most appropriate accounting policy to be followed for complex transactions and future events, our Company identifies the following critical accounting policies:

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires the management of the Company to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported balances of assets and liabilities, revenues and expenses and disclosures relating to the contingent liabilities. The management believes that the estimates used in preparation of the financial statements are prudent and reasonable. Future results could differ from these estimates. Any revision to accounting estimates is recognized prospectively in the current and future periods.

Fixed assets including intangible assets and depreciation

Fixed assets including intangible assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation/amortisation. Cost of acquisition comprises purchase price, duties, levies and any directly attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for the intended use.

Depreciation on fixed assets (other than intangible assets) is charged on a pro-rata basis at the written down value rates prescribed in Schedule XIV to the Companies Act, 1956. Assets costing upto ₹ 5,000 are fully depreciated in the year of purchase.

Intangible assets comprising of software are amortized on a straight line method over a period of 5 years or less depending on the estimated useful life of the assets.

Investments

Investments that are readily realizable and intended to be held for not more than a year are classified as current investments. All other investments are classified as long-term investments. Long Term Investments are stated at cost. A provision for diminution (if any) is made to recognize a decline other than temporary in the value of investment. Current investments are carried at the lower of cost and fair value.

Revenue recognition

- Interest and other dues are accounted on accrual basis.
- Dividend is accounted when the right to receive is established.
- Fee based incomes are recognised when reasonable right of recovery is established and the revenue can be reliably measured.
- Revenue from power supply is accounted on accrual basis.

Employee stock options

The Company calculates the employee stock compensation expense based on the intrinsic value method wherein the excess of intrinsic price of underlying equity shares as on the date of the grant of options over the exercise price of the options given to employees under the Employee Stock Option Scheme of the Company, is recognized as deferred stock compensation expense and is amortized over the vesting period of options.

Provisions and contingencies

Provisions are recognized when the Company has a present obligation as a result of past events, for which it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate of the amount can be made. Provisions required to settle are reviewed regularly and are adjusted where necessary to reflect the current best estimates of the obligation. A disclosure for a contingent liability is made when there is a possible obligation or a present obligation that probably will not require an outflow of resources or where a reliable estimate of obligation cannot be made

Performance Indicators

We use a variety of tools to measure our performance from year on year. These indicators are presented in tabular form in the section titled “Selected Statistical Information” beginning on page 238.

Under net interest margin analysis we try to measure the efficiency of our borrowing and lending operations using tools such as

- Net interest income, which represents our total interest income net of total interest expense;
- Yield, which is the ratio of interest income on loan financing to the yearly average of interest earning assets;
- Cost of funds, which is the ratio of interest expense to the yearly average of interest bearing liabilities;
- Spread, which is the difference between yield and cost of funds; and
- Net interest margin, which is the ratio of net interest income to average interest earning assets.

For additional details on the calculation of certain performance indicators included in the discussion that follows, including the definitions thereof, see the section titled “Selected Statistical Information” beginning on page 238.

Principal Components of Income and Expenditure

Income

Our income consists of income from investments, income from interest, fee based income, income from the sale of power and other income.

- Investment income comprises interest on investment in convertible debentures of project companies, dividend income from our investment in mutual funds, capital gains from our sale of principal investments, and capital gains from short term current investments, particularly mutual funds. Since most of our principal investments are in greenfield and brownfield projects, we have not so far received any dividend income from our principal investments in project companies. We may in the future receive such dividend income from our equity investments which will be reflected in income from investments.

We made our first equity investment in December 2007 in IEX. In fiscal 2008, we made a total investment of ₹ 309.71 million in three projects. In fiscal 2009, we made additional equity investment of ₹ 1,085.12 million in six projects, including the three projects we invested in fiscal 2008. We followed this in fiscal 2010, with additional equity investment of ₹ 2,306.92 million in an aggregate of five projects, including projects in which we had made investments earlier. Most of these projects are greenfield and brownfield projects, and have not commenced operations, except for the three projects we invested in fiscal 2008.

- Income from interest includes interest on loan financing and interest on fixed deposits. Interest on loan financing comprises interest income on short term and long term loans extended to our borrowers, and interest on fixed deposits.
- Income from sale of power reflects income from the sale of power to Bangalore Electricity Supply Company Limited (BESCOM). The power is produced by our windmill in the State of Karnataka with an installed capacity of 6 MW that was commissioned on March 31, 2010, from which we sell power.
- Fee based income comprises primarily processing fees and upfront fees in connection with our loan financing business. Fee based income also includes income from the provision of various financial services, including letters of comfort issued for borrowers in favour of banks, consultancy fees.
- Other income comprises miscellaneous income, including interest on employee loans, if any and certain miscellaneous income, including payments received by us for technical fees incurred by us in connection with assessing potential investment opportunities in power projects.

Expenditure

Our expenditure includes:

- Interest and other charges relating to interest on loans availed by us and on our debentures, as well as commitment and agency fees, upfront fees and related bank charges.
- Personnel expenses, which include staff costs comprising salaries, contributions to provident, gratuity and superannuation funds and other staff welfare expenses as well as expenses relating to our employee stock option schemes.
- Administration and other expenses, which include legal and professional (recurring fees for (a) legal advisors for legal due diligence in connection with potential debt financing and principal investment opportunities, (b) for credit rating agencies, and (c) retainers for tax and regulatory compliances), fund raising expense relating to our debenture issuances, rates and taxes, rent, travelling and conveyance, communication, business development, donation, directors' sitting fees, repairs and maintenance, books and periodicals, loss on foreign currency translation and miscellaneous expenses as well as expenses relating to increase in share capital; and

- Depreciation and amortization.

Nine months ended December 31, 2010

Our total income was ₹ 825.44 million in the nine months ended December 31, 2010.

Income from investments

Income from investments was ₹ 141.42 million in the nine months ended December 31, 2010, comprising primarily ₹ 123.66 million in profit on the sale of long term trade investments. This was attributable to the sale of a portion of our equity investment in IEX, which was our first sale in principal investments. As a result of the sale in September 2010, our shareholding in IEX reduced to 21.12% from 26.00% prior to the sale.

In the nine months ended December 31, 2010 our income from non-trade current investments was ₹ 11.99 million. This represents a significant decline compared to prior periods. This was because of a reduction in income from dividends from mutual funds purchased with our temporary surplus funds. Our temporary surplus funds have been progressively utilized in our principal investments business, thereby resulting in a corresponding progressive decline in investments in mutual funds.

Similarly, our income from debentures in the nine months ended December 31, 2010 was ₹ 5.68 million, representing a significant decline compared to prior periods. This was attributable primarily to the (i) conversion in March 2010 into equity shares of ₹ 600.00 million of convertible debentures of an investee company; and (ii) redemption in April 2010 of ₹ 340.00 million of convertible debentures of another investee company. In prior periods we earned income from dividends from these debentures, which included ₹ 600.00 million of convertible debentures in which we invested in March 2009, and ₹ 340.00 million of convertible debentures in which we invested in September 2009.

Income from interest on loan financing

Income from interest on loan financing was ₹ 541.30 million in the nine months ended December 31, 2010. We earned interest on our loan financing portfolio of ₹ 5,951.15 million as of December 31, 2010. The loan financing portfolio includes ₹ 3,289.14 million in net disbursements in the nine months ended December 31, 2010.

Income from interest from fixed deposits

Income from interest on fixed deposits was ₹ 38.05 million in the nine months ended December 31, 2010. This represents a significant decline compared to prior periods. This was because of a reduction in income from interest from fixed deposits, which primarily consisted of our temporary surplus funds. Our temporary surplus funds have been progressively utilized in our principal investments business, thereby resulting in a corresponding progressive decline in our fixed deposits.

Fee based income

Fee based income was ₹ 66.69 million in the nine months ended December 31, 2010. Our fee based income comprised primarily processing fees and upfront fees on loan financing arrangements sanctioned by our Board. Fee based income also included fees for techno-economic advisory, fees for issuing letter of comfort and facility agent fees. The net loan financing amount sanctioned by our Board in the nine months ended December 31, 2010 was ₹ 8,080.95 million.

Income from sale of power

We recorded an income of ₹ 35.45 million from the sale of power in the nine months ended December 31, 2010, which represented the first financial period of operations of our windmill project.

Other income

Our other income was ₹ 2.53 million in the nine months ended December 31, 2010.

Personnel expenses was significantly lower than that in to prior periods because of the surrender or forfeiture of ESOPs aggregating 15.13 million in the nine months ended December 31, 2010. This resulted in a write back of ESOPs charged to our income statement in earlier periods.

Administrative and other expenses

Our administrative and other expenses was ₹ 33.43 million in the nine months ended December 31, 2010. The main constituents of our administrative and other expenses was legal and professional expenses of ₹ 12.74 million in the nine months ended December 31, 2010 paid to retainers, consultants, rating agencies and auditors for various services, including to Dhir & Dhir Associates for legal due diligence on potential investments in power projects, to KPMG for regulatory and compliance services, and to Derivium for risk management. Depreciation and Amortization

Depreciation and amortization expense was ₹ 40.51 million in the nine months ended December 31, 2010. Our depreciation and amortization expenses in the nine months ended December 31, 2010 was attributable almost entirely to the depreciation of our 6 MW windmill that we acquired on March 31, 2010. Provision for contingencies

This is the first financial period in which we have created a provision for contingencies against our standard assets as a response to the RBI circular dated January 17, 2011, attributable to loan financing, advances against CERs, as well as interest accrued on infrastructure loans.

Profit before Tax and Extraordinary Items

Our profit before tax and extraordinary items was ₹ 442.92 million in the nine months ended December 31, 2010. As a percentage of total income, our profit before tax and extraordinary items was 53.66% in the nine months ended December 31, 2010.

Our provision for tax was ₹ 130.74 million in the nine months ended December 31, 2010, comprising provision for current tax of ₹ 102.65 million and provision for deferred tax charge of ₹ 28.09 million. The provision for deferred tax liability in the nine months ended December 31, 2010 was created on account of timing difference on the written down value of our windmill due to the different rates of depreciation under the Income Tax Act and the Companies Act. For additional details, please refer Note 8. Part C of Annexure V to our restated financial statements included in this Red Herring Prospectus.

Net Profit as Restated

As a result of the foregoing, net profit as restated was ₹ 312.18 million in the nine months ended December 31, 2010.

Fiscal 2010 compared to Fiscal 2009

Income

Our total income increased by ₹ 418.90 million, or 361.12%, from ₹ 116.00 million in fiscal 2009 to ₹ 534.90 million in fiscal 2010.

Income from investments

Income from investments increased 106.37% to ₹ 212.81 million in fiscal 2010 from ₹ 103.12 million in fiscal 2009. The increase was attributable primarily to an increase in our income from our investments in debentures, which increased to ₹ 166.34 million in fiscal 2010 compared to ₹ 4.42 million in fiscal 2009. Our income from our investments in debentures in fiscal 2010 was attributable to interest income from (i) ₹ 600.00 million of convertible debentures of East Coast Energy Private Limited in which we invested in March 2009, and (ii) ₹

340.00 million of convertible debentures of Meenakshi Energy and Infrastructure Holdings Private Limited in which we invested in September 2009.

Dividend income from our investments in mutual funds in fiscal 2010 of ₹ 46.41 million, declining 62.01% from ₹ 122.17 million in fiscal 2009. This was because of a reduction in income from dividends from mutual funds purchased with our temporary surplus funds. This was for two reasons: (i) in fiscal 2010, we adopted a new investment policy that required us to maintain at least 50% of our temporary surplus funds in fixed deposits, which resulted in us reducing the level of our temporary surplus funds invested in mutual funds; and (ii) our aggregate surplus funds have been progressively utilized in our principal investments business, thereby resulting in a corresponding progressive decline in our investments in mutual funds.

Although we made significant equity investments in fiscal 2009 and 2010, since most of our existing equity investments are in greenfield and brownfield projects under various stages of implementation, we were yet to receive any dividend or capital gain income from our equity investments in fiscals 2009 and 2010. In fiscal 2009, we made aggregate equity investments of ₹ 1,085.12 million in six projects, while in fiscal 2010 we made aggregate equity investments of ₹ 2,306.92 million in five projects (in two additional projects compared to fiscal 2009).

Income from interest on loan financing

Interest on loan financing was ₹ 135.74 million in fiscal 2010, compared to ₹ 0.14 million in fiscal 2009. This increase was because most of our loan disbursements took place during fiscal 2010. We earned interest on our loan financing portfolio of ₹ 2,662.01 million as of March 31, 2010, including ₹ 2,462.91 million in net disbursements in fiscal 2010.

Income from interest from fixed deposits

Income from interest on fixed deposits increased to ₹ 139.39 million in fiscal 2010 from ₹ 3.39 million in fiscal 2009. This increase was mainly attributable to the following reason: (i) in fiscal 2010, we adopted a new investment policy that required us to maintain at least 50% of our surplus funds in fixed deposits, which resulted in us increasing the level of our surplus funds in fixed deposits.

Fee based income

Fee based income increased by ₹ 37.44 million, or 401.28%, to ₹ 46.77 million in fiscal 2010 from ₹ 9.33 million in fiscal 2009. Our fee based income comprised primarily processing fees and upfront fees on loan financing arrangements sanctioned by our Board. Our fee based income also included fees for issuing letters of comfort. The net loan financing amount sanctioned by our Board in fiscal 2010 was ₹ 11,643.70 million, compared to ₹ 2,842.65 million in fiscal 2009.

Income from sale of power

We commenced the operation of our windmill project on March 31, 2010, and recorded an income of ₹ 0.01 million from sale of power in fiscal 2010.

Other income

Our other income increased to ₹ 0.18 million in fiscal 2010 from ₹ 0.02 million in fiscal 2009. This increase was largely due to write back in fiscal 2010 of excess provisions recognized in fiscal 2009 for personnel expenses.

Expenditure

Our total expenditure increased by ₹ 138.70 million, or 475.00%, from ₹ 29.20 million in fiscal 2009 to ₹ 167.90 million in fiscal 2010. The increased expenditure resulted primarily from an increase in other interest and other charges relating to our borrowings. As a percentage of our total income, our expenditure was 31.39% in fiscal 2010 as compared to 25.17% in fiscal 2009.

Interest and other charges

Interest and other charges increased significantly by ₹ 115.86 million from ₹ 0.18 million in fiscal 2009 to ₹ 116.04 million in fiscal 2010. This increase was primarily due to increased interest paid on our outstanding borrowings, which aggregated ₹ 3,108.01 million as of March 31, 2010, including ₹ 2,908.01 million in net additional borrowings in fiscal 2010. As a percentage of total income, interest payments and other charges increased from 0.15% in fiscal 2009 to 21.69% in fiscal 2010.

Personnel expenses

Our personnel expenses, including staff costs, increased by ₹ 16.15 million, or 169.11%, from ₹ 9.55 million in fiscal 2009 to ₹ 25.70 million in fiscal 2010. The increase was primarily due to the increased charge on account of ESOP expenses for the second tranche of our ESOP issued in October 2009 as well as on account of increase in number of employees. Charge towards ESOP expenses increased from ₹ 1.0 million in fiscal 2009 to ₹ 11.40 million in fiscal 2010. As a percentage of total income, personnel expenses however decreased from 8.23% in fiscal 2009 to 4.80% in fiscal 2010.

Administrative and other expenses

Our administrative and other expenses increased by ₹ 6.46 million, or 33.59%, from ₹ 19.23 million in fiscal 2009 to ₹ 25.69 million in fiscal 2010. The increase was primarily due to fund raising expenses of ₹ 8.61 million, comprising fees paid to the arrangers, incurred in fiscal 2010 relating to our non-convertible debenture issues as well as an increase in legal and professional expenses. As a percentage of total income, administrative and other expense however decreased from 16.58% in fiscal 2009 to 4.80% in fiscal 2010.

Depreciation and amortization

Depreciation and amortization expense increased by ₹ 0.23 million, or 95.83%, from ₹ 0.24 million in fiscal 2009 to ₹ 0.47 million in fiscal 2010 attributable to our 6 MW windmill, which we acquired on March 31, 2010. As a percentage of total income, depreciation and amortization expense decreased from 0.21% in fiscal 2009 to 0.09% in fiscal 2010.

Profit before Tax and Extraordinary Items

Our profit before tax and extraordinary items increased by ₹ 280.20 million, or 322.81%, from ₹ 86.80 million in fiscal 2009 to ₹ 367.00 million in fiscal 2010. As a percentage of total income, our profit before tax and extraordinary items however decreased from 74.83% in fiscal 2009 to 68.61% in fiscal 2010.

Provision for Taxation, Deferred Tax Liability and Fringe Benefit Tax

Provision for current year taxation was ₹ 65.11 million for fiscal 2010. We did not create a provision for current year taxation in fiscal 2009 because most of the income earned was from dividend from investments in mutual funds, which is currently exempt from income tax.

Our provisions created for deferred tax liability for fiscal 2010 were ₹ 47.37 million as compared to ₹ 1.39 million for fiscal 2009. The higher provision for deferred tax liability in fiscal 2010 was created on account of timing difference on the written down value of our windmill due to the different rates of depreciation under the Income Tax Act and the Companies Act. For additional details, please refer Note 8. Part C of Annexure V to our restated financial statements included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

Fringe benefit tax for fiscal 2009 was ₹ 0.11 million. We did not incur any fringe benefit tax in fiscal 2010 as this was repealed from fiscal 2010.

Net Profit as Restated

As a result of the foregoing, net profit as restated increased by ₹ 169.22 million, or 198.38%, from ₹ 85.30 million in fiscal 2009 to ₹ 254.52 million in fiscal 2010.

Fiscal 2009 compared to Fiscal 2008

Our total income increased 269.66% to ₹ 116.00 million in fiscal 2009 from ₹ 31.38 million in fiscal 2008. This increase was attributable primarily to our income from investments in mutual funds. We commenced our loan financing business by disbursing our first loan of ₹ 200.00 million on March 30, 2009. Accordingly, we recorded ₹ 0.14 million in interest from debt financing in fiscal 2009, and did not record any revenues from loan financing in fiscal 2008.

Income from investments

Income from investments increased 233.29% to ₹ 103.12 million in fiscal 2009 from ₹ 30.94 million in fiscal 2008. The increase was attributable primarily to dividend income from our investments in mutual funds of ₹ 122.17 million in fiscal 2009, offset in part by a loss on the sale of non trade current investments, comprising shares, of ₹ 36.02 million.

The increase in dividend income was due to the equity infusion of ₹ 1,901.33 million by our shareholders in April 2008 and ₹ 3,000.00 million in March 2009, resulting in an increase in temporary surplus funds in fiscal 2009 compared to fiscal 2008. As these temporary surplus funds were scheduled to be utilized over a period of time, pending disbursement into power projects, these temporary surplus funds were deployed in non trade current investments, primarily mutual funds, resulting in increased income from dividends in fiscal 2009 compared to fiscal 2008.

We incurred a loss on the sale of shares (non trade current investments) of ₹ 36.02 million in fiscal 2009 compared to a profit on the sale of shares of ₹ 4.09 million in fiscal 2008. This was because we incurred losses on selling treasury equity investments that we had made in fiscal 2008 through various discretionary portfolio management schemes.

Although we made significant principal equity investments in fiscal 2008 and 2009, since most of our existing equity investments are in greenfield and brownfield projects under various stages of implementation, we did not receive any dividend or capital gain income on account of our principal equity investments in fiscal 2009 or fiscal 2008. In fiscal 2009, we made aggregate equity investments of ₹ 1,085.12 million in a total of six projects (including three additional projects in fiscal 2009), while in fiscal 2008 we made aggregate equity investments of ₹ 309.71 million in three projects.

Income from interest from fixed deposits

Income from interest on fixed deposits increased to ₹ 3.39 million in fiscal 2009 from ₹ 0.44 million in fiscal 2008. This increase was because of increased temporary surplus funds in fiscal 2009 compared to fiscal 2008 because of the equity infusion by shareholders described above, thereby resulting in higher levels of funds held in fixed deposits in fiscal 2009 compared to fiscal 2008.

Fee based income

Fee based income in fiscal 2009 was ₹ 9.33 million. We did not record any fee based income in fiscal 2008 because we only commenced disbursing loans in fiscal 2009.

Other Income

Our other income in fiscal 2009 was ₹ 0.02 million. We did not record other income in fiscal 2008.

Expenditure

Our total expenditure increased by ₹ 9.25 million, or 46.37%, from ₹ 19.95 million in fiscal 2008 to ₹ 29.20 million in fiscal 2009. The increased expenditure resulted primarily from increase in personnel expenses. As a percentage of our total income, our expenditure was 63.58% in fiscal 2008 as compared to 25.17% in fiscal 2009.

Interest and Other Charges

We did not incur any interest or other charges in fiscal 2008 because we did not incur any debt until fiscal 2009. Our interest and other charges in fiscal 2009 was ₹ 0.18 million, which constituted 0.15% of our total income in fiscal 2009.

Personnel Expenses

Our personnel expenses, including staff costs, increased by ₹ 6.81 million, or 248.54%, from ₹ 2.74 million in fiscal 2008 to ₹ 9.55 million in fiscal 2009. The increase was primarily due to recruitment of additional employees, including senior management commensurate with the growth in operations of our Company. As a percentage of total income, personnel expenses decreased from 8.73% in fiscal 2008 to 8.23% in fiscal 2009.

Administrative and Other Expenses

Our administrative and other expenses increased by ₹ 2.10 million, or 12.26%, from ₹ 17.13 million in fiscal 2008 to ₹ 19.23 million in fiscal 2009. The increase was primarily due to increases in rent expense, legal and professional expenses, travel expenses and rates and taxes, reflecting our growth in operations.

As a percentage of total income, administrative and other expense decreased from 54.59% in fiscal 2008 to 16.58% in fiscal 2009.

Depreciation and Amortization

Depreciation and amortization expense increased by 200.00% from ₹ 0.08 million in fiscal 2008 to ₹ 0.24 million in fiscal 2009 due to increase in office infrastructure.

As a percentage of total income, depreciation and amortization expense decreased from 0.25% in fiscal 2008 to 0.21% in fiscal 2009.

Profit before Tax and Extraordinary Items

Our profit before tax and extraordinary items increased by ₹ 75.37 million, or 659.41%, from ₹ 11.43 million in fiscal 2008 to ₹ 86.80 million in fiscal 2009.

As a percentage of total income, our profit before tax and extraordinary items increased from 36.42% in fiscal 2008 to 74.83% in fiscal 2009.

Provision for Taxation, Deferred Tax Liability and Fringe Benefit Tax

We did not create provisions for current year taxation in fiscal 2009 or fiscal 2008 because there was no business income, and the majority of our income came from dividend income from investments in mutual funds, which is currently tax exempt.

Our provision created for deferred tax liability for fiscal 2009 was ₹ 1.39 million for fiscal 2009 as compared to a deferred tax benefit of ₹ 5.01 million in fiscal 2008.

Our provision created for fringe benefit tax for fiscal 2009 was ₹ 0.11 million and for fiscal 2008 was ₹ 0.03 million. The increase was due to the increase in the number of employees.

Net Profit as Restated

Our profit after tax and extraordinary items (net of taxes) increased by ₹ 68.89 million, or 419.80%, from ₹ 16.41 million in fiscal 2008 to ₹ 85.30 million in fiscal 2009.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

As our Company's debt finance business consists of borrowing funds and on-lending such funds to its customers in the form of loan products, our Company may experience timing differences between receipt of fund from borrowings and on-lending of such funds. These timing differences result in ongoing, but temporary cash balances on our Company's books.

Cash flows

As of December 31, 2010, we had cash and cash equivalents of ₹ 664.06 million. As of March 31, 2010, we had cash and cash equivalents of ₹ 2,344.74 million, compared to ₹ 4,086.92 million, ₹ 1.42 million and ₹ 40.57 million as on March 31, 2009, 2008 and 2007, respectively.

The most significant element of these increases was on account of higher outstanding borrowings necessitated by the growth in our loan financing business.

Our total interest-bearing liabilities increased by 1,454.01% from ₹ 200.00 million as of March 31, 2009 to ₹ 3,108.01 million as of March 31, 2010. CAPITAL RESOURCES

Equity

Equity from PTC India Ltd. was our initial source of funding. In December 2007, GS Strategic Investments Limited and Macquarie India Holdings Limited agreed to each take 20% of our equity, leaving PTC India Ltd. with 60%. Currently, PTC India Ltd. holds 77.6% stake while the remaining 22.4% is held equally between Goldman Sachs Strategic Investments Limited and Macquarie India Holdings Limited.

Loan Funds

Our loan funds comprised secured loans. Our loan funds have shown a substantial increase on account of higher outstanding loan borrowings necessitated by the growth in our loan financing business. As of March 31, 2010, our loan funds increased by ₹ 2,908.01 million or 1,454.01%, to ₹ 3,108.01 million from ₹ 200.00 million as of March 31, 2009. As of December 31, 2010, our loan funds were ₹ 4,773.69 million.

Our secured loans include funds generated from placement of bonds and commercial borrowings.

Placements of secured bonds. We have raised funds from the bond markets by issuing two series of non-convertible debentures totalling ₹ 2,000 million in fiscal 2010. Both series bonds are taxable bonds. As of December 31 30, 2010, we had aggregate outstanding bonds of ₹ 2,000.00 million.

Commercial borrowings. We make rupee-denominated borrowings through term loans from banks and financial institutions. As of December 31, 2010, the aggregate amount of outstanding rupee-denominated term loans was ₹ 2,623.69 million.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements and Financial Instruments

Contingent Liabilities

As of December 31, 2010, we did not have any contingent liabilities.

Undisbursed Approvals

We also issue in the ordinary course of our business loan sanctions which are not accounted for as a liability on our balance sheet. As of December 31, 2010, we had documented, unfunded outstanding loan sanctions of ₹ 5,247.57 million.

Foreign Exchange Transactions

Currently we do not have any foreign exchange exposure. However, in October 2010 we entered into an agreement with DEG, Germany, in connection with a term loan facility of US$ 26.00 million (₹ 1165.06 million) in external commercial borrowings. We will be unable to drawdown this credit facility until we have in place hedging arrangements to the extent of the entire foreign exchange exposure as required by applicable RBI regulations.

Hedging Transactions

We do not currently undertake any hedging transactions. However, we are required under applicable RBI guidelines to adopt hedging policies to cover all foreign currency risk arising from foreign currency borrowings. We intend to undertake hedging transactions concurrent on incurring any foreign currency borrowings.

Capital Expenditure

Our business has not in the past required substantial capital expenditure. Our net fixed assets of ₹ 311.10 million as of December 31, 2010 consist mainly of a wind mill, buildings, furniture and fixtures, computers, and office equipment.

Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosure about Market Risk

The following discussion about our market risk disclosures involves forward-looking statements. Actual results could differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking statements. We are exposed to market risk related to changes in interest rates. We also are exposed to regulatory risk in relation to our financing and principal investment activities. We do not use derivative financial instruments.

Interest Rate Risk

Management's objective is to minimize the cost of borrowing through an appropriate mix of fixed and floating rate debt. If prevailing interest rates were to increase 100 basis points over the rates at December 31, 2010, and the variable rate of interest on outstanding borrowings remained constant, our interest expense would increase by ₹ 15.39 million, and net profit after taxes would decrease by ₹ 10.37 million in the nine months ended December 31, 2010.

Liquidity risk

In accordance with our policy for investment of surplus funds, we aim to use our treasury to manage liquidity, provide a steady source of income with minimal risks and increase the overall return on assets. Our treasury policy lays down guidelines for the permissible types of investments we can make and their monitoring. Through our treasury operations, we maintain liquidity to repay borrowings as they mature and make new loans and investments as opportunities arise. Our investments are predominantly in units of debt mutual funds, and in bank deposits. Liquidity risk arises from the absence of liquid resources, when funding loans, and repaying borrowings. This could be due to a decline in the expected collection, or our inability to raise adequate resources at an appropriate price. This risk is minimized through a mix of strategies, including the maintenance of back up bank credit lines and following a forward-looking borrowing programme based on projected loans and maturing obligations. We also monitor liquidity risk through our asset liability management function with the help of liquidity gap reports. This involves the categorization of all assets and liabilities in different maturity profiles, and evaluating them for any mismatches in any particular maturities, especially in the short-term. The asset liability management policy is based on RBI guidelines and ALCO guidelines and establishes the maximum allowed mismatches in the various maturities. The objectives of our asset liability management policy are to develop a framework for market risk management, align market risk management with our overall strategic objectives, articulate current interest rate view and determine pricing, mix and maturity profile of assets and liabilities consistent with the interest rate view and risk-management objectives. The asset liability management policy involves liquidity risk management by preparing and analyzing the liquidity gap reports and providing preventive and corrective measures. It also addresses the interest rate risk by providing for duration gap analysis and control by providing limits to the gaps. The asset liability management policy also provides the guidelines for managing currency risk. We are also required to submit Asset Liability Management Return on monthly / half yearly basis to RBI. The following table sets out a summary of our asset liability maturity profile (statement of structural liquidity) prepared by us as of December 31, 2010:

The following table sets forth, for the periods indicated, the average balances for interest earning assets and interest bearing liabilities together with the related interest income and expense amounts, resulting in the presentation of the average yields and cost for each period.

The average balance for interest earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities is calculated as the weighted average of interest earning asset and interest bearing liabilities for the period it remains outstanding on a daily average basis. Our calculation of the average balance may not be comparable with other Indian banks and financial institutions for the following reasons: (1) we have not considered fee based income associated with the loan financing business or fee based charges payable to the banks because ours is a new business, and including these fee based income and charges may reflect an unrealistically high net interest margins, and (2) we have not considered interest income earned through fixed deposits contrary to the practice followed by banks and financial institutions. We believe, however, that due to the nature of our portfolio, which is concentrated on relatively longer-term assets and liabilities, the volatility of our assets and liabilities is lower than that of most banks and financial institutions.

The following table sets forth information relating to the performance of our loan financing business. The average yield on interest-earning assets is the ratio of interest income to average interest-earning assets. The average cost of interest-bearing liabilities is the ratio of interest expense to average interest-bearing liabilities.

Spread(3)	-	-	5.84%	8.42%	5.58%
Net interest margin(4)	-	-	17.20%	11.94%	7.52%

- (1) Yield represents the ratio of interest income to average interest earning assets.
- (2) Cost of funds represents the ratio of interest expense and other charges (including resource mobilization expenses) to average interest bearing liabilities.
- (3) Spread is the difference between yield and cost of funds.
- (4) Net interest margin is the ratio of net interest income to average interest-earning assets.

The difference between net interest margin and spread arises due to the difference in the amount of average interest-earning assets and average interest-bearing liabilities. If average interest-earning assets exceed average interest-bearing liabilities, net interest margin is greater than the spread. If average interest-bearing liabilities exceed average interest-earning assets, net interest margin is less than the spread.

Procedure and Schedule for Allotment and demat Credit of Equity Shares

The Issue will be conducted through a “100% Book Building Process” pursuant to which the members of the Syndicate will accept Bids for the Equity Shares during the Bid/Issue period. The Bid/Issue period will commence on March 16, 2011 and expire on March 18, 2011. Following the expiration of the Bid/Issue period, our Company and the Selling Shareholder in consultation with the Book Running Lead Managers and the Co Book Running Lead Manager, will determine the Issue Price. Our Company in consultation with the Book Running Lead Managers and the Co Book Running Lead Manager will determine the basis of allocation and entitlement to Allotment based on the Bids received and subject to confirmation by the Designated Stock Exchange. Successful bidders will be provided with a CAN (subject to a revised CAN) and will be required to pay any unpaid amount for the Equity Shares within a prescribed time. The SEBI Regulations require our Company to complete the Allotment to successful bidders within 12 Working Days of the expiration of the Bid/Issue period. The Equity Shares will then be credited and Allotted to the investors’ demat accounts maintained with the relevant Depository Participant. Upon approval by the Stock Exchanges, the Equity Shares will be listed and trading will commence.

Method of proportionate Basis of Allotment

Except in relation to Anchor Investors, in the event the Issue is oversubscribed, the Allotment shall be as per the basis of Allotment approved by the Designated Stock Exchange. The executive director or managing director of the Designated Stock Exchange along with the Book Running Lead Managers and the Co Book Running Lead Manager and the Registrar to the Issue shall be responsible for ensuring that the basis of Allotment is finalised in a fair and proper manner. Except in relation to Anchor Investors, Allotment to Bidders shall be made in marketable lots on a proportionate basis as explained below:

- (a) Bidders will be categorised according to the number of Equity Shares applied for by them.
- (b) The total number of Equity Shares to be Allotted to each category as a whole shall be arrived at on a proportionate basis, which is the total number of Equity Shares applied for in that category (number of Bidders in the category multiplied by the number of Equity Shares applied for) multiplied by the inverse of the oversubscription ratio.
- (c) The number of Equity Shares to be allotted to the successful Bidders will be arrived at on a proportionate basis, which is the total number of Equity Shares applied for by each Bidder in that category multiplied by the inverse of the oversubscription ratio.
- (d) If the proportionate Allotment to a Bidder is a number that is more than [●] but is not a multiple of one (which is the market lot), the decimal will be rounded off to the higher whole number if that decimal is 0.5 or higher.

If that number is lower than 0.5, it will be rounded off to the lower whole number. Allotment to all Bidders in such categories shall be arrived at after such rounding off.

Our Company, its Directors and officers, affiliates, associates and their respective directors and officers and the Book Running Lead Managers and the Co Book Running Lead Manager are not liable for any amendments, modifications, or changes in applicable laws or regulations, which may occur after the date of this Red Herring Prospectus. RESTRICTIONS ON FOREIGN OWNERSHIP OF INDIAN SECURITIES

Foreign investment in Indian securities is regulated through the Industrial Policy, 1991 of the Government of India and FEMA. While the Industrial Policy, 1991 prescribes the limits and the conditions subject to which foreign investment can be made in different sectors of the Indian economy, FEMA regulates the precise manner in which such investment may be made. Under the Industrial Policy, 1991, unless specifically restricted, foreign investment is freely permitted in all sectors of the Indian economy up to any extent and without any prior approvals, but the foreign investor is required to follow certain prescribed procedures for making such investment. Under the current foreign investment policy applicable to us foreign equity participation up to 100% is permissible under the automatic route.

Under the automatic route, no prior approval of the GoI is required for the issue of securities by Indian companies/acquisition of securities of Indian companies, subject to the sectoral caps and other prescribed conditions. Investors are required to file the required documentation with the RBI within 30 days of such issue/acquisition of securities. If the foreign investor has any previous joint venture/tie-up or a technology transfer/trademark agreement in the “same field” in India as on January 12, 2005, prior approval from the FIPB is required even if that activity falls under the automatic route, except as otherwise provided.

Under the approval route, prior approval from the FIPB/RBI is required. FDI for the items or activities that cannot be brought in under the automatic route may be brought in through the approval route. Approvals are accorded on the recommendation of the FIPB, which is chaired by the Secretary, DIPP, with the Union Finance Secretary, Commerce Secretary and other key Secretaries of the GoI as its members.

Subscription by foreign investors - Investment by FIIs

By way of Circular No. 53 dated December 17, 2003, the RBI has permitted FIIs to subscribe to shares of an Indian company in a public offer without the prior approval of the RBI, so long as the price of the equity shares to be issued is not less than the price at which the equity shares are issued to residents.

Transfers of equity shares previously required the prior approval of the FIPB. However, by a RBI circular dated October 4, 2004 issued by the RBI, the transfer of shares between an Indian resident and a non-resident does not require the prior approval of the FIPB or the RBI, provided that (i) the activities of the investee company are under the automatic route under the FDI Policy and transfer does not attract the provisions of the SEBI (Substantial Acquisition of Shares and Takeovers) Regulations, 1997, as amended, (ii) the non-resident shareholding is within the sectoral limits under the FDI policy, and (iii) the pricing is in accordance with the guidelines prescribed by the SEBI/RBI.

FIIs including institutions such as pension funds, mutual funds, investment trusts, insurance and reinsurance companies, international or multilateral organizations or their agencies, foreign governmental agencies, foreign central banks, asset management companies, investment managers or advisors, nominee companies, power of attorney holders, banks, trustees, endowment funds, university funds, foundation or charitable trusts or societies and institutional portfolio managers can invest in all the securities traded on the primary and secondary markets in India. FIIs are required to obtain an initial registration from the SEBI and a general permission from the RBI to engage in transactions regulated under the FEMA. FIIs must also comply with the provisions of the FII Regulations. The initial registration and the RBI's general permission together enable the registered FII to buy (subject to the ownership restrictions discussed below) and sell freely, securities issued by Indian companies, to realize capital gains or investments made through the initial amount invested in India, to subscribe or renounce rights issues for shares, to appoint a domestic custodian for custody of investments held and to repatriate the capital, capital gains, dividends, income received by way of interest and any compensation received towards sale or renunciation of rights issues of shares.

FIIs are permitted to purchase shares of an Indian company through public/private placement under:

- i. Regulation 5 (1) of the FEMA Regulations, subject to terms and conditions specified under Schedule 1 of the FEMA Regulations (“FDI Route”).
- ii. Regulation 5 (2) of the FEMA Regulations subject to terms and conditions specified under Schedule 2 of the FEMA Regulations (“PIS Route”).

In case of investments under FDI Route, investments are made either directly to the company account, or through a foreign currency denominated account maintained by the FII with an authorised dealer, wherein Form

FC-GPR is required to be filed by the company. Form FC-GPR is a filing requirement essentially for investments made by non-residents under the 'automatic route' or 'government approval route' falling under Schedule 1 of the FEMA Regulations.

In case of investments under the PIS Route, investments are made through special non-resident rupee account, wherein Form LEC (FII) is required to be filed by the designated bank of the FII concerned. Form LEC (FII) is essentially a filing requirement for FII investment (both in the primary as well as the secondary market) made through the PIS Route.

Foreign investment under the FDI Route is restricted/ prohibited in sectors provided in part A and part B of Annexure A to Schedule 1 of the FEMA Regulations.

Ownership Restrictions of FIIs

The issue of securities to a single FII under the PIS Route should not exceed 10% of the issued and paid-up capital of the company. In respect of an FII investing in securities on behalf of its sub-accounts, the investment on behalf of each sub-account shall not exceed 10% of the total issued and paid-up capital. The aggregate FII and sub-account holding in a company cannot exceed 24% of its total paid-up capital. The said 24% limit can be increased up to the sectoral cap/statutory ceiling, as applicable by passing a resolution by the board of directors followed by passing a special resolution to that effect by the shareholders of the company. Accordingly our Company has increased the said limit to 49% pursuant to a Board resolution and shareholders resolution, both dated May 11, 2010.

Subject to compliance with all applicable Indian laws, rules, regulations guidelines and approvals in terms of regulation 15A(1) of the FII Regulations, an FII may issue, deal or hold, offshore derivative instruments such as "Participatory Notes", equity-linked notes or any other similar instruments against underlying securities listed or proposed to be listed on any stock exchange in India only in favour of those entities which are regulated by any relevant regulatory authorities in the countries of their incorporation or establishment subject to compliance of "know your client" requirements. An FII or their Sub-Account shall also ensure that no further downstream issue or transfer of any instrument referred to hereinabove is made to any person other than a regulated entity. FIIs and their Sub-Accounts are not allowed to issue offshore derivative instruments with underlying as derivatives.

Foreign Direct Investment

FDI is permitted (except in the prohibited sectors) in Indian companies either through the automatic route or the approval route, depending upon the sector in which FDI is sought to be made. Investors are required to file the required documentation with the RBI within 30 days of such issue/ acquisition of securities.

Under the approval route, prior approval of the FIPB and/or RBI is required. FDI for the items/ activities not under the automatic route (other than in prohibited sectors) may depend upon the activity brought in through the approval route. Further:

- (a) As per the sector specific guidelines of the Government of India, 100% FDI/ NRI investments are allowed under the automatic route in certain NBFC activities subject to compliance with guidelines of the RBI in this regard.
- (b) Minimum Capitalisation Norms for fund-based NBFCs are the following:
 - (i) For FDI up to 51% - US$ 0.5 million to be brought upfront
 - (ii) For FDI above 51% and up to 75% - US $ 5 million to be brought upfront
 - (iii) For FDI above 75% and up to 100% - US $ 50 million out of which US $ 7.5 million to be brought upfront and the balance in 24 months
- (c) Minimum capitalization norm of US$0.5 million is applicable in respect of all permitted non-fund based NBFCs with foreign investment
- (d) Foreign investors can set up 100% operating subsidiaries without the condition to disinvest a minimum of 25% of its equity to Indian entities, subject to bringing in US$ 50 million specified in (b) (iii) above (without any restriction on number of operating subsidiaries without bringing in additional capital)

- (e) Joint ventures operating NBFC's that have 75% or less than 75% foreign investment will also be allowed to set up subsidiaries for undertaking other NBFC activities, subject to the subsidiaries also complying with the applicable minimum capital inflow, i.e. (b) (i) and (b) (ii) above.

Where FDI is allowed on an automatic basis without FIPB approval, the RBI would continue to be the primary agency for the purposes of monitoring and regulating foreign investment. In cases where FIPB approval is obtained, the prior approval of the RBI may not be required other than in certain circumstances although a declaration in the prescribed form, detailing the foreign investment, must be filed with the RBI once the foreign investment is made in the Indian company. Every Indian company issuing shares or convertible debentures in accordance with the RBI regulations is required to submit a report to the RBI within 30 days of receipt of the consideration and another report within 30 days from the date of issue of the shares to the non resident purchaser.

NBFC's having FDI are required to submit a certificate from the statutory auditors on half yearly basis certifying compliance with the terms and conditions of the FDI regulations. Such certificate should be submitted not later than one month from the close of the half year to which the certificates pertains to the regional office of the RBI in whose jurisdiction the head office of the Company is registered.

Calculation of total foreign investment in Indian companies

Foreign investment in Indian securities is regulated by the industrial policy of the Government consolidated under circular (D/o IPP F. No. 5(14)/2010-FC) dated September 30, 2010 ("Consolidated FDI Policy") released by the Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion, Ministry of Commerce and Industry and notifications issued by RBI from time to time. Under the Industrial Policy of the Government, unless specifically restricted, foreign investment is freely permitted in all sectors of Indian economy up to any extent and without any prior approvals, but the foreign investor is required to follow certain prescribed procedures and reporting requirements for making such investment.

The chapter 4 of the Consolidated FDI Policy provides the method of calculating foreign investment in an Indian company.

Foreign investment is defined broadly and includes investment by FIIs and NRIs, and foreign investment in the form of American depositary receipts, global depositary receipts, foreign currency convertible bonds, convertible preference shares and convertible currency debentures.

The Consolidated FDI Policy specifies that all investments made directly by a non-resident entity in an Indian company would be considered as foreign investment. Further, in relation to an investment by an Indian company in another Indian company, if (i) the investing Indian company is owned and controlled by resident Indian citizens, and (ii) foreign entities do not own or control the investing Indian company, then the foreign investment in the investing Indian company will not be considered for calculation of the foreign investment in the second Indian company. However, if the requirements under (i) and (ii) above are not satisfied, then the entire investment of the investing Indian company in the second Indian company being invested in will be considered foreign investment.

Pursuant to the Consolidated FDI Policy, an investing company shall be considered (i) "owned" by resident Indian citizens or foreign entities if more than 50% of its equity interest is beneficially owned by resident Indian citizens or foreign entities, as the case may be, and (ii) "controlled" by resident Indian citizens or foreign entities if the resident Indian citizens or foreign entities, as the case may be, have the power to appoint a majority of its directors.

The Consolidated FDI Policy provides guidelines relating to downstream investments by Indian companies that have foreign investment. These guidelines are based on the principle that downstream investments by Indian companies owned or controlled by foreign entities should follow the same rules as those applicable to direct foreign investment. In respect of downstream investments by Indian companies that are not owned or controlled by foreign entities, there would not be any restrictions.

For the purpose of downstream investments, the Consolidated FDI Policy classifies Indian companies into one of three groups: (i) operating companies, (ii) operating-and-investing companies and (iii) investing companies. In connection with foreign investment in these categories of Indian companies, the Consolidated FDI Policy provides that:

- (a) foreign investment in an operating company will need to comply with the terms and conditions for foreign investment in the relevant sector(s) in which such company operates;
- (b) foreign investment in an operating-and-investing company will need to comply with the terms and conditions for foreign investment in the relevant sector(s) in which such company operates. Further, the Indian company into which downstream investments are made will need to comply with the terms and conditions for foreign investment in the relevant sectors in which such Indian company operates; and
- (c) foreign investment in investing company (i.e. an Indian company holding only direct or indirect investments in other Indian companies other than for trading of such holdings) will require the prior approval of the FIPB.

The Consolidated FDI Policy further provides that foreign investment in an Indian company that does not have (i) any operations, and (ii) any downstream investments, will require the prior approval of the FIPB.

PTC India Financial Services Ltd

CRISIL IPO Grade 3/5 (Average)

March 01, 2011

Grading summary

CRISIL has assigned a CRISIL IPO grade of '3/5' (pronounced "three on five") to the proposed IPO of PTC India Financial Services Ltd (PFS). This grade indicates that the fundamentals of the IPO are average relative to other listed equity securities in India. However, this grade is not an opinion on whether the issue price is appropriate in relation to the issue fundamentals. The grade is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold the graded instrument, its future market price or suitability for a particular investor.

The assigned grade showcases the high tide of financing opportunities arising for players like PFS thanks to large-scale investments required in the power sector following an increase in power demand. CRISIL Research expects more than Rs 9.3 tn will be invested in the power sector during FY10-15. The grade takes into account the rich vintage of the company's parent, PTC India, which has been a leader in power trading. The parent support will also help PFS in sourcing clients and synergise monitoring of common projects. The grade further draws support from the company's well-laid out systems and processes for project appraisal and collateral requirement.

However, the grade is moderated by the relatively small balance sheet of PFS given its short track record. PFS is likely to face intense competition from large banks and non-banking finance companies (NBFCs) who have strong balance sheets and long-existing clients. The company's high cost of funds also impacts its competitive position. The grade factors in the single sector risk (only power) as well as execution risk of the projects funded.

PFS reported PAT of Rs 255 mn on a total income of Rs 536 mn in H1FY11. The average yield and cost of funds during the same period were 16.9% and 10.7%, respectively. In H1FY11, the book value was Rs 15.21 per share.

Detailed Grading Rationale

A. Business Prospects

- Investments worth Rs 9.3 tn expected in the power sector offer lending opportunities*

We expect PFS to ride the giant wave of lending opportunities thrown up by the power sector following an increase in demand for power. CRISIL Research expects power demand to grow at 7.8% CAGR over FY10-15 with the industrial sector leading the growth. India is estimated to add around 82 GW of power capacity over FY10-15 with power supply growing at 9.1% CAGR. The capacity additions are expected to be spearheaded by the private sector, with a share of 46 GW. With this, the power deficit in India will come down to 4.8% by FY15, but will continue.

Total Investments	9,259

Source: CRISIL Research

The sizeable capacity addition in the power sector is expected to translate to Rs 9.3 tn in investment over the next five years, with generation (both utilities and captives) comprising Rs 5.8 tn (63% of the total investment).

CRISIL Research estimates a CAGR of 23% for private sector investments compared to the overall 15% CAGR over the next five years. Consequently, the share of private sector investments is expected to increase to 60% in 2014-15 from 42% in 2009-10. During the same period, CRISIL Research expects total investments in the generation segment (utilities) to be ~Rs 5.1 tn, with the private sector accounting for about 57% of the investments.

- Leverages on expertise and relationships of its promoter PTC India*

PFS extensively benefits from the power sector expertise, network and relationships of PTC and its affiliates, which helps PFS to assess the financing needs of power projects. Synergies with PTC India help PFS in sourcing deals as well as to understand and efficiently cater to the developers' needs in a comprehensive manner. Also, financing the projects where PTC is a power trader helps continuous monitoring of the project. Further, it benefits from brand association – PTC India is an established brand name in the Indian power sector. Additionally, key management personnel inducted in PFS have been associated with the power sector and have the ability to identify specific requirements of power project developers.

- Well-established internal systems and processes*

PFS has laid down various systems and processes for project appraisal and monitoring. For instance, it has implemented the Advanced Internal Risk Scoring Model developed by ICRA Management Consulting Services Ltd for the assessment and mitigation of credit risk. These processes and systems include a detailed appraisal methodology, identification of risks and suitable structuring of credit risk mitigation measures. Further, it takes additional collaterals especially for weaker projects to protect itself from any deterioration in the asset quality.

- Relatively small balance sheet compared to peers, but enjoys cross-selling benefit

PFS is relatively small with a net worth of just Rs 6,600 mn as on September 30, 2010 compared to other NBFCs in the power sector, namely PFC and REC, who have a stronger balance sheet with a net worth of Rs 126 bn and Rs 110 bn, respectively as of FY10, considering decades of existence in the lending business. Also, banks and NBFCs have an existing relationship with clients. A small balance sheet restricts the company's ability to fund large-scale projects. However, it enjoys benefits of cross-selling a basket of products like equity investments, structured products in debt financing and carbon credit financing unlike its competitors who only provide long-term financing.

- Short history of operations and high concentration risk

With a short history of two to three years, PFS is still a relatively new player in equity and debt financing. Though the company enjoys support from parent PTC India, which helps it identify key project risks, its financing ability is yet to be proven. Most of its debt-financing (long-term) projects are still in the implementation/ moratorium stage. On the equity side it has, till date, monetised only one equity investment – IEX - for Rs 135 mn (partial exit) in September 2010. Only three of its eight equity investment projects - with an aggregate power generation capacity of 176 MW - have commenced commercial operations. However, some of the top management at PFS have expertise in the banking and NBFC sector which helps in structuring products while effectively minimising associated risks.

PFS funds projects only in the power sector, which exposes it to the single-sector concentration risk. Additionally, within the power sector, it has financed largely generation sector power projects. Further, all the power projects funded by PFS are usually small or medium projects. Considering that large power companies face several execution constraints leading to project delays, we believe small/ medium power projects could face larger execution risks. However, the projects funded by PFS till date have been able to largely meet their respective execution timelines. In terms of borrower concentration, its top five borrowers comprise 81% of the total loans outstanding as of FY10.

Concentration of outstanding loans as on September 30, 2010

Borrowers	Percentage of total outstanding loans
MB Power (Madhya Pradesh) Ltd	19.84%
Konaseema Gas Power Ltd	16.53%
Thermal Powertech Corp. India Ltd	16.53%
Athena Chhattisgarh Power Pvt. Ltd	14.88%
Surana Power Ltd	13.23%
Jhajjar Power Ltd	5.27%
OCL India Ltd	4.96%
A.A. Energy Ltd	2.69%
Amreli Power Projects (P) Ltd	2.51%
RKM Powergen P Ltd.-Phase-II	1.69%
Total	98%

- Relatively high cost of funds

PFS's cost of funds is higher compared to other financiers. However, going forward, with its balance sheet size increasing, its cost of funds is expected to fall and the gap with peers would narrow. Further, IFC status to PFS offers it the benefit to issue infrastructure bonds as well as external commercial borrowings (ECB), which will help to reduce the cost of funds. Additionally, PFS does high-yielding short-term financing, which has helped it garner better interest margin. However, in order to mitigate the risks associated with short-term lending, it has systems and processes to take sufficient collateral.

However, going forward, with increase in net worth post IPO, financials are expected to improve.

C. Management Capabilities and Corporate Governance

- Top management well experienced in the power sector

Most of PFS' top management personnel have several decades of experience in the power sector. Their experience will help PFS identify investment opportunities in the power sector. Also, PTC will support PFS in getting leads for investment opportunities as well in monitoring the progress of the projects (in case PTC is involved in the PPA arrangement).

- A novice in financing business although a few key management personnel have banking/ lending background

Although PFS benefits from PTC India's industry experience, it is relatively new in the lending business. However, some of its key management personnel have banking/ lending background. For instance, PFS has hired people who have earlier served Power Finance Corporation. The CMD of PFS, who is also CMD of PTC India, has three decades of experience as a member of the Indian Audit and Accounts Service and previously was Director- Finance with PFC. However, none of them have equity investment experience.

- Experienced and reputed independent directors

Independent directors are professionals with good experience and knowledge. Out of the six independent directors, two are also on the board of PTC India. One independent director, Mr Uddesh Kohli, was earlier the CMD of PFC and brings to the table his long years of experience as well as board practices of PFC. Mrs Rama Murali, retired Indian Audit and Accounts Service officer, inducted on the board in 2010 is the chairman of the Audit Committee. The company has 10 committees in place, of which four committees are chaired by the independent directors and the rest - IPO, Compensation, Nomination, Asset Liability Management, Issuance of Bonds and Directors committee - by the CMD.

- Similar business interests: Both PFS and PTC India want to launch a PE fund

PFS and PTC India both have plans to launch a private equity fund. PTC India has already entered into an agreement with the Ashmore group to establish an energy fund and an asset management company. PFS too is keen on launching an energy fund. Although the terms of a definitive cooperation agreement between PFS and PTC India for PE fund are under discussion, no such definitive agreement has been entered into as of date. The Principles of Co-operation state that PFS shall refer all energy sector equity financing opportunities in India in excess of Rs 1,000 mn to PTC Ashmore Fund, while PTC Ashmore Fund shall refer to PFS all energy sector equity financing opportunities of less than or equal to Rs 1,000 mn.

Business Profile

Business overview

PFS provides equity financing, debt financing (long- and short-term), carbon credit financing as well as fee-based syndication and advisory services such as techno-economic feasibility studies for power projects in India. It is focused primarily on funding power generation projects.

- Equity financing

PFS makes strategic equity investments in power sector companies, mostly greenfield projects. The nature and extent of equity participation in such companies vary in accordance with requirements, opportunities and risks associated with the relevant project. The first equity investment of Rs 65 mn was made in Indian Energy Exchange (IEX) in December 2007 for a 26% stake. In September 2010, it liquidated investments in IEX for Rs 135 mn, post which PFS' shareholding in IEX reduced to 21.12%. As of September 30, 2010, the company has approved and disbursed equity investments worth Rs 4,838 mn and Rs 4,186 mn, respectively.

- Debt financing

PFS commenced the debt financing business including short-term, long-term as well as structured financing in FY09. Long-term loans act as a part of consortium financing, typically with a 10-15 years maturity period, bear floating interest rates and are usually backed by various securities and collaterals including, mortgage of immovable properties, hypothecation of movable assets, corporate guarantee, personal guarantee, pledge of shares of promoters, bank guarantee, etc. Short-term loans typically have a maturity period of up to five years. Short-term loans permit the borrower to provide one or more of the following types of any of the securities: a pledge of shares, hypothecation of assets, bank guarantee, corporate and personal guarantees. Additionally, it offers short-term loans which can get converted to long-term loans after the achievement of financial closure. Bridge loans are offered prior to financial closure of a project to expedite its implementation. The average yield on all loans was 19.02% for FY10 and 16.86% for H1FY11. As of September 30, 2010, the company has approved and disbursed debt financing worth Rs 18,815 mn and Rs 6,048 mn, respectively.

- Carbon credit financing against CER

PFS commenced carbon credit financing against Certified Emission Reductions (CER) in March 2010. It finances companies by acquiring their CER rights, which have already accrued or will accrue to the companies in the future. It purchases future CERs from power project developers for sale to third parties. It enters into strategic partnerships with Macquarie Bank Ltd and Vitol SA for back to back sale of these CERs.

Sources of funding

PFS' primary fund sources include equity, term loans and non-convertible debentures (NCDs) issued. It issued NCDs of Rs 2 bn in October 2009 and Rs 3 bn February 2010. In October 2010, it also entered into agreement with Germany's Deutsche Investitions-UND Entwicklungsgesellschaft MBH (DEG) for US$26 mn ECB loan for on-lending to renewable energy projects. As of September 30, 2010, NCD and long-term loans formed 38.3% and 19.0%, respectively, of the total funding. The average funding cost was 10.60% in FY10 and 10.70% in H1FY11.

Infrastructure status given to PFS

The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) classified PFS as an Infrastructure Finance Company (IFC) in August 2010. This will enable PFS to raise funds on cost-competitive basis and get higher debt exposures in infrastructure projects. It is entitled to lend up to 25% of its owned funds to a single borrower in the infrastructure sector, compared to 20% of owned funds by other NBFCs that have not been granted IFC status. It is also eligible to raise ECBs up to 50% of owned funds without prior RBI approval. Further, it can raise capital through issuance of infrastructure bonds at comparatively lower yields, as holders of such bonds are entitled to tax benefits under Section 80CCF of the Income Tax Act 1961 against cost of borrowing of 10.7-11%.

RATING • RESEARCH • INFORMATION

PTC India Financial Services Limited

ICRA has assigned an 'IPO Grade 4', indicating above average fundamentals to the proposed initial public offering of PTC India Financial Services Limited (PFS). ICRA assigns IPO grading on a scale of IPO Grade 5 through IPO Grade 1, with Grade 5 indicating strong fundamentals and Grade 1 indicating poor fundamentals. PFS is proposing to come out with an Initial Public Offer of 15.67 crore number of equity shares of face value Rs. 10/- at a yet to be determined premium. The IPO constitute fresh issue of 12.75 crore number of equity shares by PFS and offer for sale of 2.92 crore number of equity shares by existing shareholder Macquarie India Holdings Limited. The offer will constitute 27.88% of the fully diluted post issue paid up equity share capital of the company. Following the IPO the shareholding of the promoters (PTC) will reduce from 77.6% to 60%. The offer would be made through the 100% book building route. Of the net offer, 50% is reserved for Qualified Institutional Buyers (QIBs), 15% for non-institutional investors and 35% for the retail investors. Post IPO, the shares will be listed on the National Stock Exchange and Bombay Stock Exchange. The objects of the offer are to augment the capital base of PFS to meet future capital requirement and to achieve the benefits of listing on the Stock Exchanges.

The above average fundamental grading factors in the high growth prospects of PFS given sizeable fund requirement of the power sector backed by strong capacity addition plans of Independent Power Producers (IPPs). In addition, PFS' close association with PTC, a leading power trading company in India, likely to offer adequate growth opportunities to PFS. Further, PFS is well positioned to leverage the robust growth potential in the segment given its diversified product mix i.e. term lending, direct equity investments and mezzanine/intermediate funding and benefits arising from adequate power sector knowledge deriving from PTC and its experienced senior management team. However, PFS is a relatively small size company, compared to other power sector financiers, and also has limited track record as it started operations in May-2007, but PTC's power sector knowledge alongwith PFS' experienced management team likely to ensure quality of appraisals and selection of good investments. In addition, relatively small network of PFS also limits its exposure to small share in consortium lending or a reasonable share in small to medium size power projects, though with the augmentation of the company's capital base through its proposed IPO and Infrastructure Finance Company (IFC) status is likely to help company to certain extent.

PFS has long-term credit rating of LA+ (Positive) and short-term rating of A1+ from ICRA. PFS has diversified funding profile and raises funds at relatively competitive rates from banks and other investors, though its cost of funds is higher than leading power sector financiers and banks. PFS' intends to mitigate the impact of higher cost of funds by maintaining higher lending rates in some cases and also higher margins in mezzanine/ intermediate financing. As on September 30, 2010, PFS has total portfolio of Rs.1,023 crore; around 41% of PFS' portfolio represented equity investments in project companies followed by mezzanine/intermediate financing (38%) and term lending book (21%). Independent Power Producers (IPPs) are the main customers of PFS in all three segments. Going forward, the proportion of term lending book is likely to increase significantly from the current level as PFS will start disbursing the funds from the existing sanctions which are in different stages of implementation.

PFS' return on networth, has been lower than other players in the industry, at around 4% in 2009-10 and 8% in H1 2010-11. The return on networth of PFS is relatively low as large chunk of its assets are blocked in equity investments in project companies, which are not fetching any return as of now. Despite the expected shift in portfolio in favour of low earning term loans, return on net worth of PFS is likely to improve once PFS starts liquidating the equity / mezzanine portfolio as and when these become operational. However, given the long gestation period of power projects, impact on earnings may be visible with a lagged effect.

As on September 30, 2010, PFS has sanctioned debt commitments of Rs.1,882 crore and had portfolio outstanding of Rs.605 crore. As regard direct equity investments, PFS sanctioned total investments of Rs.484 crore and had portfolio outstanding of Rs.418 crore.

PTC India Financial Services Ltd.

Grading

Particulars	No. of equity shares	Grading
IPO Grading	15.7 crore*	'CARE IPO Grade 4'

*including an offer for sale by selling shareholders of 2.9 crore shares

CARE has assigned a 'CARE IPO Grade 4' to the proposed Initial Public Offer (IPO) of PTC India Financial Services Ltd. (PFS). 'CARE IPO Grade 4' indicates 'Above Average Fundamentals'. CARE assigns IPO grades on a scale of Grade 5 to Grade 1, with Grade 5 indicating strong fundamentals and Grade 1 indicating poor fundamentals. CARE's IPO grading is an opinion on the fundamentals of the issuer. The grade assigned to any individual issue represents a relative assessment of the 'fundamentals' of the issuer.

Grading Rationale

The grading reflects the strengths that the company derives from its parent PTC India Limited (PTC) and the strong growth potential for the company given its strategic positioning in the power sector. The grading also reflects PFS' experienced board of directors and management and the good corporate governance practices adopted by the company including presence of various committees and independence of the board. The grading considers sound financial management of the company reflected in tie up of long term funding for financing of long gestation power projects along with comfortable capital adequacy and access to diverse sources of institutional funding.

The grading is however moderated due to low seasoning of the portfolio, high concentration risk due to relatively small balance sheet size and exposure to project risks. However these risks are mitigated to some extent due to the PFS' expertise in appraising power sector projects. The grading is also constrained due to the relatively recent operational setup and evolving risk management systems.

Background and Company Profile

PFS is an Infrastructure Finance Company (IFC), promoted by PTC India, with the mandate to provide financing solutions to companies with projects across the entire energy chain. The company provides financing to private sector power generation projects in India. PFS was incorporated on September 8, 2006 and was classified as an Infrastructure Finance Company (IFC) with effect from August 23, 2010. As on March 31, 2010, major shareholders of the company include PTC India Limited (77.6%), GS Strategic Investments Limited (11.2%) and Macquarie India Holdings Limited (11.2%).

Management

The management team comprises of senior managers having wide experience in the power sector. Mr. Tantra Narayan Thakur, Chairman and Founder of PFS, has been the Chairman of PTC since 2000. He has more than 30 years of experience in treasury and financial management as a member of the Indian Audit and Accounts Service. He has also previously served as a Director (Finance and Financial Operations), Power Finance Corporation Limited, where he was responsible for mobilizing resources for on-lending to power projects.

Dr. Ashok Haldia, Whole-time director and Chief Financial Officer of PFS, has prior experience of project financing and industrial financing policy; public sector policy reforms, power sector reform, restructuring and financing. He previously served as Secretary, the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India for almost a decade and has also been associated with the Bureau of Public Enterprises, State Enterprises Department, Government of Rajasthan and Power Finance Corporation Ltd.

Mr. Vijay Singh Bisht, Senior Vice President and Head (Debt division) has over 24 years of experience in techno economic/financial appraisal of power projects. He previously served at Power Finance Corporation Limited as Deputy General Manager and was responsible for the commercial appraisal of power projects and marketing of debt portfolio in Eastern and North Eastern region of India.

The board consists of senior officials and IAS officers who have served in various capacities in the power sector. Some of the entities in which the board members have served include Power Finance Corporation Limited, Ministry of Power (Government of India), Ministry of Finance (Government of India), Maharashtra State Electricity Board and NHPC Limited.

Strategic positioning in the Power sector

The projected demand in the power sector presents significant growth opportunities for power specialist financing companies in India. According to the Twelfth Plan of the planning commission, the required funding for power generation projects alone is estimated to be approximately Rs.495,083 crore. As a subsidiary of PTC, PFS derives benefits from PTC's industry knowledge and network both in terms of business origination and investment appraisals.

Corporate Governance

PFS has adopted good corporate governance practices that include presence of various committees and independence of the board of directors. PFS has constituted various committees including audit committee, shareholders/investors grievance committee, nomination committee, asset liability management committee, remuneration committee and an IPO committee which have directors of the company as members. PFS has six independent directors (out of eleven directors) which constitute majority of the board.

Financial Management

PFS has a sound asset liability management policy and diversified resource profile. Asset liability profile is comfortable as there is no cumulative mismatch in any of the buckets. PFS has raised long term funding for its long gestation projects and funds equity investments through its net worth. Term loans with a maturity of 9-15 years constitute the majority of the borrowings. PFS has also entered into External Commercial Borrowings (ECB) agreement with Deutsche Investitions - UND Entwicklungsgesellschaft MBH (US$26 million with a tenure of 12 years) and has signed a term sheet with International Finance Corporation (US$50 million with a tenure of 11 years) for on-lending to renewable energy projects. The IFC status granted by RBI to PFS in August 2010 provides the company more flexibility in terms of funding as IFCs can issue infrastructure bonds at comparatively lower yields and are allowed to raise ECBs up to 50.00% of their owned funds without prior RBI approval. The company has also been able to raise equity at regular intervals over the years and counts Goldman Sachs and Macquarie Group as institutional investors.

Asset Quality and Risk Management Systems

Asset quality concerns remain with low seasoning of the portfolio while the risk management systems of the company are still evolving due to the relatively short history of the company. The company started operations in 2007 and has built up its book substantially in the past 2 years. As on September 30, 2010, PFS did not have any non performing assets. Majority of the projects in the company's equity and debt portfolio are in pre-commissioning stage due to which the asset quality is exposed to high project completion risk. Moreover, the company also faces high concentration risk due to small asset base with top ten individual borrowers accounting for 98% of the total outstanding loans as of September 30, 2010. However, the above risks are mitigated to a certain extent due to the company's sector expertise. Also the company is in the process of raising equity which will increase its balance sheet size thereby reducing the portfolio concentration.

IPO Issue Details

Issue details	No. of shares (in crore)
Public Issue	15.67

Pre-Issue Shareholding

Post-Issue Shareholding

PFS is proposing to issue 15.67 crore shares including an offer for sale by selling 2.92 crore shares and the balance constituting fresh equity. PFS will not receive any proceeds from the offer for sale. PFS plans to utilize the funds mobilized through initial public offering (IPO) to augment its capital base to meet future capital requirements arising out of growth in the company's business.

Majority of the income was through financing activity with interest income contributing more than 50% of total income for FY10. Income from investments increased significantly in H1FY11 due to profits realized from stake sale in one of the equity investments. PFS has managed to borrow long term funds at very low costs due to its parentage. Operating costs are low as PFS is a corporate finance business with limited distribution channel costs. Gearing is maintained at low levels and capital adequacy is comfortable with a reported figure of 60.9% as on September 30, 2010. The company has built up its portfolio substantially over the last two years.

Industry Outlook

According to the Monthly Review (October 2010) of the Central Electricity Authority (CEA), the total installed power generation capacity in India was 167,278 MW as of August 31, 2010. The peak power deficit was 12.7% and total energy deficit was 10.1% in FY10. The target capacity addition in the Eleventh plan (FY2008-Fy2012) was of 78,700 MW out of which 22,302 MW of capacity addition was achieved in first 3 years of the plan. The overall (generation, transmission, distribution and r&m projects) funding requirements for the Eleventh and Twelfth plan are Rs.10,59,515 crore and Rs.11,00,000 crore respectively.

Moreover, in order to promote further development in the power sector, The Electricity Act was enacted in 2003. The Electricity Act covered major issues involving generation, distribution, transmission and trading in power. Some of the major growth initiatives include making electricity generation a non-licensed activity allowing the independent power producers (IIP) to sell power directly to consumers and removing restrictions on setting up of power plant by captive generation acts. The act was further amended in 2007 to exempt captive power generation plants from licensing requirements for supply to any licensee or consumer.

Major investments are needed to meet the capacity targets in the country and the enactment of Electricity Act, 2003 removes some of the important regulatory bottlenecks that prevailed in the sector. Companies having specialist power knowledge will have a significant advantage in selecting investment opportunities in the sector. PFS as a subsidiary of PTC, will be in a strong position to leverage on PTC's sector expertise and industry network for its growth.
